The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Wednesday morning, Feb. 25, 1863. W. Lewis, Editor and Proprietor.

close of the week.

news is cheering for our good old flag. used this pointed and significant lan- He said:

"IT would be well for the Globe to get all it can in advance, but how will it be with the parties who pay?"-

All parties who pay in advance can have their money refunded whenever they want to withdraw from the support of the Globe. This has been our rule for sixteen years. We never yet bave forced the Globe upon a single individual. If the Monitor had no other subscribers than those who asked for it, it would not have twenty subscribers in town, nor two hundred in the county. We don't steal our living, nor force it from the pockets of the people.

The terms of the Globe are still the same, $1,50, in advance-the money to be returned at any time the subscriber may be dissatisfied with his bar-

A Remonstrance from the South.

The New Orleans Delta of Jan. 29th addresses "a word to the North;" in which it asks : " Are those gentlemen at the North who are crying peace and armistice, aware of the mischief they are doing? Are they aware that in every such utterance they nerve the | .. We speak the truth, and what care we arms of the enemy and renew the For hissing and for scorn. hopes of the rebel army, which is only While some faint gleaming, we can see kept from revolt by promises of a Of Freedom's coming morn. speedy peace, which promises of peace | "Let liars fear, let cowards shrink, y based upon some speech made in Congress or in New York ?- Whatever we have dared to think, Is it fair to decree the finance of the country-a country whose resources

"What is this measure or that measure," continues the Delta—"the adoption or rejection of any particular line of policy on the part of the hour, the absolute crushing of rebellion?"

Illuntingdon county cannot expect the Senatorial Delegate if she is not properly in the Conference.—Will the Democracy of Huntingdon county look to their interests?

Railroad Changes.—D. T. Caldwell, formerly conductor on the Baltimore bellion?"

R. B. Brown, editor and proprietor of the Brownsville Times, has purchased the Genius of Liberty, published at Unicontage and consolidated the two residences in the Conference.—Will the Democracy of Huntingdon county look to their interests?

Railroad Changes.—D. T. Caldwell, formerly conductor on the Baltimore and Harrisburg, has been assigned to the passen of the Brownsville Times, has purchased the Genius of Liberty, published at Unicontage and consolidated the two residents in the Conference.—Will the contage into the nicontage into the count him, evidently with the intention of protecting him from violence, if necessary. The last announce ment was received with cheering, and I saw many an eye flash, and many a countenance grow radiant with the light of defiance.]

These men sneered at Colonel Mack, a day or two ago. It is in little man, but I am a large man. I am ready to since, with the aid and protection of the Government, the true-hearted Unicon, and determination, come what may, to stand by the Government.—III alluded to Lis first entrance into it. A crowd, as he proceeded, colfect.—III alluded to Lis first entrance into it. A crowd, as he proceeded, colfect.—III alluded to Lis first entra the Genius of Liberty, published at Un- R., from Tyrone to Bellesonte. iontown, and consolidated the two pa-Liberty"—surprises us very much.— of D. T. Caldwell. We are sorry we cannot wish Mr. "aid and comfort" to the rebels.

discourses on the sham unanimity of the John Van Buren on the War.

Mr. John Van Buren appears to have

Our Flag Forever.

dence had been recognized; and never, while he lived, should that recognition take place if he could help it. They had refused to go into a convention to had favored it. I feel for her from the tips of my toes to the ends of my hair. This is the reason I speak as I do. I cannot help that refused to go into a convention to remodel the Constitution, while, if they are, and what had favored it, a new election for had favored it, a new election for the party as an organization can to the expect to do any good for the country. The following is the speech of Mr. Funk as we find it reported:

The Great Speech of the Season—The Traitors Lashed and Defied to their Teeth the people, the true loyal people, think siver days. He never doubted that no escape from that conclusion. Slavery exists to some extent by superior force and when our armies advance against slaveholders in rebellion, unless they are destroyed or set forever free."

