HUNTINGDON, PA.

Wednesday morning, Dec. 16, 1863.

LOCAL & PERSONAL. Horrible Accident .- The Tyrone Her ald of Dec. 11th, says .-- On last Friwas found lying dead on the railroad track, near the Upper Tyrone Forge, and a short distance below this place. The body was brought to the station, and as no one recognized it an inquest was held. The upper part of the head of the unfortunate man was completely crushed and the brain and blood could be found for several rods on the iron rails. His pockets were examined by the jury, expecting to find some book or paper whereby he might be identified, but nothing could be found. arms be examined, when on his right arm was found the name T. Hunter. Immediately every one recognized him as Thomas Hunter, of Ironsville, this county. It was said that one of his brothers was at the Central Hotel, attending a ball, who was sent for, and who also identified him. It was ascer-

Students are flocking to it from all parts of the country, on account of the reputation it has among business men for making thorough, practical and reliable accoutants.

him, another approached him from be-

Its graduates take precedence over those of all other Commercial Schools; a Diploma from this College being a certain passport to success in business

The Faculty is composed of skillful and experienced men, who stand at the head of their profession, and who are well known to be eminently fitted for the positions they occupy. Every young man in the country should try to avail himself of the advantages afforded by a course of study in this College. Circulars of the College, containing full information, can be had on addressing the Principals, Messrs. Jenkins & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Army of the Potomac, Dec. 11, 1863. MR. LEWIS. Editor and Proprietor: Sin: On the arrival of the mail this morning I received a copy of your paper, the Globe, in which the names of a Lieutenant and three Sergeants are inscribed as advertising for young ladies' correspondence, addressed to Co. F, 10th Regt., P. R. V. C. It would be proper to notify all young ladies. who are in the habit of corresponding with those whom they never knew, that there are no such meu in Co. F.

Headquarters for Holiday Presents. -Everybody can be accommodated at Lewis' Book Store. Call and examine his new stock, which consists in part, of Family, Pulpit and Pocket Bibles, Hymn Books, juvenile and other books, Photograph Albums, Satchels, Ladies' and Gentlemen's Pocket-Books, Card Cases, Accordeons, Violins, Segar Cases, Gold Pens, fine Pocket Knives, Hair Brushes, etc., etc.-His stock is the most extensive over brought to Huntingdon. Old and young cannot fail to be pleased.

There is in progress in Lewistown a temperance society, whose object is to revive and encourage sobriety in that place. Should not such a society be instituted here, where, we regret to say, many instances of intemperance are observed? It would tinues to sell their goods at reduced prove a great benefit to many of our prices, in order to sell off their large young men who now lead a reckless stock before they move into their large and downward course, through the Store House on Rail Road street. Percursed agency of intoxicating liquors. See to it, ye who have any desire for call and see them. the future success! and happiness of your sons, and all who endeavor to exalt the reputation of our ancient borough.

Something New .- We direct attention to the advertisement headed "Fishers' Column." The style in which this advertisement is put up by Rev. G. W. Zahniser, Mr. D. R. P. We commend to the consideration of Flenner, to Miss Amanda J. Douglass, both of M. Connell town B. "Fishers' Column." The style in all our merchants, and hope it will meet with their approbation, it being a much better way of drawing attention than by having scattered thro'out the columns of the paper a series of notices, and descriptions of sundry articles, salcable and for sale.

Left .- The invalid company which was stationed here for some time past left on Saturday morning. We understand they go, to Troy, N. Y. With very few exceptions this company conducted themselves in a proper manner; they obtained the good-will of the community, and take with them our best regards as to their future welfare. Their stay here shall long be remembered.

The Provost, Marshal's Office-The FOR THE HOLIDAYS. Draft. Recruiting, &c .- Almost everybody seems too busy to think of it, but the preparations for the draft are going steadily forward at the office of Handsome and Useful Articles, the proper functionary—the Provost Marshal. Agreeably to an order from Headquarters at Washington, lists of the persons enrolled in each sub-district have been printed and posted up in the public places in each sub-disday evening a little after dark, a man trict. They give notice that any one enrolled who is clearly entitled to exemption, may come forward and claim it till the 20th inst., and persons who may be cognizant of others liable to duty, who are not enrolled, are requested to report them. It will be understood that this does not prejudice the right of exemption after the person has been drafted.

Disagreeable .- On Friday last the pavements of our borough were covered with frozen sleet. This made wal-One of the jury proposed that his king very disagreeable, and many a one, cautious and incautious, received a fall, although no serious accident, as we have heard, resulted from them. The next day, however, the sun shone and the sleet was soon turned into slush, which made traveling more inconvenient, if not more dangerous.

Having issued the President's Message in an extra Globe to our readers, we devote the space it would occupy in our columns to other subjects of information. Of course, we charge nothing extra, and suppose our subscribers do not think we impose on their good nature by acting so gener-

The old Franklin Almanac, published by A. Winch, 505 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, for 1864, is upon our table. It is one of the best, if not the best, Almanacs published. It contains exclusive of the actual astronomical calculations, a great variety of tales and useful reading matter. It is for sale at Lewis' Book Store. Price 15 cents.

We call attention to card of W. A. Stephens, Esq., who has just stuck out his shingle. We believe Mr. S. to be an honest man, and a gentleman. We hope he may not be wanting profitable calls.

Seth. T. Hard, editor of the Brownsville Clipper, left Brownsville some days ago to visit the seat of war in South Carolina, Virginia, Washington City, &c., on Government business. We suppose his mission is to obtain a full condition of affairs in that department: if so, the Government has made good appointment.

The Methodist revival still coninues with increased success. From annearances, we think the meeting will be held till the end of this week, if not longer.

We noticed, in peregrinating, that the building, formerly used as the German Reformed meeting house, which so long stood solitary and unoccupied, was being refitted. We understand it is to be made a dwelling-house.

New Firm.-By reference to an advertisement in the Globe, it will be seen that the former firm of Fisher & 10th Regt. It is a mistake, they had | Son, have admitted another memberbetter address their correspondence Thos. C. Fisher-who will hereafter act in such capacity.

> It Speaks well for the Place .- Real estate has gone up to a high figure in the ancient borough. Every property offered for sale is "picked up" as soon as offered. At least fifty new dwellings and business stands could be rented next spring if they could be had.

NEW Goods .- D. P. Gwin has just opened a fine assortment of new goods and the public are requested to call and examine the same and be convinced that good goods can still be had at-reasonable prices.

Change of Time.-The schedule on the Broad Top Road has undergone another change, as can be seen by referring to advertisement.

There will be preaching in the German Reformed church of this place on next Sabbath, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The whole amount of the Loan authorized is Fire Hundred Millions of Dollars. Nearly Four Hundred Millions

Sales have lately ranged from ton to fifteen millions weekly, frequently exceeding three millions daily, and as it is well known that the Secretary of the Treasury has ample and unfailing resources in the Duties on Imports and Internal Revenues, and in the issue of the Interest bearing Legal Tender Treasury Notes, it is almost a certainty that he will not find it necessary, for a long time to come, to seek a market for any other long or perminent Loans, THE INTEREST AND PRINCIPAL OF WHICH ARE PAYABLE IN GOLD.
