

Union League Meeting.

An adjourned meeting of the Union League was held on Tuesday evening, March 10th, 1863.

J. Sewell Stewart, Esq., chairman of the committee appointed for that purpose, reported a constitution and by-laws for the Union League of Huntingdon, which was read as follows:

PREAMBLE.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Huntingdon and vicinity, believing in this hour of our country's peril, when the Union is attacked by armed rebels in the South, and more covarily but not less dangerous foes in the North, that all old party lines are for the time destroyed, and that there are and can be but two parties—one for the Union—the other against it; feeling it to be the duty of all loyal citizens to lend their cordial and unqualified support to the General Government in its efforts to suppress the present unholy rebellion through which alone the peace and permanent security can be obtained; and being convinced that this support will be most effective when given in an organized and systematic manner, do hereby form ourselves into an association for the purpose aforesaid, among which is to be numbered the endorsement of a vigorous, unflinching and uncompromising prosecution of the war against open and covert traitors, and to have by order and establish the following Constitution and By-Laws for our government:

CONSTITUTION.

Art. I. Name.—This Society shall be known by the name of the Union League of Huntingdon. Its object shall be the support of the Government of the United States, as defined in the Preamble hereto, and the dissemination of true and loyal sentiments in this community.

Art. II. Officers.—The officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice President, two Secretaries, and such Standing Committee as may from time to time be appointed.

Section 2. The duties of the President shall be to preside at the meetings of this society, to enforce the laws, and generally to exercise all the rightful and necessary authority which is not committed to other officers. These duties shall devolve upon the Vice President in the absence of the President.

Section 3. The duties of the Secretaries shall be to keep a record of the proceedings of the meetings of the society, and conduct all correspondence which may be required. One of them shall also exercise the functions of Treasurer.

Section 4. The duty of the Treasurer shall be to collect and disburse the money of the society, and render an account of his trust at the close of his term, or whenever so directed by the society.

Art. III. Elections. Sec. 1. An election for officers shall be held on the night of the 15th day of February, and the term of office shall be for a period of two months, or until successors shall be regularly elected.

Section 2. Elections shall be by ballot, and the persons receiving a majority of the votes cast shall be elected.

Section 3. All persons shall be members of this society who subscribe to the constitution at its adoption, or are thereafter proposed and elected at any meeting of the society.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of members to attend all stated meetings of the society, to labor for the advancement of its objects, as set forth in the Preamble and this Constitution, to obey all laws, and to pay such dues as may be imposed by the society.

Section 5. There shall be an initiation fee of twenty-five cents paid by each person upon signing the Constitution, and necessary expenses shall be raised from time to time by an annual assessment on the members.

Section 6. Expulsion.—Any member shall be expelled who, guilty of dishonorable acts, or of the utterance of libelous, scandalous, or willful disobedience of the Constitution and laws of the society. It shall require a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a meeting to expel any member, and notice of the proceedings of expulsion.

Section 7. Amendments.—This Constitution may be altered or amended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any meeting of the society, at least one week after the proposed amendment is offered.

BY-LAWS.

Section 1. This society shall meet on every Saturday evening, in the Court House, at the hour of 7 1/2 o'clock. A quorum shall consist of nine members.

Section 2. Order of Business.—The order of business shall be: 1. Reading the minutes of the last meeting. 2. Nomination and election of new members. 3. Reports of Committees. 4. Unfinished business. 5. New business. 6. Essays, Speeches, Readings, Debates, or other literary or social exercises, and such other business as may be presented to the direction of the President and the society.

Section 3. Laws.—This society shall be governed by its Constitution, By-Laws, and Parliamentary Law, so far as the latter is applicable.

Section 4. Finances.—The President shall have the power of imposing a fine not to exceed twenty-five cents for a breach of order.

Section 5. Appeals.—An appeal shall lie from all orders and decisions of the President, which shall be sustained unless overruled by a two-thirds vote.

Local Items.

Mr. Lewis moved that the report be accepted and laid over till the next meeting, which was carried.

H. Bucher Swoope, Esq., being in town upon business, and present at the meeting, he commenced by saying that he knew the people of this country to be loyal—that this country has already given a thousand troops to the Government for its defence—There are, however, some men who say that these associations are unnecessary. Such men are traitors at heart, and merit as much denunciation as Benedict Arnold and Aaron Burr. That miserable wretch, Vallandigham, professes to be loyal as many other "copperheads" who should be hung up as traitors. They boldly oppose the conscription law. They say they are for the country, but they are opposed to the Government. These associations are necessary to correct those irresponsible sentiments. There is nothing more disheartening to the soldier in the camp or to the soldier in the field, than the fact that there are persons at home who fold their arms and gaily look on, and some even now do everything in their power to embarrass their successful movements. Mr. Swoope then spoke at some length upon the duty of citizens in this trying time, in which he said it was the duty of every citizen to do all that he could for his country—that he should give all he has, even his life, for the defence of his country.

