The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Friday, December 19, 1862.

to come home and make common cause with shell, shrapnet and grape. Tho' with my State.

Difficulties accumulate upon us here. measure the results of these dischargements.

As long as I am here I shall shield and protect the South. Whenever it shall bling and the timbers crashing. The come to pass that I shall think that I rebels, with the greatest stubbornness, can do no further good here, I shall re- still kept within the city, and at times turn to my home. Buchanan is the parties of them could be seen going truest friend to the South I have ever from one point to another on the douel and a man. But my duty now is to be fearful amongst them.

Southern States. Geography makes separate and isolated action by Mississippi an absurdity. I have some influence in our Southern sister States. I wish to do all I can to secure their sympathy and co-operation. A Confederation of the Southern States will be strong enough to command the respect of the world, and the love and confidence of our people at home.—South Carolina will go. I consider South Carolina will go will the strong the force to the congineers to those whom the enemy obtained the those wh Southern States. Geography makes of our guns. Up to the present time

The end crowns all.

WILLIAM LEWIS, Editor and Proprietor.

-PERSEVERE.

TERMS, $1,50 a year in advance.

VOL. XVIII.

HUNTINGDON, PA., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1862.

NO. 29.

RAPPAHANNOCK. way to make a charge across the river at one of the fords.

Particulars of the Bombardment of Fredericksburg. Reports from the left, state that Franklin's wing has crossed the river below us, where their passage was cov-[Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.] HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD, Opposite Fredericksburg, Dec. 11—3, P. M. Between four and five o'clock this ered by the gunboats. Acquia Creek, Dec. 12-Midnight.

once more they were compelled to withdaaw, and they fell back to the cover of the range of hills running parts the outposts were unaware of the movement, until last hefore deviced.

ly relations of the pickets were renewed, and "butternut" and blue uniforms freely mixed. About this time General Franklin despatched a flag of truce, which the known from the North. He is a jew-ble quick. The carnage cannot but sumed and continued until completed. Yesterday afternoon Gen. Lee sent It is somewhat singular that the a flag of truce to Genl. Burnside, ask-It is somewhat singular that the ing him to detail men to bury his dead in front of Goneral Sumper's Grand Ambrose E. Burnside, Major Gonoral Commanding.

POTOMAC. Further Details of the Great Buttle of Saturday-Repulse of the Right Division...The Left Drives the Rebels One Mile, &c.

The Grand Plan of Attack.

bitter end, Black Republican rule. I tenable by the robel riflomen, who rehope our State will call a convention treated to the rear of the town, where to provide new guards for our future they took shelter behind the, as yet, provide new guards for our future they took shelter behind the, as yet,

to provide new guards for our future they took shelter behind the, as yet,

the meaning of the first opportunity to the state of the state ry and artillery.

For two hours it alternately replied rapid and vigorous fire upon it.

In a few moments the artillery fire

ed to make its way up the second extended along the entire line. The extended fills. Although unable to advance, and continually losing numbers, and continually losing numbers are continuall Howard's command went into action ced, and the position of the enemy in about three o'clock. One after the other the woods was almost reached. Δ er of its brigades was advanced to the front; but, like those of French and Hancock's, did not succeed in reaching the enemy's works. The last of it, unlike Covered States of the Covered States of t come when every man who loves his State and country is required to take his share of responsibility and perform his share of duty. My allegiance is due to the State of Mississippi, and her destiny shall be my destiny. I believe she ought to resist, and to bitter end, Black Republican rule. I hope our State will call a convention of the position form the maked by the rebel riflemen, who related to the rear of the town when a single batter of hills, a perfect hail of lead fell bon commanding, took position in adlifeless bodies. This was plainly seen through a field-glass, as well as indistinctly with the naked eye.

