LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Union Meeting.

Pursuant to previous notice a large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of West township, Manor-hill, and Salsburg, was held in the Academy building in Mooresville, on Friday evening, 15th inst., for the purpose of organizing a Union League and hearing addresses to be delivered by Samuel T. Brown and J. Sewell Stewart, Esq., of Huntingdon.

The meeting was temporarily organized by calling Dr. J. F. Wilson of Salsburg, to the chair; Messrs. Geo. Hallman and Henry Davis, Jr., Vice-Presidents, and Henry Hoff, Secretary. Mr. Brown being called upon, came forward and delivered a most convincing and telling speech, setting forth the absolute necessity of movements of this sort, in order to counteract the treasonable influence of a certain class of men in the North, who boldly avow their intention to break down the Administration, which cannot be done without the utter overthrow of our Government.

He was followed by Mr. Stewart, who gave those who cannot say rebel once without saying Abolitionist ten times, such a skinning as was most grateful to loyal ears to listen to.

After some interchange of opinion concerning the permanent organization of the League it was unanimously resolved, that the thanks of the meeting be tendered to the gentlemen who have so ably addressed us; and

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Huntingdon Journal and Globe.

The meeting then adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening, on Friday evening, the League. J. F. WILSON, Pres.

I am composed of twenty-six letters. My 2 4 4 2 3 1 3 6 is a formidable instrument, used against the rebels. My 8 9 14 19 18 13 2 is an object before officers' eyes. My 20 13 11 7 14 9 6 is an instrument feared by the rebels. My 20 14 25 2 10 is an instrument used on drill. My 15 13 14 18 21 4 is a thing of great importance in war. My 8 25 2 25 10 18 13 5 is the duty of all soldiers in battle. My 15 25 13 22 5 17 is an action in battle of great slaughter. My whole is the eager desire of every member in Co. G, 5th P. R. V. C. (CAMP MEN'S HILL, VA., March 18th, 1863.)

Local Items.

—St. Patrick's Day, in the Morning.—Last Tuesday was St. Patrick's day. The weather was unusually pleasant. We do not know that there were any holiday demonstrations in the Ancient Borough; if there were, they must have been of a very quiet nature.

The Irish miners on Broad Top had a procession which was conducted in a manner to give credit to those who had charge. They turned out in the morning about three hundred strong, every man wearing a green silk sash with a rosette on his shoulder. The sashes were lined with white silk, and when the line was formed they looked well.

The Stars and Stripes were placed in front of the column immediately behind the Rev. Mr. Hughes, who had adopted this mode of celebrating the day, instead of allowing the men to collect in drinking houses the result of which can more easily be imagined than described. The green flag of Ireland was in the center; it was a splendid one, and was purchased at a cost of some hundred and fifty dollars.—Mr. Hughes and two other Rev. gentlemen rode in advance, and a Marshal with six Aids were distributed at proper distances along the line; all were mounted on fine horses. A good martial band was also out, and the only tune they played that we could recognize was "Patrick's day in the morning." The line was formed at Barnestown at nine o'clock A. M. They proceeded down the road to Mooresville; here they counter-marched, and proceeded to Broad Top city via Dudley, and again counter-marched and directed their steps to Barnestown, and halted at the hotel of Mr. James Dunn, who had an elegant dinner prepared for them; after this they over they all proceeded to their homes.

Not satisfied, however, some of them congregated that night and partook of an amount of "rot gut," that soon turned order into confusion, and the next morning the most prevalent thing to be seen was black eyes, bitten noses and ears, and "sich like." That must have partook of fighting whisky; "that's what's the matter."

—The Borough Election.—The election on Friday last passed off quietly. The Union Ticket was elected by but little opposition. The eight o'clock Copperheads held two caucuses, put up a ticket, but when they learned that they could not drive the loyal voters to their support, they shrank from a manly contest. The following gentlemen were elected to the several offices: Justice of the Peace, Wm. I. Steel; School Directors, Benj. Griffin, Alex. Port; Constable, K. M. King; Judge, Thomas Fisher; Inspector, Wm. Francis; Assessor, C. Long. The morning running but one loser, Mr. E. J. Everhart having received a few votes, is elected one of the Inspectors. Monitor Copperhead stock is far below par in the ancient borough.

—S. T. Brown, Esq., says the Monitor attacked himself and most of his family last week, and his short tailed dog, Pointer, having followed his master to several war meetings, ("traitorous legions," is) expecting an attack this week from the same quarter. This would be more on a level with the capacity of the ex-candidate who distinguished himself in the attack, and safe too, as Pointer has too much self-respect to notice the barking of curs.

