

Our Flag Forever.

"I know of no mode in which a loyal citizen may so well demonstrate his devotion to his country as by sustaining the Flag of the Constitution and the Union, under all circumstances, and under every administration."

It is a fact worthy of notice, that the great and patriotic speech of Hendrick B. Wright, has not been published in any of the "Democratic" papers in this State claiming to be the organs of the present "Democratic" State organization.

THE CAMERON RAIDERS.—The committee of investigation are at work. The evidence against Cameron will be strong, yet no man that knows Cameron will be surprised, as it has always been known that Simon would be willing to buy what he could not get in any other way.

CAMP CURTIS.—This old established post is to be retired, with the intention of making it a recruiting rendezvous. The barracks are being cleaned and whitewashed, and everything connected with the camp will, no doubt, be thoroughly overhauled.

WHAT'S WRONG IN THE POTOMAC ARMY?—There are too many Vallandigham Democrats officering the men. That's why our army has been defeated, and is becoming demoralized.

Who's to be elected President in '64?—That is the contest now going on between the political Generals of the Potomac Army and the political brokers of the North.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RESERVES.—We learn from the Harrisburg Telegraph that the Pennsylvania Reserves are to be ordered to the works around Washington for rest and to be recruited.

THE CULTURE OF FLAX.—English papers are agitating the subject of an increased attention to the culture of flax as an offset to the scarcity of cotton.

SNOW-STORM.—A heavy snow fell on Wednesday and Thursday of last week to the depth of about 14 inches.

Three car-loads of prisoners, taken in the West, passed through here Friday last, on their way to Washington, D. C.

IMPROVE YOUR SIGHT AND PRESERVE YOUR EYES.—A. BIRNBAUM, Practical and Manufacturing Optician, takes pleasure in informing the Ladies and Gentlemen of Huntingdon and vicinity, that he has opened a Stone one door west of Dr. Dorsey's, with a large and varied stock of Spectacles, comprising Convex and Concave Glasses, such as Pilot, Crystal and Scotch Pebbles, and particularly desires to recommend the superiority of the last-named Glasses.

THE INTERVENTION OF JUDGE LUDLOW of the quarter sessions, in the question, is one of the most surprising events of the week.

THE MICHIGAN STATE SUGAR GROWERS ASSOCIATION, in session at Adrian, express the opinion that the practicability of growing sugar cane as a crop in this State, is fully established.

THE DISPATCH.—The government cannot punish its enemies, it is incapable of defending its friends.

The Arrest of A. D. Boileau.

Albert D. Boileau, publisher and editor of the Philadelphia Evening Journal & Leader, was arrested on Tuesday night of last week and his office closed.

On the 1st page we give the disgraceful proceeding in the U. S. Senate. By the following it will be seen that Salsbury is not as brave a man as he thought himself to be.

Mr. Salsbury (Del.) said—Mr. President, I wish to say a few words which I deem proper on the subject of certain charges made against me, and to express my sincere regret at what occurred on Tuesday evening last in the Senate.

THE RELEASE OF MR. BOILEAU. (Special telegraph to the press.) BALTIMORE, Feb. 1, 1863.—Mr. A. D. Boileau, of the Evening Journal, has been released from his confinement in Fort McHenry.

THE BOILEAU TREASON CASE. We make one or two extracts from the Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch, for the purpose of enlightening our readers as to the estimate in which Boileau and his treason paper are held in that city.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RESERVES.—We learn from the Harrisburg Telegraph that the Pennsylvania Reserves are to be ordered to the works around Washington for rest and to be recruited.

THE CULTURE OF FLAX.—English papers are agitating the subject of an increased attention to the culture of flax as an offset to the scarcity of cotton.

SNOW-STORM.—A heavy snow fell on Wednesday and Thursday of last week to the depth of about 14 inches.

Three car-loads of prisoners, taken in the West, passed through here Friday last, on their way to Washington, D. C.

