

HUNTINGDON, PA. Wednesday morning, Dec. 2, 1863. LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Sword Presentation to Adj. S. T. Davis.

Adj. Samuel T. Davis having lost his sword at the battle of Chickamauga, his friends in Sharer's Creek Valley have sent him one as a token of their appreciation of his gallant service in behalf of his country.

To Adj. SAM. T. DAVIS, 77th Regt., P. V., by his friends in Sharer's Creek Valley, Pa., as a token of their appreciation of his gallant service in behalf of his country. Nov. 1863.

On the reverse of the scabbard is another oval gilt plate, having inscribed thereon the names of the battles in which the Adjutant participated, as follows:

Shiloh, Corinth, Lavergne, Trinne, Stone River, Liberty Gap, and Chickamauga.

The Strike.—The strike on Broad Top still continues, and we are of the opinion that it will last for some time to come, if the miners do not go to work; and from what we have heard from some of the operators we are satisfied they will not yield, if it should continue a year. Some few country-born men have gone to work in some of the mines, and there is no reason why Americans could not make the best miners in the world.

Simon Cole, of Coffee Run, is now in the city purchasing new goods for his customers.

Senator Coates has purchased a mansion on Capital Hill, in Washington, and it is said he will practice in the Supreme Court.

Good dry wood, oats, corn, and potatoes, will be sold at the payment of subscription to The Globe.

Letter from the 49th P. V. Copy of a letter received by J. G. Miles of Huntingdon, from his son Major J. B. Miles of the 49th Regt., P. V., enclosing copies of the assigned General Orders, in relation to the brilliant achievement of a part of the army of the Potomac upon the Rappahannock.

Explosion of a Locomotive.—One day last week engine No. 174 exploded its boiler about one quarter of a mile below Millin, throwing the fireman some fifty feet from the train; he and the engineer were seriously, but not fatally injured. The shock was felt in Millin.

Completed.—The houses built by S. T. Brown, Esq; they are very convenient, and will, doubtless, make comfortable tenements, and we only hope that others will follow suit who have the means, to furnish accommodations to persons desiring to rent. We will not insure "three per cent. per month" but will guarantee a fair rent.

Frequent.—The depredations of thieves throughout this section of country have been unusually numerous of late. No good reason can be assigned why these law-breakers should commence this course. We would caution them to desist, for "the way of the transgressor is hard;" and if they do not, they will find themselves compelled to winter in quarters not well adapted to their tastes.

Rockhill Furnace, we are informed, is to be repaired at once, and put in blast by Messrs. Lawrence & Leamer, who recently purchased it from Messrs. Wight & Issett. These gentlemen are the lessees of Rebecca Furnace and Allegheny Forge, in Blair county.

One-Right Sold.—Messrs. Patton, of Columbia, and Petriken, of this place, sold their one-right above Coffee Run, on the Broad Top Railroad, to an eastern company for fourteen thousand dollars. They propose the erection of a furnace near Marklesburg.

Convicted of Murder in the Second Degree.—James McCully, well known in this locality by the title of "Foxy," was convicted of murder in the second degree, at Harrisburg, last week. "Foxy" gets only ten years and four months.

Phrenology.—Dr. Smyth, will remain a few days at the Franklin House, giving all who wish to test Phrenology, as an science, an opportunity of having their characters defined. Verbal examinations, 25 cents; written "charts," 83.

Persons desiring examinations, at their residence, will be attended to without addition. If a class of 10 pupils can be formed, for the tuition of Phrenology, each member of the class will obtain a correct knowledge of the science, for five dollars.

Distressing Accident.—A young man named Morrison McCartney, a resident of Logan township, Blair county, who was, for some time past, employed as a brakeman on a freight train on the Northern Central railway, between Harrisburg and Baltimore, came to his death suddenly, a few days since, in a manner unknown. He was found dead on the lumber of a car on the train on which he was employed, with a severe contusion on his head. It is supposed that he was standing on the top of a car and was struck by a bridge which knocked him down, and that he fell in the position in which he was found.

To Correspondents.—We have three or four communications on hand which we most respectfully decline to publish for the reason that the contents are of general or local interest.

No Open.—Lloyd & Henry's new establishment at the head of canal basin is now open and ready for business. See advertisement, and give the gentleman a call.

The hogs in this locality are daily receiving death-blows. Corn and other provision having been scarce this season, there are few boasts of as fat porkers as last year.

Amorous.—The offerings of real estate at public and private sale are becoming plenty of late, as can be seen by reference to our advertising column.

Thanksgiving day was duly observed by our citizens. All the stores and places of business were closed, and the churches were well attended.

