Re-Nomination of Governor Curtin;

(From the Phila North American.) The Union State Convention, which met at Pittsburgh last Wednesday, renominated as the Union candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, the Hon. Andrew G. Curtin, our present worthy, able and popular chief magistrate. If ever a re-nomination was well deserved, we are sure that this one was, and we feel proud of the manly courage of the Convention in disregarding the opposition raised to his candidacy, and determining that the choice of the majority should rule. We are glad that the Convention paid no heed to the counsels of the timid, who, affrighted at the manufactured clamor against Of all the things which have disgraced our party conventions, nominations of mere negative men, to get rid of the positive, and decided public men, well known for their ability, have been most disgregated. our party conventions, nominations of