INDEPENDENCE.

sentiment: · We will speak out. We will be heard, Though all the earth's system crack. We will not bate a single word. Nor take a letter back.

That dare we also say."

SAXTON, Pa.

pers. The first issue under the new Altoona, has been appointed conduction and at any time. [Cheers from the loyalty of Baltimore. arrangement—still the "Genius of tor on the Baltimore Express, in room Mr. Speaker, these traitors on this he said there was much, very much.

We are sorry we cannot wish Mr.

Brown success. We pity the young man who can be influenced to give Associate Judge of the District Court I say. [Raising his voice and violent.] A year ago, when he passed through a de la companya de l La companya de la co

An Old Farmer's Speech.

TWe like to hear loyal men speak tion to the rebellion and the great people. The following speech, lately Cational questions involved. He ad- delivered in the Illinois Senate by an embarrass the Government and stop essed a large political (Democratic) Old Farmer, has the ring of the pure the war. They want to aid the secesmeeting in the city of New York, on the field. Such men as the speaker restionists to conquer our boys in the field. They care about taxes? They are picture of the 10th inst., in which fees to have already disgraced the Description. the evening of the 10th inst., in which fers to have already disgraced the De-he took new and high ground on the morracy, and if they are not soon taxes at all, and never did, and never war and collateral subjects. He said, checked by the honest masses, all true hope to, unless they can manage to speaking of the disposition of the south to liston to reason and a restoration of the seek better company. Traitors and This is an excuse of traitors. Democrats cannot work harmoniously "The South would not hear of a together. Traitors must be expelled in the galleries.]

es prove it. Their gibes and laughter slaves in bondage, they follow the fortunes of all the rest of their property, and are destroned or set forever five? tion, prove it.

I can sit here no longer and not tell these traitors what I think of them .--And while so telling them, I am re-Mr. Lewis:—I love to see an inde- sponsible myself for what I say. I with a conviction and truthfulness, Mr. Lewis:—I love to see an independent newspaper. A man who will stand upon my own bottom. I am pendent newspaper. A man who will stand upon my own bottom. I am speak the truth in tones that can not be misunderstood, regardless of all the mouth of a cannon, upon this charge the misunderstood are substantially and feeling and fe sects, parties, and factions, is a man af-ter my own heart, and the man who applicates from the galleries.] I am ter my own heart, and the man who will accomplish any good work he undertakes. Some newspapers seem to be so completely chained down by the pay $3,000 a year in taxes. I am will cluded, the Republican members and be so completely chained down by the narrow and contracted notions of their ling to pay $6,000, ayes $12,000, [great] I go for the noble sontiment of JAMES lock, and causing the inkstand to lock, and causing the inkstand to bounce half a dozen inches in the air.] ollowing beautiful and independent aye, I am willing to pay my whole for tune, and then give my life to save my country from these traitors that are seeking to destroy it. [Tremendous cheering and applause, which the Speaker could not subdue.] Mr. Speaker, you must please excuse

-and proclaim that the nation will be ruined if that state paper is not withdrawn and this measure advanced?—
Why not leave the conduct of the President and his generals?—
You say you are determined to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the bitter end. Very well."

You say you are determined to fight to the pressure or their for one of the county have a voice.—

You say you are determined to fight to the pressure or their for one year, shull have a bounty of $50, one balf paid down; those who centies the flow on the fight there. I am sixty-five years on, right here. I am sixty-five years on, right here. I am sixty-five years on the flow on the flow on the center of the General was for the county of $50, one balf paid down; those who enlist for the citizens of Baltimore for their kind on symmetry. There are also provisions for the row is stell the control.

Hat BOMBARDMENT OF VICKS
BURG COMMENOED.

Railroad Changes.—D. T. Caldwell, formerly conductor on the Baltimore Express, between Altoona and Harrisburg, has been assigned to the passenger train on the Bald Eagle Valley R. R., from Tyrone to Bellefonte.