The new schedule on the Broad Top Road went into operation on Saturday last, the 28th ult.

Dedication.—The dedication services of the Baptist Meeting-house, in Broad Top City, will take place on the 10th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. M.

P. S.—We have not seen any newspapers since the battle and can't tell how correctly they may represent the facts. I have since learned that the 5th Corps did not enter the rebeldom until it was taken, consequently all the colors, were taken by our Brigade and the two regiments of Col. Upton's (121st N. Y. and 5th Maine). It was at the request of Gen. Russell that he was allowed to storm the works. He has gone to Washington to present the colors to the President. The rebel prisoners say it was considered by their officers that they could hold those works against thirty thousand men, and that they belonged to Stonewall Jackson's old troops.

HEAD QUARTERS OF THE RIGHT COLUMN, Nov. 8, 1863. GENERAL ORDERS. NO. 1. The General Commanding the Right Column congratulates the troops of his Command on the admirable manner in which they attended the operations of yesterday. The enemy was attacked in an entrenched position of great strength in enclosed works defended by artillery and infantry and compelled to surrender after a sharp conflict to an assaulting column actually inferior in numbers to those attacking the works. Four pieces of artillery, four caissons filled with ammunition, the enemy's pontoon bridges, eight battle flags, 2000 stand of small arms, 1000 prisoners, including two Brigadier Generals, and 1300 commissioned officers, are the fruits of the victory.

The prompt advance of the 5th Corps to the river, the capture of the right of its line and its gallant entry into the rebeldom simultaneously with the troops of the 6th Corps, are worthy of high praise.

The taking of the heights on the right by Neil's and Shaler's Brigades of the 6th Corps, under General Howe, to obtain position for the batteries was admirably accomplished.

The assault of the storming party under General Russell conducted over rough ground in the full fire of the works could not be surpassed in steadiness and gallantry.

The Brigades of Colonel Ellmaker, and Colonel Upton, and the troops of the 5th Corps, which participated in the assault have nobly earned the admiration and gratitude of their comrades and commanders.

The 6th Maine and 5th Wisconsin Volunteers for carrying the rebel line on the 15th N. Y. 5th Maine, 49th and 119th Penna. Vols. for taking the line of the rebels with the bayonet and spearing the enemy's bridges, deserve special honors.

HEAD QUARTERS, 3rd BRIGADE, NOVEMBER 23, 1863. GENERAL ORDERS. NO. 51. Officers and Soldiers:—Your gallant deeds of the 7th of November, will live in the annals of our country and will be not the least glorious exploits of the army of the Potomac.

But your General cannot but express to you himself his congratulations upon your successful operations in appreciation of your daring and gallantry. To have carried by storm with a mere skirmish line and a feeble support in numbers, powerful earth-works, a strong natural position, with a full flower of the rebel army and strengthened by artillery, would be an achievement, that a division of our forces might well feel proud to be a part of.

The hearty, generous and glorious support of the 5th and 6th Corps, Gen. Wright (our Division commander), 1st Division 6th Corps, Col. Ellmaker 119th P. V. 3rd Brigade, 1st Division, our Brigade is now composed of the 6th Maine 5th Wisconsin, 49th and 119th P. V. The two other Regiments assisting that day evening were the 5th Maine and 121st N. Y. of the 2nd Brigade, 1st Division. These are the regiments that took the colors—the greater part of the prisoners and arms, the redoubts, artillery, bridge &c. We were ordered to storm the works at 5 o'clock P. M. and double quick to the left for half a mile. In fact, for a greater portion of the distance, it was a full run, over rough ground with intervening ditches and up a steep hill. The 6th Maine in front skimming the 5th Wisconsin next, and the 49th and 119th P. V. as supports. But in less than five minutes we were ordered up on the run as the other two regiments were almost overpowered. It was the hottest place I have ever been in, and now wonder how any of us lived through it. Our whole force engaged in the assault did not amount to over two thousand, whilst the rebel force was at least four thousand, and their position was a most formidable one, with a double ditch and a high bluff with a gradual slope towards us, and towards the river and bridge the ground is abrupt. They got away many of their killed and wounded. We must have done fearful execution upon the rebels. We think they cast into the river one piece of artillery and a great number of small arms, but it is deep water at that point, we cannot determine to present with certainty. Many must also have been drowned as they attempted to swim across. Unfortunately they got off with several colors of colors or we would have sent none to Uncle Abe. I also send you an order of Gen. Russell published in his last issue. I am quite well, but anxious to hear from home.

Your affectionate Son, H. A. RUSSELL.