On motion, the thanks of the meeting were tendered to H. Bucher Swoope, Esq., for his able and patriotic speech.

J. G. Miles, Esq., was called upon to address the meeting. He said if there ever was a time when all loyal men should unite in a bond of eternal union for the preservation of our glorious Government, it is now, when the hands of the traitors are laid upon it to destroy it. In the South no man is permitted to say a word against their infamous treason. Any man who would utter such a word would find himself shut up in a dungeon or dangling at the end of a rope. He then spoke of the traitors at the North, and said they had infinitely better go to Dixie, and shoulder the musket, than stay here to oppose every effort of the Government to crush the rebellion—and complain at the expense of the war, and endeavor to alarm the country on that account. Such are the "copperheads" of the North.

Mr. Miles contended that the States rights doctrine—the very same doctrine which the Democratic State Convention in Connecticut endorsed and adopted—was the cause of this war.

According to that doctrine, a State may at any time throw itself upon its sovereignty, and the U. S. Government has no authority or jurisdiction over it. South Carolina attempted this when she passed her nullification act, but the firmness of Gen. Jackson drove them from it. And if J. B. Calhoun had had the same kind of nerve, the country could have been saved in 1851, and this blood and destruction of property prevented.

On motion, the vote postponing the Report of the Committee on the Constitution, was reconsidered.

Whereupon, it was moved that the Constitution and By-Laws be adopted as a whole, which was carried unanimously.

The Constitution and By-Laws were then signed by a number of gentlemen, and the meeting adjourned to meet on Saturday evening the 14th.

HUNTINGDON, March 14, 1863.

Union League met this evening according to adjournment.

The meeting was called to order by S. T. Brown, temporary chairman.

The first business in order was the nomination of persons for permanent officers of the League. The following were put in nomination:

For President, Samuel T. Brown. For Vice President, Wm. P. Orkison.

For Secretaries, Theo. H. Cremer, and Wm. A. Green.

The gentlemen were declared unanimously elected.

A. W. Benedict, Esq., was called on and addressed the meeting in an able and patriotic manner.

The committees previously appointed were continued.

During the evening a number of loyal men joined the League.

Adjourned, to meet on Saturday evening, 21st inst.

A Remedy for Small Pox.—The German Reformed Messenger has received a letter from a friend in China, in which it is stated that a great discovery is reported to have been recently made by a Surgeon in the English army in China in the way of an effectual cure for small pox. The mode of treatment is as follows:—When the preceding fever is at its height and just before the eruption appears, the chest is rubbed with croton oil and tartaric ointment. This causes the whole of the eruption to appear on that part of the body, to the relief of the rest. It also secures a full and complete eruption, and thus prevents the disease from attacking the internal organs.—This is said to be now the established mode of treatment in the English army in China by general orders, and is regarded as a perfect success.

—Throne from his horse.—On last Saturday morning Mr. Abraham Lewis of Mount Union, started from home on horse back. After the Baltimore Express train passed the Railroad crossing below the station, he was found by Mr. Nicholas Shaffer, on the road, to be in an insensible condition with his head badly cut and the one side paralyzed; the saddle was lying near him with the girth broken. He was taken home and died on Monday morning at 2 o'clock.

—Our town was disgraced last Thursday by the arrival from Baltimore and Pittsburgh of a gang of some thirty men who selected this point to meet for the purpose of fighting their dogs. Sheriff Johnston summoned a posse of our citizens, and gave the blackguards and thieves notice that they could not fight their dogs in the neighborhood. The parties left in the evening and night train. It was generally believed that a man fight was also in the programme.

—Lieutenant F. Y. McDonald, of Company D, 49th Regt., gave us a call on Friday last. He will remain home on furlough for a short time. He had a leg broken by the fall of his horse, and is yet unfit for duty. We are pleased to learn from the "boys" that a better or braver soldier than Lieut. McDonald is not in the service.

—Furnace near Hopewell.—Messrs. Lowry, Eichelberger & Castner of Hopewell, have purchased or leased the Lemnos Furnace, situated near Hopewell in Bedford county. It is their intention to put her in repair and make iron; the property has been idle for a number of years, and will take considerable capital to fix it up. Something must be done to sustain the town. The Railroad to Bloody Run will soon be completed, and this will necessarily do away with all the staging from this point to Bedford. Starting these works will give employment to a number of families and property will not depreciate as it otherwise would have done. These gentlemen have our best wishes.

—Still Continues.—the practice of boys jumping on freight trains while passing through town. Scarcely a train is allowed to run through without some of these young scamps are hanging on; this is not only done when the trains are running slowly, but when they are going at a rapid rate. We have warned parents of this evil before, and you may expect to hear of some lad being run over and killed, if it is persisted in. We have performed our duty.