BURNSIDE'S CROSSING OF THE The cavalry are now passing. Gener- FROM THE ARMY OF THE right, as Stoneman's was to the left, the hill gained, not, however, without ceive yourself in the sign of the times;

About 10 or 11 o'clock, females, neatly destiny. I believe she ought to resist, and to the rear of the town when a single batter on the day, until late upon it. The advance, however, was solves, were plainly visible, and to diffeless bodies. This was plainly seen through a field-glass, as well as indistinctly with the naked eye.

About 10 or 11 o'clock, females, neatly desting the partial destruction in a short time.

About 10 or 11 o'clock, females, neatly desting the streets of Fredericksburg. They had doubtless been concealed in their houses during the time the city was occur.

The Advance and Attack.

The Advance and Attack.

The Advance and fell bon commanding, took position in adlifeless bodies. This was plainly seen through a field-glass, as well as indistinctly with the naked eye.

About 10 or 11 o'clock, females, neatly provided to the rest of the hills, when a rapid succession of terrific volleys from bleday was next to Meade's distinctly with the naked eye.

About 10 or 11 o'clock, females, neatly provided to the rest of the hills, when a single batter on the advance, however, was being the diffeless bodies. This advance, however, was being the field-glass, as well as indistinctly with the naked eye.

About 10 or 11 o'clock, females, neatly described in the field shad and extended toward the river.

About 10 or 11 o'clock, females, neatly described in the field shad and extended toward the day.
The right suffered most severely hope our State will call a convention to provide new gaards for our future safety, and in the event of a call of a convention, I want, if I can, to be a member of that convention.

I want to go as a member from our county, and I want you, as my friend, to see our friend I lovey (or —) and our friend Lamar; and, if our editors are friendly to me, I want you to see them, and to make such a call on me, and to make such a call on me, through the columns of our papers, as the make it apparent that it is my to come home and make common cause with my State.

The first fire was made by the skirr broad availed themselves of the first opportunity to make their re-appearance.

On Monday the pickets in front of the left win agreed upon an armistica and thick into the doomed city.

On Monday the pickets in front of the left win agreed upon an armistica and thick into the doomed city.

From the vicinity of the Lacy though the columns of our papers, as to make it apparent that it is my to come home and make common cause with shell, shrapnel and grape.

The first fire was made by the skirr insight on the left is the make the enemy until their ammunition became exhausted, and the line fell back some distance, leave and freely intermited the short the field, to make room for General on the field, to ma fought until its ammunition gave vania Reserves, and others made and ut, when it was relieved by Howard's received a severe attack. The skirmlivision, and retired nearer to town. ishing was kept up as our lines advan-

2d Grand Division (Hooker's) which illustrious statesman, he replied that Shortly after French's division had had moved to the vicinity of the river he did not feel altogether at home in his a division in the North, we will kill off corps of Hooker's grand division, which was acting as a reserve to the prisoners captured, and the crest of The officer replied: "Don't you de-homely wits."

THE GLOBE JOB PRINTING OFFICE.

THE "GLOBE JOB OFFICE" is HAND BILLS, PROGRAMMES.

> BLANKS, POSTERS,

ARDS, CIRCULARS, BALL TICKETS,

BILL HEADS, LABELS, &C., &C., &C. CALL AND EXAMINE SPECIMENS OF WORK,

AT LEWIS' BOOK, STATIONERY & MUSIC STORB: right, as Stoneman's was to the left, came to the rescue when the energies of Wilcox's and Couch's corps had been nearly spent. It had commenced moving across the river, over the upper and middle bridges, as soon as the advance of Couch's and Wilcox's The enemy unfortunately, possessed troops furnished room for it in the lower part of the town.

It had all moved across between 4 threatened point, and for all the valor of those who survived, and all the sacross of many as a deep one. We have counted the cost; we know what we can do. Our agents are operating all tack. The works of the enemy at the point were gained but not held.—
The enemy unfortunately, possessed the proper time the world will stand in astonishment at some of the boldest and most sublime master-strokes of of those who survived, and all the sacross between 4 threatened point, and for all the valor of those who survived and all the sacross between 4 the proper time the world will stand and most sublime master-strokes of only the mind of man has ever con-

Fig. 2. The process of the street per value of the process of the proces The residence of the Hon. Jacob Thompson, Mr. Buchanaris Secretary.

