It is in the child November, and I sit beside the eunuch slowly, slowly fading on the heartfulness of my home. Without the light are sighing, a wild dirge for flowers dying.

Thanksgiving Day in Pennsylvania.

HARRISBURG, Oct. 21.—The Governor has issued the following proclamation: In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania...

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, It is a good thing to render thanks unto God for all his mercy and loving kindness; therefore, I, Andrew G. Curtin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania...

BESEECING HIM TO HELP AND GOVERN US IN HIS STEADFAST FAITH AND LOVE.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Commonwealth, the eighty-seventh.

By the Governor. ELI SLIFER, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Ohio citizens are raising a fund of $100,000, to be devoted to purchasing artificial limbs for such Ohio soldiers as may need them.

Hear Three Democratic Soldiers Talk.

At a late grand Union rally at Chicago, General Prentiss, Colonel Lynch and Captain Gregg, all of whom have been prisoners since the battle of Shiloh...

General Prentiss gave a long and deeply interesting narrative of the sufferings of himself and companions in captivity, and the meanness and barbarism of the rebels—more fully stated, but substantially the same as that he gave in his speech at Washington.

A Judicial View of the Emancipation Act.

Theophilus Parsons, in a letter to the Boston Advertiser, says: There are three questions concerning the President's emancipation proclamation. One, has he a constitutional power to issue it, as a civil, political or administrative act?

REBELS' GENERAL ABANDONING THE CAUSE.

St. Louis, Oct. 23.—The Republican of yesterday morning contains a brief announcement that Brig. Gen. Edwin Price, son of Major General Sterling Price, has resigned his commission in the Confederate service.

LETTER FROM A LOYAL LADY IN SAVANNAH, WIFE OF A HIGH REBEL OFFICER.

[From the New York Times.] [For the authenticity of the following letter we can vouch. The lady writes regularly and her correspondence is published. She invariably speaks without restraint her views of affairs in the South and her letters, on being received by her friends, all bear the Baltimore post mark.—Ed. Times.]

SAVANNAH, GA., UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, OCTOBER 11, 1862.

DEAREST MOTHER.—Your kind letter reached me, and would have given me an unmingled pleasure but for the announcement of poor Capt. —'s death. How terrible for his sisters, and for poor Miss —, who, when I last saw her, showed me his carte de visite, and half confessed they were engaged, although neither the Commander nor her aunt knew or suspected anything of the matter.

THE SILVER LAKE "SNAKE" MYSTERY SOLVED.

[From the Rochester (N. Y.) Democrat.] A few years since, the whole of Western New York was intensely excited over reports that were circulated about an enormous sea serpent that had been discovered disappearing himself in the quiet waters of Silver Lake, a modest little pond, on the border of which stands the village of Perry, Wyoming county.

AN AWKWARD MISTAKE.

A passenger travelling in a third-class carriage, a few days ago, on an excursion train from Limerick to Waterford, was mistaken for the bandman, and got so roughly handled that he was obliged to claim the protection of the police at the Clonmel station, where he remained, as he feared worse consequences if he proceeded on to Waterford.
