

Our Flag Forever.
I know of no mode in which a loyal citizen may so well demonstrate his devotion to his country as by maintaining the flag, the Constitution and the Union, under all circumstances, and under every Administration, regardless of party politics, against all assailants, at home and abroad.

THE NEWS.

The affairs on the Potomac are promising good results. The army continues in motion, but of course all its movements are not made public.

Who spends the Sabbath Day in a certain bar-room in town, defaming his neighbors and damning himself by drinking bad whiskey? Answer—Bill Lewis!

He was raked for a liar more unscrupulous than the author of the above paragraph which we copy from the editorial columns of the last Monitor.

Eight thousand women have signed a petition which is now before the President, praying for the removal of all incompetent, negligent, knavish and drunken men from positions of command in the army.

U. S. SENATOR.—The next Legislature will have an important duty to perform—the election of a United States Senator to take the place of David Wilmot.

What a picture. But a few weeks, and the Monitor has exposed to the public view a wretch as ever stood upon two legs.

Our readers may ask the question, "What had Sheriff Miller been guilty of to justify an attack so ungentlemanly upon his house and himself?"

"THE HORSE CONTRACTS."—Under this head the last Monitor offers a column of editorial in defence of the horse speculations in this neighborhood last fall.

MR. VALLANDIGHAM, by the "better way to end the war" of which he boasts in the following paragraph, means ignoble submission to the South.

A HUMILIATING RETREAT.—Albert Owen, the brave soldier boy in the militia service, has been running against some members of Company F, and was compelled to "take the water," rather than have his nose twisted.

We have not been Deceived.

We predicted some weeks ago, that the Monitor would soon expose the true object for which it had been established. Every week's issue since then has confirmed our prediction.

THE HUGHES' DEMOCRACY OF PHILADELPHIA held a jubilee meeting in Independence Square on Friday night last. Frank Hughes was one of the speakers.

GETTING BOLDER.—Some of the "Democratic" papers and stump orators have taken courage since the election to speak their sentiments more boldly than they felt safe in doing before the election.

DOES'N'T ALL LAUGH.—The Journal editors say they "are armed so strong in honesty" that any charge to the contrary will pass by them as the idle wind.

MR. VALLANDIGHAM, by the "better way to end the war" of which he boasts in the following paragraph, means ignoble submission to the South.

WE notice that many of our exchanges have been reduced in size, that expenses in paper and labor may be less. In many instances the terms of subscription has been raised from $1.50 to $2.00.

Where is Democracy Drifting to?

The Hughes' Democracy of Philadelphia held a jubilee meeting in Independence Square on Friday night last. Frank Hughes was one of the speakers.

GETTING BOLDER.—Some of the "Democratic" papers and stump orators have taken courage since the election to speak their sentiments more boldly than they felt safe in doing before the election.

DOES'N'T ALL LAUGH.—The Journal editors say they "are armed so strong in honesty" that any charge to the contrary will pass by them as the idle wind.

MR. VALLANDIGHAM, by the "better way to end the war" of which he boasts in the following paragraph, means ignoble submission to the South.

WE notice that many of our exchanges have been reduced in size, that expenses in paper and labor may be less. In many instances the terms of subscription has been raised from $1.50 to $2.00.

SOMEbody IS HERE.—The last Journal, in a column of rich, racy and sublime ideas, has let "the cat out of the bag."

"This has been a wonderful election—wonderful that we should have cast, under the bars that were put up against us, over 210,000 ballots. It was stated, long before you and I were born, that great and noble men turned each occasion to their own advantage.

DOES'N'T ALL LAUGH.—The Journal editors say they "are armed so strong in honesty" that any charge to the contrary will pass by them as the idle wind.

MR. VALLANDIGHAM, by the "better way to end the war" of which he boasts in the following paragraph, means ignoble submission to the South.

WE notice that many of our exchanges have been reduced in size, that expenses in paper and labor may be less. In many instances the terms of subscription has been raised from $1.50 to $2.00.

WAR NEWS.

THE WAR IN MISSOURI.

Defeat of Another Band of Guerrillas.—Capture of Prisoners, Horses, etc.

HEADQUARTERS, MANSFIELD, Mo., Oct. 22.—Major General Curtis—I have the honor to report that on the evening of the 20th, I received information of a party of rebels moving up Niagara creek, making towards a point eight miles east of this place, and en route to join the rebels in the southwest.