IMPROVE YOUR SIGHT AND PRESERVE YOUR EYES.—A. BIRNBAUM, Practical and Manufacturing Optician, takes pleasure in informing the Ladies and Gentlemen of Huntingdon and vicinity, that he has opened a Stone one door west of Dr. Dorsey's, with a large and varied stock of Spectacles, comprising Convex and Concave Glasses, such as Pilot, Crystal and Scotch Pebbles, and particularly desires to recommend the superiority of the last-named Glasses.

THE INTERVENTION OF JUDGE LUDLOW of the quarter sessions, in the question, is one of the most surprising events of the week.

THE MICHIGAN STATE SUGAR GROWERS ASSOCIATION, in session at Adrian, express the opinion that the practicability of growing sugar cane as a crop in this State, is fully established.

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of the Atholton Society, the death of Major Frank Zentmyer, Capt. David Zentmyer, and B. T. Bilger, were announced.

Resolved, That in the death of Maj. Frank Zentmyer, Capt. David Zentmyer, and B. T. Bilger, we have lost three members faithful in the performance of duty, or in defence of their country.

Resolved, That while we mourn their early death, we feel that their liberation from the scenes of earth has been their eternal gain.

Resolved, That we warmly bow before the inevitable government of God, who has seen proper to remove from our midst our former members, and that we hereby express our sorrow for them, and our sympathy for their many bereaved friends and relatives.

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days. Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the papers of Centre and Huntingdon counties, and copies sent to the families of the deceased.

Resolved, That in the death of Major Zentmyer, the officers of this regiment are deeply grieved, and that they will sympathize with the bereaved friends and family of our deceased fellow-soldier.

Resolved, That one copy of these proceedings be presented to the father of the deceased, one be sent to each of the bereaved parties, and the balance be divided among the officers of the regiment.

A Rebuke to Northern Traitors. A Pennsylvania soldier in the army in North Carolina, writes as follows: "We hear, with sorrow, of the attempt now being made at home to overthrow the Government."

Resolved, That in the death of Major Zentmyer, the officers of this regiment are deeply grieved, and that they will sympathize with the bereaved friends and family of our deceased fellow-soldier.

Resolved, That one copy of these proceedings be presented to the father of the deceased, one be sent to each of the bereaved parties, and the balance be divided among the officers of the regiment.

A Rebuke to Northern Traitors. A Pennsylvania soldier in the army in North Carolina, writes as follows: "We hear, with sorrow, of the attempt now being made at home to overthrow the Government."

Resolved, That in the death of Major Zentmyer, the officers of this regiment are deeply grieved, and that they will sympathize with the bereaved friends and family of our deceased fellow-soldier.

Resolved, That one copy of these proceedings be presented to the father of the deceased, one be sent to each of the bereaved parties, and the balance be divided among the officers of the regiment.

A Rebuke to Northern Traitors. A Pennsylvania soldier in the army in North Carolina, writes as follows: "We hear, with sorrow, of the attempt now being made at home to overthrow the Government."

WAR NEWS.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Engagement in the Bayou Teche.—A Rebel Iron-steam Boat is destroyed. The Escape of the Bayou Teche.

By the arrival of the steamers Bio Bio and St. Mary's we have New Orleans papers to 20th inst. The St. Mary's brings a large mail and fifty passengers from New Orleans.

The following vessels of war were at Key West: Frigate St. Lawrence (flag-ship), steamers Sonora, Tiona, Penguin, Magnolia, Hendrick Hudson.

New Orleans advices state that Gen. Grover was at Baton Rouge with a force of some twenty regiments. His command was composed largely of green troops, and he was drilling them.

Major General Butler was at New Orleans. He had retreated Gen. Butler's orders, taxing certain rebel merchants for the support of the poor; but he has since been ordered to suspend the order.

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days. Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the papers of Centre and Huntingdon counties, and copies sent to the families of the deceased.