R., from Tyrone to Bellefonte.

J. Mazaree, late Baggago Agent at Altoona has been assigned to the passenger train on the Badd and I hold myself ready for them now and I floor should be provided with hempen to encourage us in the progress we stamp out the first symptoms of resistance; if the power of if it were not high treason to hinder the circulation of confederate notes; if the power of a wealthy and almost unanimous consolidated slaveholding minority were broken, a large majority of the crizeons of the south would to day be for the Union. The fear of the dunce of southern loyalty."

Take Off Your Soger Close.—An orther vice of Southern loyalty."

Take Off Your Soger Close.—An orther vice of Southern loyalty."

Enlisting Colored Men.—The Press of Philadelphia, of Saturday last, says:

In this Senate. I see there, in this Senate. I see them joke, and smirk and grin at a true Union man. But I defy them.—I stand here ready for them and dare them to come on. [Great cheering.] What man with the heart of a patriot could stand this treason any longer?—I have stood it long enough. I will stand the sword have silenced the vice of Southern loyalty."

Enlisting Colored Men.—The Press of Provost Marshals to gather up all of Provost Marshals

the Government. I denounce them as WAR NEWS ypocrites as well as traitors. [Cheers.]

The reason that they pretend to be nsiderably modified his views in re- the honest sentiments of an honest afraid of high taxes is that they do Piteous Appeal from Beauregard. not want to vote money for the relief of the soldiers. They want also to ous Death."

[Hore the Speaker called for order Mr. Speaker, excuse me. I feel for convention until after their independence had been recognized; and never, fore the party as an organization can I feel for her from the tips of my toes rom all the Soldierin God of flag.

The rebels will die hard, but the best country on the flag of the earth may live. Vieks-face of the earth may live, Charleston, and all the rebel wing, Charleston, and all the rebel wing advances, slaves are set free. There is a country on the frait to say, as our army advances, slaves are set free. There is the side in my judgment than the form of the mount of the foregoing, hinds of them. I am ready to back up all I should have assess ears to set off their thand to prove your zell for your country's cause. Let all able-bodied must fall.

Ille said:

Mr. Speaker—I can sit in my seat no ger, and see these scoundrels and trait fight of being able to participate in gressional districts; in each of which the defence of your homes, your altars, the President appoints a Provost Marthey the Marthey the President appoints a Provost Marthey the Marthey the President appoints a Provost Marthey the President appoints a Provost Marthey the Marth traitors at heart.

I say that there are traitors and secsionists at heart in this Senate.

Their actions prove it. Their speech of a canon. [Tumultnous applause, during which the old gentleman sat; weapons, Pikes and seythes will do servers report traitors in the War Department, and shall make the needing read in the War Department read i > above the din of cheers and clapping sides. of hands.] I never witnessed so much excitement share with us our danger, our brilliant sons, appointed by the president, one against whom they have all along vaunous life in an assembly. Mr. Fank success, or our glorious death! in my life in an assembly. Mr. Fank success, or our glorious death! spoke with a force of natural elequence, G. T. BEAUREGAR the people came flocking in from all spectators rushed up and took him by narrow and contracted notions of their cheering, the old gentleman bringing down his fist upon his desk with a blow that would knock down a billion the pullo southwent of Laws.

In the pullo southwent of Laws in the pullo southwent of Laws.

In the pullo southwent of Laws in the pullo southwent of Laws.

In the pullo southwent of Laws in the pullo southwent of Laws.

In the pullo southwent of Laws in the pullo southwent of Laws.

In the pullo southwent of Laws in the pullo southwent of the pullo sout me. I could not sit longer in my seat and calmly listen to these traitors.—

My heart, that feels for my country, ler arrived here this morning at ten would not let me. My heart, that feels of our brave volcils and the Union League. His re-

Alluding to the progress of the war, man who can be influenced to give aid and comfort" to the robels.

"aid and comfort" to the robels.