The residence of the Hon. Jacob Thompson, Mr. Buchanaris Secretary.

One more they were compelled to dight with the futness of the city for a deposition on the original quarters. On taking possession, but the river. As the was evidence that the rebels were determined took, into which had been copied all moves of the city for a demand the correspondence which recent important letters written to him since the question of secretary on as implied agreement in the correspondence which recent possession has broached. Some of these are believed to be important, as tending to throw light on any hidden springs of conduct, and light of the possession of the possession of the correspondence which recently passed by flag of truce, orders were given to our artillerymen to open that himself the bridges.

Accordingly, Bennards, Secretary and every compelled to do the interview and formed on the right of the left grand division on the active division of flowers and the river and formed on the right with the triver and formed on the right with the six of Wilcox's corps. The extreme left with the triver and formed on the right with the river and formed on the right with the state of Wilcox's corps. The extreme left with the river and formed on the right with the o extricato themselves, but finally vield, helpless victims to that inexorable destiny which awaits them. Why, my dear Sir, you may not be-lieve me when I tell you, but some who have heretofore been the head and front—leaders of the Republican Party will aid us not a little in playing out Democracy into the hands of the dissolution of Congress and a mutiny in the National army, (caused by personal and political bickerings and jealousies, the seeds of which are already sown.) are obviously things of easy

The Republican party is also unconsciously playing into our hands; reck-lessness and stupidity characterize evcry act. They appeared blind to their own fate, and careless as to the fate of their country. Intoxicated with their success at the last Presidential election FREDERICK CITY, Md., Oct. 20, 1862. Conversing with a gentleman a few -bewildered at the magnitude of the lays ago, with whom a robel officer crisis, and the complicated condition days ago, with whom a robol officer construction of national affairs, and hopelessly divi-invasion of Maryland, he related the ded into two helpless factions, the con-following as the substance of social servatives and the radicals, the latter conversation between himself and the of whom drive the machine, they are officer, who appeared to be a very free spoken and candid gentleman, and a tance to the mighty influence which man of no ordinary degree of intelli- cluster around the charmed name of gence; and taking a particular liking Democracy.' So you see the power to his host, who, like himself, had been must soon pass from their hands, and Hancock's, did not succeed in reaching the enemy's works. The last of it, under General Sully, was ordered to charge up the hill with the bayonet, and moved forward in the most gallant style, but was checked; as all the other troops had been.

Gallant Conduct of Sturgis' Division.

Hom the first advance, about mine of his host, who, like himself, had been must soon pass from their hands, and in uncompromising old-line Whig, he spoke freely of the political issues of the day. Upon my fliend's asking lim how he, being a disciple of the minor things and the spoils of office, we will adroitly secure the substance and leave them the empty shadow to appropriate between them.

Mark my word for it, we will ereate all unless from their hands, and to his host, who, like himself, had been must soon pass from their hands, and in uncompromising old-line Whig, he publicants by the cars, quarreling over him how he, being a disciple of the immortal Clay, could take part in the destruction of this glorious republic, which was the pride and boast of that appropriate between them.

Mark my word for it, we will ereate of his host, who, like himself, had been must soon pass from their hands, and in uncompromising old-line Whig, he publicants by the cars, quarreling over him how he, being a disciple of the immortal Clay, could take part in the destruction of this glorious republic, which was the pride and boast of that division upon the enemy's position, Major General Stoneman's corps of the division statesman, he replied that division in the North we will be a uncompromising old-line Whig, he in uncompromisi

[Correspondence of the New York Times.]

special file writing, and the lever and confidenced one puspels a homeous confidence of the properties of the properties

ninth New York, Col. Fairchild:
The rebels still maintain their ground opposite the upper bridges .--