Extensive Movements of the Rebel Troops.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Information has reached here from Berryville, Clark county, Va., on the other side of the Blue Ridge, up to yesterday.

FROM HEADQUARTERS.

Stuart Again in Motion.—The Pennsylvania Regiments to be Filled by the Drafted Men.

SOME of the Hughes' organs are very much afraid that Simon Cameron will buy up some of their party to secure his election to the United States Senate.

HEAVY LOSS TO THE REBELS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Refugees who have reached the United States bark Kingfisher, on the coast of Florida, report that the late destruction of the extensive stone salt works in St. Joseph Bay, Florida, on the 8th ult., by the Kingfisher, was a heavy blow to the rebels.

Another Success in General Curtis' Department.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The following despatch was received at headquarters to-day.

The Merrimac No. 2.

FORRESTER MORROW, Oct. 23.—A man who says he was taken prisoner by the rebels several months ago and who finally succeeded in obtaining his release, publishes the following account of the rebel steamer Merrimac No. 2.

make eight miles an hour. The rebels have every confidence in her capabilities and are certain that she will prove a success.

LATEST NEWS.

Late and Important from McClellan's Army.

HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Nov. 2, 10 P. M. To His Excellency the President: I have just received a despatch from Gen. McClellan, dated at Snicker's Gap, 6 P. M., stating that he has full possession of the Gap.

Order of Maj. General Rosecrans, Congratulating his Army on the Victory of Corinth.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE MISSISSIPPI, 3d Division, District West Tennessee, Corinth, Miss., Oct. 25, 1862. GENERAL ORDERS, No. 151. Army of the Third Division of the District of West Tennessee:

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE MISSISSIPPI, 3d Division, District West Tennessee, Corinth, Miss., Oct. 25, 1862. GENERAL ORDERS, No. 151. Army of the Third Division of the District of West Tennessee:

DESTRUCTION OF THE SALT WORKS IN ST. JOSEPH BAY, FLORIDA.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Refugees who have reached the United States bark Kingfisher, on the coast of Florida, report that the late destruction of the extensive stone salt works in St. Joseph Bay, Florida, on the 8th ult., by the Kingfisher, was a heavy blow to the rebels.

HEAVY LOSS TO THE REBELS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Refugees who have reached the United States bark Kingfisher, on the coast of Florida, report that the late destruction of the extensive stone salt works in St. Joseph Bay, Florida, on the 8th ult., by the Kingfisher, was a heavy blow to the rebels.

ANOTHER SUCCESS IN GENERAL CURTIS' DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The following despatch was received at headquarters to-day.

Thrush, Bator, and Miles, and Capt. Guy C. Ward, with many others, live with us and in memory of a free people who history will inscribe their names among its heroes.

W. S. ROSECRANS, Major General Commanding.

The Position.

[From the Washington National Intelligencer.] There has been obvious to us for some time past, growing restlessness in the public mind at the apparent inaction of our armies in the vicinity of the capital; and we confess to having shared in some degree in the general feeling of impatience.

DESTRUCTION OF THE SALT WORKS IN ST. JOSEPH BAY, FLORIDA.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Refugees who have reached the United States bark Kingfisher, on the coast of Florida, report that the late destruction of the extensive stone salt works in St. Joseph Bay, Florida, on the 8th ult., by the Kingfisher, was a heavy blow to the rebels.

HEAVY LOSS TO THE REBELS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Refugees who have reached the United States bark Kingfisher, on the coast of Florida, report that the late destruction of the extensive stone salt works in St. Joseph Bay, Florida, on the 8th ult., by the Kingfisher, was a heavy blow to the rebels.

ANOTHER SUCCESS IN GENERAL CURTIS' DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The following despatch was received at headquarters to-day.

THE MERRIMAC NO. 2.

FORRESTER MORROW, Oct. 23.—A man who says he was taken prisoner by the rebels several months ago and who finally succeeded in obtaining his release, publishes the following account of the rebel steamer Merrimac No. 2.

LAW PARTNERSHIP.

JAMES M. BARTLEY has, from this date, become a member of the firm of SCOTT & BROWN, ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

ATTENTION!

Companies of 3d Regt., Pa. Militia!

Officers of 2d Regiment, P. M., will please return info. as to the names of the following articles in your possession: Springfield, Harpers, Winchester, Remington, and Hall's rifles, and the names of the owners.

WILLIAM DORRIS, JR., Clerk.

Huntingdon, Pa., Oct. 15, 1862.