—Cud Jacob Higgins, of the 125th Pennia, is making arrangements to re-enter the service again after his term has expired. He purposes raising a regiment of heavy cavalry, and we have no doubt he will get many recruits out of the 125th. The Colonel is a good cavalry officer, and we would like to see him get a chance. The dragon service is a dashing one.

—We are pleased to learn that our friend and correspondent, J. S. Gitt, of Columbia, where he has been acting as Civil engineer, in locating roads in the Cad region, for some time, has received a call at Towanda, Bradford co., Pa., for which place he has left last week, to take charge of a Railroad in that region of country. Our good wishes go with him. He is a printer as well as an Engineer, and with all a clever fellow. The people of that region will find him such.

—Capt. John McKenna of the 125th Reg't., is recruiting a battery in the Regiment. The Captain says he is determined to return after the Reg't. is mustered out of service; and from what we can learn, he will raise his battery without much trouble. He is a soldier, and in the Mexican war, and when the present troubles broke out, was one of the first to shoulder his musket.

—Pay Master—John Brotherton, Esq., of the Blair County Whig, has been appointed a pay master in the army with the rank of Major. How you are Major? would like to see you when you get your finks on.

—Dr. A. J. Gressman of Martinsburg is about taking up his shingle at Fair Play, where he intends offering his professional services to the people in the vicinity. Pitch in Doctor, boys, you will succeed in building up a good practice.

—New Locomotive.—Mr. Lewis, Superintendent of the Broad Top Railroad, has purchased a new locomotive; it is a regular "Camel back," and it looks as if it could pull a heavy train. That road has been very badly off for power, for some time past, but through the energy of Mr. Lewis we think this difficulty will soon be obliterated. We understand they are getting another one made in Philadelphia.

—New Sidings.—The Broad Top and Penna. Railroads are each to build a new siding on the opposite side of the river to accommodate the increased coal trade; each siding is to be a mile in length. This will be of great advantage to those who have the working the road; hereafter they have been so long cramped for room.

—Heavy Flood.—During a heavy gale about one week ago, the dog belonging to the watchman on the Stonetown Bridge was blown off while attempting to cross the bridge; he was found dead underneath next morning. He was a favorite animal.

—Major General Burnside and Staff passed through Huntingdon on Monday morning on the Express Train west. The General looked remarkably well. We do not know of his destination, but from what we can learn, we think he takes a command in the Southwest.

—The remains of John S. McCoy, of Co. C, 125th Reg't., killed at the battle of Antietam, was brought home and interred at McConnellsburg on Sunday last.

—Assessor.—John Dean, Esq., Attorney at Law, Hollidaysburg, Pa., partner of S. S. Blair, late member of Congress from this district, has recently been appointed Assessor of Internal Revenue, vice Thomas Campbell retired. Mr. Dean will doubtless make a faithful officer.

—Another New Store.—Mr. William Brown of Tyrone, is building a new store room above Dudley; he expects to have a stock of goods in it by the first of May next. William is a clever man, and we would like to see him make money.

—Still Another.—Benkirk, Bro. & Co. are also building a large store room and office at their mine, about one mile above Dudley; they expect to do a large business. The location is a good one.

—A meeting of the loyal people of Union township will be held at Harmon Chapel School House on Saturday, the 28th inst., at one o'clock P. M., for the purpose of organizing a Union League. The proceedings of the meeting held at Cabin School House were received too late for publication this week.

—A Large Funeral.—The funeral of Mr. John Nash, an old and well known citizen, which took place on Sunday afternoon last, was the largest we ever witnessed in this place. Masonic ceremonies were performed at the grave of the deceased by the brethren of Mount Moriah Lodge.

—On Monday morning will be held at Knobs School House for Township organization. The following gentlemen have been elected: S. T. Brown, Esq., Assessor, C. Long. The morning running but one loser, Mr. E. J. Everhart having received a few votes, is elected one of the Inspectors. Monitor Copperhead stock is far below par in the ancient borough.

—S. T. Brown, Esq., says the Monitor attacked himself and most of his family last week, and his short tailed dog, Pointer, having followed his master to several war meetings, ("traitorous legions," is) expecting an attack this week from the same quarter. This would be more on a level with the capacity of the ex-candidate who distinguished himself in the attack, and safe too, as Pointer has too much self-respect to notice the barking of curs.

INSURE YOUR LIFE.

If you were to die to night, would you leave those dependent upon you as well provided for as you would desire?

