A Bold Forgery.

The following statement by Peter Swoope, Justice of the Peace of this place, speaks for itself. The Monitor faction must be hard put to, when they resort to making use of means so dishonorable, to deceive the people. Read the statement, and then say whether the traitors who control that sheet are worthy of belief.

HUNTINGDON, Oct. 5th 1863.

I, Peter Swoope, of the borough of Huntingdon, do affirm that the statement published in a late number of the "Monitor," over the signature of Michael Quarry, of Union township, Huntingdon county, to the effect that Samuel H. Shoemaker, Esq., had proposed to release said Michael Quarry from arrest as a deserter, upon condition that he would vote for A. G. Curtin at the coming election, and purporting to have been sworn to at my office, was not so sworn to at my office or in my presence. And I do further affirm that my name was attached to said statement without my knowledge or consent, and that no affidavit was ever made before me by said Michael Quarry, other than to his discharge from the service.

HOW SOLDIERS VOTE.

HEADQUARTERS 110TH PA. VOLS.,
Near Culpeper, Va., Sept. 30, 1863.

MR. EDITOR:—As Penna. Regiments in the Army of the Potomac nearly all held elections to see the vote between Curtin and Woodward, we held one also. I give you the vote of our regiment, and it may be taken as a fair sample of the way Penna. soldiers would vote were they home, as our Regiment was gotten up under a Democratic organization:

Curtin's majority over Woodward, 127

WILL. CUNNINGHAM, Adjt.

A GOOD TIME.—On Thursday morning last, in company with Colonel William Dorris, S. T. Brown and Henry McMonigle, we left the ancient borough for Jackson township. It was our first visit there, and we must confess we were more agreeably disappointed than we have ever been. We had no idea that people lived as much at home there as they do. More beautiful or better farms cannot be found in any other part of the State. We completely "taken down," and ready fell in love with that township and its Union citizens. In the afternoon, a Union meeting was held at "Steffy's," a hotel where we sat down to a "tip top" dinner, and of course we did it full justice. The meeting was organized by calling Mr. Samuel Stewart, an old line Democrat, to the chair; A. McDonal, John Love, Joseph McElry also true Democrats, with other gentlemen of the Union party, took seats as Vice Presidents and Secretaries. It was a genuine Democratic Union meeting, and it was ably addressed by Col. Dorris and Mr. Brown.

Early in the evening our party started for Greenwood Furnace, where we arrived in good time, and were handsomely cared for then, and until morning by the gentlemanly manager of the Furnace, Mr. John Withers. A Union meeting was also held at this place, John Love, Esq., of Barree, a fighting Democrat, occupying the chair. It was ably addressed by Col. John A. Wright, S. T. Brown, Esq., Col. Dorris, and Esquire Love. At both meetings there were many old Democrats who cannot support Woodward the bogus Democratic candidate. Both meetings adjourned with hearty cheers for Lincoln, our army and the soldiers' friend Andy G. Curtin.

We left the Furnace on Friday morning, and arrived at home, thro' a heavy rain, in time to hear the speakers of the bogus Democracy preach their treason in the Court House. We shall not soon forget our pleasant trip to Jackson, and the many friends we met with there.

SPRUCE CREEK.—On Saturday evening, in company with several gentlemen, we attended a Union meeting at Spruce Creek. A good meeting had been held in the afternoon, with John S. Isett, an old Democrat, in the chair. It was ably addressed by Hon. Steel Blair, of Hollidaysburg. At the evening meeting, Mr. B. F. Brown, also a Democrat, occupied the chair. The able speakers, David Blair, A. W. Benedict, J. Sewell Stewart, Esqs., the chairman of the meeting, did the cause full justice, and we are very sure Curtin stock was fully as high at the close of the meeting as it was at the commencement. The meeting was large and enthusiastic.

Early in the evening a number of rebels arrived in front of Haslet's hotel, in a carriage, who had been attending a bogus Democratic meeting in Warriorsmark township Before they left their seats they cheered for "Vallandigham, Jeff Davis and Woodward," They could not do anything else if they believed the teachings of the bogus Democratic leaders. They are on a fair way to h—l, or some other place where Union men do not congregate.