The Nashville (Ten) Union thus forcibly discourses on the sham manimity of the South in favor of the slaveholders' rebellion:

"The Louiseille Union says that the South and the South of Pittsburg, Pa., died on Sanday, the desk.] The country is riking the desk.] The country is striking the desk.] The country is striking the desk.] The country this city on his way to the South of Pittsburg, Pa., died on Sanday, the desk.] The country is voided and the south of Pittsburg, Pa., died on Sanday, the desk.] The country is voided on the solution of the south of Pittsburg, Pa., died on Sanday, the desk.] The country is voided on the south of Pittsburg, Pa., died on Sanday, the desk.] The country this city on his way to the South of the south of the swip that the south of Pittsburg, Pa., died on Sanday, the desk.] The country is voided by the striking the desk.] The country is voided we then stand? The cost, kentineky.

The Louiseille Union says that the South of the solvent of the salvation of the country is voided and of Missouri, Kentineky.

Tennessee, and Arkansas; all of Virginia, except that portion under the torous faces. Traitors should be hung. It would be the salvation of the country is voided we then stand? The cost, kentineky.

The Louiseille Union says that the South of the robels.

The Louiseille Union says that the South of the country is void on the country would be here.

The Louiseille Union says that the South of the country is voided in the country would be here.

The Louiseille Union says that the South of the country is voided with the south of the country would be here.

The Louiseille Union says that the South of the country is voided and of Missouri, Kentineky.

The Louiseille Union says that the South of the country is voided with the south of the country would be here.

The Louiseille Union says that the South of the country is voided and of Missouri, Kentineky.

The Louiseille Union says that t South in favor of the slaveholders' rebellion:

"The Louisville Union says that the Southern people were our behef that the southern people are affirm our behef that the southern people are fin responded.

Time Court on the following day, by affirm our behef that the southern people are affirm our behefit to be affirm our behefit to the salvation of the country control to the salvation of the country control to the southern people are affirm our behefit to be affirm our behefit to be affirm our behefit to be affirm our beh not to-day disminants. If the conscription law, enforced by Morgan, Forrest, Wade, and handereds of other generilla chiefs, with rebel armiles; if a military tyranny, more terrible than Austrian desocision, did not feerible than Austrian desocision, did not feerible than for secessionists at heart.— stamp out the first symptoms of resistance; if tween out high treason to hinder the circulation of the constraint of the cons

The second of th

Headquarters, Army of the Potomac, February 19. The Richmond Enquirer of yesterday contains the following telegram, dated Charleston, S. C., February 18: The following proclamation of Genl. Beauregard will appear in the papers to-morrow: Headquarters of the Department of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, February 18th. The send so well demonstrate his decotion to had fivored it, a new election for traitors Lashed and Defield to their Teeth of the country as by sustaining the Flag the stances, and under all circumstances, and under all NEWS.

Quarter."

Am no speaker. I have said my say.—
Which were being introduced by the class of the which were being introduced by the porary separation of some of you from age. The second class embraces all own houses would be burned.

Speach I have said my say.—
It is hoped, however, that this temporary separation of some of you from age. The second class embraces all own houses would be burned.

Speach I have said my say.—
It is hoped, however, that this temporary separation of some of you from age. The second class embraces all own houses would be burned.

Speach I have made. And I do not support at the others, and will not be called into alarm or unduct haste thus showing service until after the first class. For Bull Mountain, was killed for Union that the only feeling which and staying at the head of speech. I could not sit still any long that the only feeling which and staying in this hour of support of the State Southern States the speech. I could not sit still any long that the only feeling which and staying in the board of support of the State Government.

Which were being introduced by the porary separation of some of you from age. The second class embraces all the others, and will not be called into alarm or unduct haste thus showing service until after the first class. For Bull Mountain, was killed for Union speaker. I have said my say.—

I this hoped, however, that this temporary separation of some of you from age. The second class embraces all own houses would be burned.

