

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

Wednesday morning, Nov. 18, 1863.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Good dry wood, oats, corn, and potatoes, will be taken in payment of subscription to The Globe.

On Wednesday evening the 4th inst. on Hill street, a large gold Breast Pin, containing hair. A reward of one dollar will be paid for the recovery of the same if left at this office.

Dilatory Edictments.—It is cause for some surprise to see the tardiness with which the late call for volunteers is being responded to by the citizens of the county, and, indeed, throughout the whole State.

Best quality now ready for sale by Thos. Tweed. Orders left at the residence of Mrs. Armitage will be promptly attended to.

Crowded Out.—Two communications from the army and other matter have been crowded out by the length of the opinion of Judges Strong and Read.

Real Estate Sales.—Valuable properties are offered for sale in to-days Globe.

There is a change of time in the running of the Penna. R. R. trains.

From the Army of the Potomac. Cuttaper Occupied by General Meade's Forces.—The Whole Army over the Rappahannock—Cavalry Skirmishing near Madison—Stuart Covering the Rebel Retreat toward Richmond—Gen. Carr's Engagement near Brandy Station.

Mr. Ekeelberger, of the firm of Long & Ekeelberger, Hopewell, Bedford county, met with a severe accident in this place on Tuesday night of last week.

The Burgess and Town Council certainly deserve the praise and commendation of the citizens of the borough, as well as those of the county, for the handsome style in which they have had Hill street macadamized.

On Monday morning, when they took the lead in pursuit of the rebels, followed by the 2d and 1st Corps in order.

The information received from the army of the Potomac to-night is that the rebels are extending their line on the Rappahannock. The work on the railroad is being rapidly pushed forward.

The strike on Broad Top is not yet over. To our mind, there is a certain case on Broad Top, it would be better for the operators, R. R. Co., and all others concerned if they were driven from the region, and if they continue much longer, we are very much mistaken if such is not found to be a fact.

Somebody entered a sleeping room at Dean's Hotel last Thursday night, and took from the pockets of one of the boarders several dollars.

On the same night, a sleeping room at the Jackson House was entered, and a gentleman stopping there lost his gold watch and several dollars in money.

A stranger stopping at the house over night was arrested and is now in prison charged with the theft.

Serenade.—On Friday night we were again awakened by music, originating from the Huntingdon String Band.

Paid Off.—The company of invalids stationed here, were all paid off last week. Some have received pay for over a year, and others for a shorter period; but each is glad to receive his share, and to know that Uncle Sam does not forget him.

Blair County.—Street lamps were introduced in Hollidaysburg on Saturday, the 7th, inst.—A fire broke out on Saturday morning, the 7th, in a small frame building, occupied as a grocery. Cause—stove pipe passing directly through the roof.—Capt. J. Piper, Deputy Provost Marshal, was thrown from a buggy on Sunday, the 8th, and severely injured.

Court.—There was a reasonable attendance at Court last week. The trial case, which was to have come to trial was quashed, the plaintiffs entering a nolle prosequi as to three of the party, who were discharged, while the fourth was held to appear at the next Quarter Sessions.

An Inghelous Piece of Workmanship.

We had the privilege on Monday of examining a photograph frame manufactured by one of the gentlemen soldiers of the invalid company stationed at this place.

The company of invalids stationed at this place, by their general good conduct, have made themselves feel at home with us.

We understand that a number of country boys have commenced to work in the coal mines on Broad Top. It is a money making business.

WAR FOR THE UNION.

A Curious Chapter on Food.

The diversity prevailing in different nations in reference to articles of food, seems to confirm in its liberal sense the proverbial saying, that "one man's meat is another man's poison."

In the Shetland Islands it is said that crabs and lobsters abound, which the people catch for the London market, but refuse to eat themselves even when half starved!

A despatch received here to-night from the front, says that heavy cavalry skirmishing was going on all the afternoon southwest of Culpeper, toward Madison Court House.

Guerrilla Robberies by Deceiters. Affairs in Fairfax remain quiet, so far as guerrilla are concerned. No visitations of any importance had been made by these gangs for several days, though some of our own men have been indulging in similar practices.

Perfidy of Settlers. There can be no doubt of the fact that several of our settlers have been engaged in the transportation of goods to the front with the express purpose of having them seized by Mosby.

Milk as an article of food (except for sucking babies) is looked by the South Sea Islanders. Goats have been introduced into several of the islands; but the people deride the settlers with us for their fondness for milk.

The narrative of Anson's voyage is a full account of the prejudice of the South Americans (both of Creoles and Indians), against turtle, as poisonous.

Even when the same substances are eaten in a different condition, there is a strange difference in the mode of preparing them. Both we and the islanders use butter; but they store it up in casks, and when they eat it, they melt it in milk.

Gen. Sickles on the War. Gen. Sickles recently made a speech in New York, in which he thus pointedly and beautifully referred to the great struggle for the preservation of the Union.

Although withdrawn myself from political life, and this determination has been strengthened by my profession—without a wish or an object to serve any party, I may be permitted, as a citizen, to offer a word of admonition, I might say a leaf from experience of a retired campaigner in the field of politics.