AN HONEST CONFESSION.—One of the Broad Top Woodward Democrats, on Saturday morning last, told us in presence of a crowd at the depot, that the delegation from Broad Top attending the "indignation meeting" in this place some months ago, came for the purpose of destroying the Globe office, but that they had been "overruled" after they had arrived here. We are very sorry they were "overruled," for it is very certain had they made the attempt, Woodward would have lost at least fifty votes in Carbon township and perhaps a few in this place.

GOOD FOR THE LADIES.—We are informed that at a bogus Democratic meeting in Clay township last week, at which there was a better attendance of ladies than of men, after "Spotted Nigger" Speer had concluded his abuse of the Union party and its candidates, the ladies gave three cheers for Curtin, and made him and little Bruce skedaddle for Orbisonia before they were ready. The "travelling bar" was not left behind.

General Meagher's Letter.

General Thomas Francis Meagher, the Irish American patriot, and brilliant orator, was invited to address a Union meeting in Ohio, but being unable to attend sent a letter, from which we make the following extracts:

THE EFFECT OF ELECTING VALLANDIGHAM

Electing Mr. Brough, Ohio vindicates and fortifies the National Government. Electing Mr. Vallandigham, Ohio abandons, and, so far as one State can do so, weakens and prostrates it.—Electing Mr. Brough, Ohio stands true to the splendid soldiers, who, from the rocks of Gettysburg, hurled back a bold invasion—from the bluffs of Vicksburg broke the fetters of the Mississippi, consecrating it to freedom and the untrammelled service of a united people, and who, at this very hour, rain a deserved chastisement on the city in which the National flag was first struck down, and the torch of treason tossed aloft as the signal of revolt. Electing Mr. Vallandigham, Ohio turns her back on these brave men, disowns their service, discards the victories they have won, sends them a vote of repudiation instead of a vote of thanks, and, in place of cheering them on in their new enterprises, casts a cloud between them and their fame, their proud memories, their exalted purposes and hopes, making them feel that they have poured out their blood in the defeat of armed traitors in their front but to encounter the faithlessness and base ingratitude, or at best, the equivocal recognition and impoverished praise of a mutinous party in their rear.

The New York Post, commenting on this excellent letter, remarks:

"The vigor and enthusiasm of Genl. Meagher's devotion to the Union has a double source; first, his genuine attachment to the country of his adoption, the happiness of whose people he has witnessed, and from whom he has received so many honors; and, secondly, his keen remembrance of his own dear native land, which has ever found a friend in us, and ever will find one, so long as it shall remain worthy of sympathy. But for us to be an efficient friend of any down-trodden nation we must keep united. Our moral as well as our physical power, our ability to influence councils of State, or to take part in their efforts at war, depends entirely upon the unity of the Republic. Break us up into fragmentary States, and our friendship, like our enmity, will become an indifference quantity; but let us prove to mankind that we are able to crush the most formidable rebellion ever organized and maintain our institutions unhurt, and the very name of the free Republic is henceforth and forevera word of might all over the globe. Foreign-born citizens of common sense perceive this truth, and give their hands and hearts to the national cause."

General Meagher's remarks will apply with equal force to the contest in this State between Curtin and Woodward.

NOW IS YOUR TIME.—Robt. King has just returned from the city with a fine stock of gentlemen's dress goods, Cloths, Cassimeres, etc., just the thing to fit out a gentleman with a handsome and serviceable suit of clothing. Give him a call and see his goods.

A new stock of Violins, Accordians and Mouth Organs, just received and for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

All the Patriotic Songs of the day, received as soon as published, and for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

Why is the negro the equal of a white man?—Monitor.

Because R. Milton Speer didn't reject the smiles of the "spotted nigger."

☞ Call at Westbrook's if you want to get a good article of Boots and Shoes for gentlemen or ladies' wear. A new stock has just been received.

GO TO THE POLLS EARLY.

And see that every Union vote in your district is brought to the polls and voted.