Mr. Peterson, living at the head of support of the State Government.—

Speech. I could not sit still any long the second class embraces all own houses would be burned.

The second class embraces all own houses would be burned.

The second class embraces all own houses would be burned.

The second class embraces all own houses would be burned.

The second class embraces all own houses would be burned.

The second class embraces all own houses would be united them, their class the other, and the second class embraces all own hou > during which the old gentleman sat weapons. Pikes and seythes will do serters, report treasonable practices, who went away under Order, No. 1, down after he had given the desk a for exterminating your enemies; show and detect spies, &c. parting whack, which sounded loud els and spades for protecting your fire. In each district

To arms, fellow-citizens! Come to Provost Marshal and two other per tection of the guns of the very men G. T. BEAUREGARD,

General Commanding Official-J. M. Offey, A. A. G.

From the Mississippi River.

CHICAGO, Feb 20.-A special Cairo would not let me. Yes, these vilinins and traitors and secessionists in this Sening was splendidly decorated and traitors and secessionists in this Sening was splendidly decorated with flags, and densely packed with a stroyed by the gan-boat Conestoga, in the stroyed by the gan-boat Conestoga, in the stroyed by the gan-boat Conestoga, in the substitutes are exempt for the entire send us his likeness. We have been on the steamer Jenny Lind.

The town of Bolivar Landing, fifty when the draft is finished, all those process, and can exist on air, for he not taken are allowed traveling pay to the the draft is finished, all those process, and can exist on air, for he stroyed by the gan-boat Conestoga, in substitutes are exempt for the state of the town of Bolivar Landing, fifty when the draft is finished, all those process, and can exist on air, for he stroyed by the gan-boat Conestoga, in the substitutes are exempt for the substitutes are exempt for the substitutes are exempt for the state of the town of Bolivar Landing, fifty when the draft is finished, all those process, and can exist on air, for he stroyed by the gan-boat Conestoga, in the substitutes are exempt for the substitutes are exempt

BURG COMMENCED.

The Conscription Bill.

Mr. Wilson's bill, which passed the Senate of the U. S. last week, provides | Corinth, where General Dodge made in substance as follows: All able-bodied male citizens, and Dodge sent out and brought in fami-The Defence of Charleston and Savan. All able-bodied male citizens, and Dodge sent out and brought in faminal. — Non-Combatants Ordered to those who have declared their inten-Hetire.—Rebels short of Arms.—Pikes, tions to become such, or have exercis- Union men, and has established a sort Scythes, Spades, and Shovels to be a cell the right of suffrage, between the used to Defend the Firesides of the Rebels.—" Brilliant Success or Glori-National forces of the United States, ly to be free from persecutions. and are liable to perform military duly At Corinth, a regiment is forming ty when called out by the President. of Union men-from Alabama and Mis-The exempts are those who are physi- sissipply There are already six full cally or mentally unit, the Vice Presdent, heads of Executive Departments, United States Judges, Governith, is to be Colonel of this regiment. ors of States, only son of an indigent | Among those who have recently widow, or infirm parent, or one such suffered persecution are Abraham Kenson, where there are two or more, to nedy and J. A. Mitchell, of Hacket geon. This board shall divide the districts and trict into convenient sub-districts and our Army Correspondence.

vice to serve for three years or during the war, on the same footing with the present volunteers, advance pay, bounty money, &c., included.

When necessary to make a draft, the espatch says that the sickness in the President shall indicate the number for each district, taking into considerarmy at Vicksburg is increasing.

A barge containing 7,000 bushels of ation the number already furnished also that generals in the field may ex- force he is a real Brigadier, instead of ecute court-martial sentence against acting one. We have a new Assistant CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—A special Memers, deserters, mutineers, or mutaer from Blair county. He comes well courts-martial may reduce absentee of recommended, and I presume will recommended, and I presume will Chicago, Feb. 23.—A special Memphis despatch, dated Saturday, furnishes advices from Vicksburg to the ficers to the ranks; clothing, arms, &c., 18th.

ors, without reference to the President; from Blair county. He comes wen recommended, and I presume will make a popular surgeon. I do think, without disparaging any, that we have fective operations, and it was change Any person who resists a draft, or time. counsels others to do so, or dissuades a small rebel raid would be a God-send The bombardment was then renew-them from performing military duty, to relieve the monotony of camp life. The bondbardment was then renew1.