—Bitter Pill—the eloquent and patriotic Union speech made by H. B. Swoope, Esq., of Clearfield, before the Union League meeting on Tuesday evening, March 10th. Wonder if any of the Reptiles were within hearing distance!

—Col. Irwin and Major Miles of the 40th Regt. P. V., have received orders to return to their regiment. Something is up! A movement of the Army of the Potomac is expected. The recruiting office in this place will be continued. Sergt. Miles Irwin will attend to all calls of young men who may wish to get in ahead of the draft.

—Packages to the Army.—Adams Express Co., have delivered a large number of packages to the soldiers in General Hooker's Army during the last ten days. The General has made arrangements for the speedy delivery of express goods to the soldiers in his command in future. "Old Joe" is making some wholesome arrangements.

—Ground Hog.—So far this interesting chap has told the truth and we are glad his time is about out, for now according to "Hoyle" we should have fair weather.

—The Fishermen have already been at work. We have lately seen some fine strings of fish taken from the Juniata; this looks like spring.

—Mr. John Dixon of this place met with an accident last Friday near Broad Top City; he was lifting at something heavy, his foot slipped, which resulted in severely spraining his leg.

—We have learned that the Railroad Companies have reduced the freight on coal, and we are glad of it, as we expect to see our Broad Top friends doing a "land office business" the coming season.

—Mr. Asbury Stewart of Mill Creek has sold his store to Mr. George Eby of that place. Mr. Stewart is still engaged in sawing lumber, about six miles from the Railroad; he is using a circular saw in his mill, and is enabled to send a large amount of lumber off daily.

—In town.—Col. W. H. Irwin of the 40th Penna. Regt., was in town last week; he was on his way to Broad Top to attend to some business before joining his regiment. He is usual looks well.

—St. Patrick's Day.—To-day is St. Patrick's day. We anticipate that our friends from over the water will celebrate the anniversary in the usual way and have a "high old time generally."

—Paradise Furnace, situated about five miles from Marklesburg, is to be put in blast the coming summer.

—Messrs. Deweese and Trexler were up a short time ago—to make arrangements for an early start.

—The large flag which was hung out over the Rectifying office has been taken down for repair. We expect to see it floating in the breeze again in a few days.

—On Sunday evening during the snow storm we were surprised to see a vivid flash of lightning followed by a loud clap of thunder. Something unusual to have thunder and lightning with snow. It was a "thundering snow."

—Sanford's Opera Troop were in Altoona and Hollidaysburg last week, and performed before large and delighted audiences; they came over from Bellefonte and stopped on their way west; they will be in Huntingdon in the course of six weeks, and give the citizens of the Ancient Borough a chance for a hearty laugh.

—We learn that Mr. John Jamison died at his residence at Shade Gap, on Tuesday last week, of small pox.

—There is such a thing now-a-days as a man seeing snakes in his daily walks without having the aid of a brick in his hat.

NEGRO SOLDIERS.

Those of our countrymen who are opposed to the employment of any white hands to fight the Southern rebels, and who consider it undignified to put arms in the hands of negroes, inform us very little present time, nearly all the French soldiers garrisoning Vera Cruz are negroes from Martinique. It is also known that the French Government has lately obtained a number of negroes from Egypt, to serve in Mexico.

We do not hear that there is any dissatisfaction among the officers and men of the French army at being thus associated with soldiers of another color. They have fought side by side in Algeria and in other countries, and it is generally conceded that there is no impropriety in letting the men of one color incur the same risks as those of another color. Provided victories are gained, matters very little present time, nearly all the French soldiers garrisoning Vera Cruz are negroes from Martinique. It is also known that the French Government has lately obtained a number of negroes from Egypt, to serve in Mexico.

So the question was determined in the affirmative, and the substitute as amended was referred to.

On the motion to go into committee of the whole to adopt the amendment of Mr. Vincent as amended on motion of Mr. Rex.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hopkins, (Washington,) and Mr. Lobar, and were as follows: Yeas—Messrs. Alexander, Barger, Beck, Benedict, Bowman, (Ft. Cochrain,) Boyer, Brown, (Warren,) Cochran, Coleman, Earley, Foster, Fox, Freedland, Graham, Grant, Harvey, Hopkins, (Philadelphia,) Houston, Johnson, Josephs, Kerns, (Philadelphia,) McCoy, McManis, M'Nutt, Moore, Noyes, Pannocast, Patton, Quigley, Ritter, Schofield, Smith, (Chester,) Smith, (Philadelphia,) Strouss, Stupplin, Vincent, Vinson, Vinton, Windell, Young and Pershing, 34—43.