Resolved, That in the death of Major Zentmyer, the officers of this regiment are deeply grieved, and that they will sympathize with the bereaved friends and family of our deceased fellow-soldier.

Resolved, That one copy of these proceedings be presented to the father of the deceased, one be sent to each of the bereaved parties, and the balance be divided among the officers of the regiment.

A Rebuke to Northern Traitors. A Pennsylvania soldier in the army in North Carolina, writes as follows: "We hear, with sorrow, of the attempt now being made at home to overthrow the Government."

Resolved, That in the death of Major Zentmyer, the officers of this regiment are deeply grieved, and that they will sympathize with the bereaved friends and family of our deceased fellow-soldier.

Resolved, That one copy of these proceedings be presented to the father of the deceased, one be sent to each of the bereaved parties, and the balance be divided among the officers of the regiment.

A Rebuke to Northern Traitors. A Pennsylvania soldier in the army in North Carolina, writes as follows: "We hear, with sorrow, of the attempt now being made at home to overthrow the Government."

Resolved, That in the death of Major Zentmyer, the officers of this regiment are deeply grieved, and that they will sympathize with the bereaved friends and family of our deceased fellow-soldier.

Resolved, That one copy of these proceedings be presented to the father of the deceased, one be sent to each of the bereaved parties, and the balance be divided among the officers of the regiment.

WAR NEWS.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Engagement in the Bayou Teche.—A Rebel Iron-steam Boat is destroyed. The Escape of the Bayou Teche.

By the arrival of the steamers Bio Bio and St. Mary's we have New Orleans papers to 20th inst. The St. Mary's brings a large mail and fifty passengers from New Orleans.

The following vessels of war were at Key West: Frigate St. Lawrence (flag-ship), steamers Sonora, Tiona, Penguin, Magnolia, Hendrick Hudson.

New Orleans advices state that Gen. Grover was at Baton Rouge with a force of some twenty regiments. His command was composed largely of green troops, and he was drilling them.

Major General Butler was at New Orleans. He had retreated Gen. Butler's orders, taxing certain rebel merchants for the support of the poor; but he has since been ordered to suspend the order.

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days. Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the papers of Centre and Huntingdon counties, and copies sent to the families of the deceased.

Resolved, That in the death of Major Zentmyer, the officers of this regiment are deeply grieved, and that they will sympathize with the bereaved friends and family of our deceased fellow-soldier.

Resolved, That one copy of these proceedings be presented to the father of the deceased, one be sent to each of the bereaved parties, and the balance be divided among the officers of the regiment.

A Rebuke to Northern Traitors. A Pennsylvania soldier in the army in North Carolina, writes as follows: "We hear, with sorrow, of the attempt now being made at home to overthrow the Government."

Resolved, That in the death of Major Zentmyer, the officers of this regiment are deeply grieved, and that they will sympathize with the bereaved friends and family of our deceased fellow-soldier.

Resolved, That one copy of these proceedings be presented to the father of the deceased, one be sent to each of the bereaved parties, and the balance be divided among the officers of the regiment.

A Rebuke to Northern Traitors. A Pennsylvania soldier in the army in North Carolina, writes as follows: "We hear, with sorrow, of the attempt now being made at home to overthrow the Government."

Resolved, That in the death of Major Zentmyer, the officers of this regiment are deeply grieved, and that they will sympathize with the bereaved friends and family of our deceased fellow-soldier.

Resolved, That one copy of these proceedings be presented to the father of the deceased, one be sent to each of the bereaved parties, and the balance be divided among the officers of the regiment.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

The Richmond papers of January 20th and 27th, contain the following items: Federal Movement in North Carolina.

A Voice from North Carolina.—Plain Talk. The Raleigh Standard, in speaking of the rebel authorities at Richmond, holds the following language:

From Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.

From the Richmond Papers. Appearances indicate an early renewal of the conflict before Vicksburg, Miss. A letter from that date, January 20th, says that 5,000 Yankees are working on the canal opposite the city.