(Correspondence of the Cinemant Commercial.)

MURFREESBORO', Feb. 20.—The cap
MURFRESBORO', F MURREERSBORO', Feb. 20.—The cap-ture of Vicksburg was reported to day imprisoned two years, or both.

The President, on the passage of Our regiment is pretty healthy at ed our lines with a flag of truce from this act, shall issue a proclamation represent. The weather is as fickle and

Important Southern News---Horrors | that over half the men who went into of the Conscription. reign of terror the world has over seen ing in the mountains to avoid the is now being experienced by the unforgard of the service was the single from the law of the service was the service with the friends of the service was the service tunate residents of North Alabama arrest them. Others, under a few des-pieces. It is estimated not less than and Alabama have made their way to all possible provisions for them. Gen.

be selected by the parent, also the on- and Bod settlement, Monroe co., who brother of orphan children under 12 have been hung by the rebels for inyears, also the father of motherless dulging in Union proclivities.

children of the same age; and where Mr. Hall Mark and daughter, of two of a family are in military servic-es, the remainder of such family, not latter killed. Peter Lewis, an immo-Mr. Peterson, living at the head of for carrying out the provisions of this scription act probably induced a rebut who, when called upon to fight in In each district there is to be a a war of their own making, skulk Board of Enrollment, consisting of the away to Memphis, and seek the pro-

From the 125th Regt., P. V. Stafford Court House, Va., February 16, 1863.

FRIEND LEWIS :- Here we are yet, stuck in the mud, crushing rebell over the left," and enjoying our hard tack as usual. Since writing to you, nothing has transpired to disturb our to fairly equalize the burden; the en- The grand Army of the Potomac is ing most keenly, as might be seen from their blanched cheeks and restless and uneasy glances.

Inight, without accident or discovery. The Whig, of the 9th, says the river is overflowing the banks on the Louis is overflowing the banks on the Louis is overflowing the banks on the Louis draft with 50 per cent, addition, and within ten days serve notice upon the days serve notice upon the drafted men.

Substitutes may be furnished, or continued the still on praying ground, and this side of the Rappahannock, and, from present indications, will remains of or some drafted men.

Substitutes may be furnished, or continued the still on praying ground, and this side of the Rappahannock, and, from present indications, will remains of or some drafted men. of the Rappahannock, and, from presexpected that the whole Peninsula Substitutes may be furnished, or time,—at least, until the clerk of the His Reception Speech.—A Review of the War.—Our Position and Prospects Cheering.

Warbury was Y-100 G.

Warbury doubt that the whole force of the ene- turning the training to represent sutter makes in his books, and that is my is concentrated within seeing dis- ish a substitute, or pay his commutation about all the good it does him, for moon hand only exists in the memory of unteers in the field, that these trainors at home are destroying by thousands, would not let me. Yes, these viliains who respect to any order to the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respects to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment of surgeons who respect to announce the commence of the panishment are such that she can load ships with food and raiment for the subjects of the haughtiest government in Enrope —and proclaim that the nation will be

—and proclaim that the nation will be steamer Jenny decay the substitute has white, and each bearing a flag, were discoverable the substitute has white, and cach the substitute has white, and the substitute has the sam Red River for the purpose of destroying the rebel vessels there. If this is now in service who re-enlist for one will be for the Government as far as

News is distressingly scarce here:

may return without punishment within the time indicated, except the fortheservice from the northeastern counties in the State were at home without Cairo, Feb. 15.-The most perfect leave and most of them were skulk-