Lines Written on the Death-of S. G. Baker, Commissary Sergeant, 125th Regt.

He rests-the soldier's warfare's o'er, He hears the clash of arms no more; His acts were brave, his cause was just And glory crowns his honored dust. No one possess'd more patriot zeal, No one more brave on battle field : He left his home and dearest ties

His self denying traits were known With brother soldiers or at home: -Ready for each emergency

And gave his life a sacrifice.

His heart o'erflowed with sympathy. His poems spake his loyal heart; Was ready with his life to part : · He scorned to fill a coward's grave,

But fought, our bleeding land to save. Wife, infant, parents, now are left, Of husband, father, son, bereft;

They feel the scourge, and mourn his loss, But know it was a noble cause.

ud prices, whenever they visit the city. Feb. 18, 1863-fid. TALL AND WINTER ARRIVAL Wm. MARCH & BROTHER, MARKLESBURG, PA.,

Have just opened a large, new, and unsurpassed stock of Foreign and Domestic Dry-Goods, of all kinds and quali-ties, embracing overything in that line. Also, a complete-assortment of GROCERIES, emarkably cheap, with good weight and fair measure, together with QUEENSWARE, STONEWARE, HARDWARE, EOOTS & SHOES, &C., &C., and all the various other matters usually kept in a country store, so that the inquiry is not "What has March & Brother got," but "What have they not?"

Being satisfied that their large and complete stock of the above named goods cannot be excelled in quality, quantity or cheapness in this section of country, we respectfully ask a trial, feeling satisfied that a liberal patronage will be extended towards us, by all who age in need of good articles at low piecs. Our motto is "quick sales and small profiles."

We repectfully request the patronage of all, and especially our Trough Creek Valley friends.

Everything taken in exchange for goods except promises. 25. Cash paid for all kinds of grain, for which the highest market prices all highest markets. Having a large wareroom, farmers can store with him until ready to ship. Every convenience will be afforded them. Good amily flour by the borrel always on hand at the cheapest rates. WILLIAM MARCH & BRO.