Dr. Franklin said, "a policy of Life Insurance is the cheapest and safest mode of making a certain provision for one's family. It is strange that men should be careful to insure their houses, their furniture, &c., and yet neglect to insure their lives, the most important of all to their families, and far more subject to loss."

No one, upon a bed of sickness, ever regretted making suitable provision for his family; at such a time, a life policy can be fully appreciated.

The Phila. Life Insurance Co. of New York, has a capital of $1,151,750,000, securely invested. It has paid losses amounting to $811,000, and made dividends to the insured amounting to over $500,000.

The Trustees have declared a scrip dividend of 40 per cent. on the cash premiums of 1892, and have decided to receive the scrip dividends of 1893, 1894, 1895 and 1896 in payment of premiums.

The undersigned is prepared to issue scrip to those who desire to receive it, and give any information that may be desired on the subject of Life Insurance. R. ALBISON MILLER, March 3, 1893. Agent.

IMPROVE YOUR SIGHT AND PRESERVE YOUR EYES.—A. BIRNBAUM, Practical and Manufacturing Optician, takes pleasure in informing the Ladies and Gentlemen of Huntingdon and vicinity, that he has opened a Store one door west of Dr. Dorsey's, with a large and variety stock of Spectacles, comprising Convex and Concave Glasses, such as Flat, Crystal and Scotch Pebble, and particularly desires to recommend the superiority of the last named Glasses. His theoretical as well as his practical knowledge of Optics, and his long practice in the Oculist's science, enables him to adapt, after an examination of the eyes, those glasses which correspond with the defect of near, far or weak sight. Glasses can be fitted to any frame, of any shape or color. Please call and examine the Spectacles. Analyses and Photographs taken at all times on reasonable terms. Also, Segars, Tobacco and Meerschaum Pipes constantly on hand. Oct. 28, 6m.

MARRIED.

At the Jackson House, on the 17th inst. by Rev. G. W. Zahnizer, Mr. A. C. McCARTHY, of Bloomsfield, Bedford county, to Miss Sara WATSON of Altoona. Also, by the same, at the same time and place, Mr. G. L. MYERS, to Miss MOLLIE McCARTHY, both of Altoona. Also, on the 19th inst. by the same, at the Exchange Hotel, Mr. JOHN D. JOHNSON to Miss BELLA WILSON both of Shavers Creek.

DIED.

At his residence in this place, on the 17th of March, 1893, of brain fever, JOHN C. WATSON, Esq., late Sheriff of this county, aged 37 years, one month and fourteen days.

The deceased was by birth a native of Centre county, having for the last eighteen years been a citizen of this county, engaged, during a greater portion of the time in the iron manufacturing business at Mill Creek, and for the last three years occupying the office of County Sheriff, a position which he filled with ability and fidelity.

As a man of business he was thorough, upright and of strict integrity; as a citizen, distinguished for urbanity of manners, fine social qualities and amiable disposition; and as a husband and father, for kindness of heart, generosity and affection. A consistent and worthy member of the Regular Baptist Church, his walk and conversation were ever becoming the faith which he professed during life, and witness to death. His seat in the sanctuary was seldom vacant; his duties to society, to his family, his country and his God, were seldom unperformed. Almost the last public acts of his life, were the attendance at Divine worship, where his voice mingled with those of his brethren in prayer and praise,—and to low around the family altar of prayer.

The insidious disease which had been gradually undermining the citadel of life developed itself immediately and rapidly. The icy fids of the destroyer had enclined its victim. Death's seal was on his brow, its fatal imprint on his features. Reason fled, and unable to distinguish the voice of friends or recognize the features of loved ones, he journeyed through the dark valley, which was painful and rapid; but to the loved ones who mourn his departure the comforting assurance is left behind, that he had "let his house in order," and was ready at the Master's call.

He has fallen in the high prime of manhood, in the midst of a brilliant and useful career, but he has fallen, we trust, with the armor on, and with weapons furnished, his work being done, and well done. In his sudden departure, a devoted wife and two orphan children have been left a tender husband and an affectionate parent, society, a valuable member; the community, a Christian patriot, and the church of the Redeemer, one of its brightest ornaments. But such are the inscrutable ways of Him who is "too wise to err, and too good to be unkind." May his long and useful life be remembered by the Son of man, and His body was, on Friday last, consigned to the tomb, attended by a large concourse of friends.

—Still Another.—Benkirk, Bro. & Co. are also building a large store room and office at their mine, about one mile above Dudley; they expect to do a large business. The location is a good one.
