Spirited Advance of Genl. Franklin. The Enemy Driven Back One Mile .-They again Attempt to Advance.— The Rebels Repulsed.—Capture of Prisoners.—The Union Troops in Possession of the Battle-Field.—Partial List of the Killed and Wounded .--The Battle Renewed at Daylight this

Headquarters, Army of the Potomac, Saturday evening, Dec. 13. Strong began to disappear at ten o'clock this morning, affording an unobstructed view of our own and the enemy's position. It being evident that the first ridge of hills in the rear of the city, on which the enemy had his guns posted behind earthworks, could not be carried except by a charge of infantry, General Summer assigned that duty to General French's division, supported by Genl. Howard's. The troops advanced to the works at ten minutes before 12 o'clock, at a brisk run. The enemy's guns opened a rapid fire upon them.— When within musket range of the base of the ridge they were met by a terri-ble fire from the rebel infantry, who were posted behind a stone fence and some houses on the right of the line. This checked their advance, and they fell back to a small ravine, but not out of musket range.

At this time another body of troops moved to their assistance in splendid style, notwithstanding the gaps made in their ranks by the fire of the rebel artillery. When they arrived at the first line they advanced on doublequick time, and with a command of fixed bayonets endeavored to dislodge the rebels from their hiding-places.

The concentrated fire of artillery and infantry which they were forced to face was too much, and the centre gave way in disorder, but were afterwards rallied and brought back.

From this time the firing was spirit edly continued, and never ceased until sometime after darkness set in this evening.

General Franklin who commanded the attack on the left, met with better success. He succeeded after a hard day's fighting in driving the enemy about one mile. At one time the rebels advanced to attack, but they were handsomely repulsed, with terrible slaughter, and a loss of between four and five hundred prisoners belonging to General A. P. Hill's command. General Franklin's movement was directed down the river, and his troops | Hatteras.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE Po-TOMAC, Dec. 15-Monday Evening. The weather to-day has been clear and warm, with a strong southerly wind. The roads are in very good condition. The position of the two armies remains nearly the same. There was not much artillery firing this afternoon by either party.— Those shots the rebels did fire were thrown into the city. The enemy, who are in plain view, are not idle, but busily employed in strengthening their position. Most of the wounded to-day were re moved from the city to this side of the river, as on the renewal of the battle the rebel guns would be likely to cause its destruction.

A Rebel Raid on Dumfries.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—A special despatch from Washington, dated yesterday, states that Hampton's rebel cavalry, on Friday morning, captured Dumfries, cut the telepraph wires, and carried off the operators.

Later in the day, Gen. Steinwehr in command of Sigel's advance, attacked the rebels, and a fight ensued the result of which was unknown .-The wires have since been repaired.

Dumfries is on Quantico creek, about 30 miles southwest of Alexandria.-The telegraph wires that was destroy ed and repaired again is the one that connects Burnside's army with Washington. This accounts for the failure to get news from the army yesterday, until late in the evening.

It is the opinion of many of the Generals at Fredericksburg that the main body of the enemy has retired and that no determined stand will be made near the city.

HIS organization offers, to the active and ambitious young men of this country, advantages unequalled by any regiment during the war. It is an Independent Battation of Artillery, organized for the across and sole purpose of garrisoning Portress Monroe. The Battation noil not be ordered elsewhere during its culistment. Its commander, Major Joseph Roberts, of the Regular Army, Fourth United States Artillery, and author of the principal Text-Book on Artillery, it an officer of great experience and ability; hence his authority from the Secretary of War and Governor Curlin to raise the battallon, and place in a proper state of defence the key to our National Capital. The hardy and patriotic sons of Penusylvania have been selected for this important and responsible duty. Will they not be equal to the confidence reposed in them by our Oovernment and Governor? It is a permanent post, has comfortable quarters, is in a healthy locality, thus avoiding all the exposures and hardships of field service. The men are communical by officers of experience and ability, and being well instructed in all the duties of infantry and artillery soldiers, will be fitted to serve as officers in any arm of the service. They draw pay and rations from the day of mustering in are sent immediately to camp, and receive their clothes made expressly to fit them. Picked men, only, taken.

WHEELER & WILSON'S

SEWINC MACHINE

R. A. O. KERR, ALTOONA, PA., AGENT FOR BLAIR AND HUNTINGDON COUNTIES.

MHEELER & WILSON'S THESE MACHINES ARE ADMIT-ted to be the best ever officed to the public, and heir superiority is satisfactorily established by the fact OVER 1,400 MORE, of these machines have been sold than of any other manufactured, and more medals have been awarded the propretors by different Fairs and Institutes than to any others. The Machines are warranted to do all that is claimed for them. They are now in use in several families in Altoona, and in every case they give entire satisfaction. The Agent refers those desiring information as to the superiority of the Machines, to A. W. Benedict, Joseph Watson, E. H. Tuner and E. E. Beileman.
