

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA.
Wednesday morning, March 9, 1864.
LOCAL & PERSONAL.

A Dodge.
Some of the "sharps" who are ambitious of stealing the bounty money, appear before a Provost Marshal, and after being sworn in and getting their money, immediately desert, providing there is not a strict watch placed over them, and practice their deception and fraud at other places where bounties are offered. This is somewhat similar to the dodge exercised some time ago, upon the drafted men who bought substitutes. Vigilance upon the part of Provost Marshals would, we think, remedy this evil.—We understand that several volunteers have taken the bounty at Hollidaysburg, and sidded immediately for parts unknown.

Looks Deserted.
The southeast corner of the Diamond where formerly stood the "old red house," owned by Postmaster Steel, presents a deserted appearance since the removal of the fort and dilapidated relic. Mr. Daniel Whittaker, bossed the job of removal, and he made it skeddado on the double quick.—We trust this enviable situation will not remain long without a brick dwelling of a business propensity adorning the spot.

Wanted.
A few good gardeners could find plenty of employment at this place.—From the scarcity of gardeners hereabouts, many vines will be left unpruned, and shubbery will be unattended and unprepared for spring, unless some horticulturists tender their services to our public. There may be some good gardeners in this vicinity; if so, we wish they would make themselves known.

A Friendly Call.
We were honored last Friday by a friendly call from Lieut. Colonel Isaac Rogers, Surgeon D. S. Hays, Captain John Skelley, and Adj. Will Cunningham, all of the 110th P. V., a regiment that has seen service. We hope the brave "boys" may live to give us another call after the rebellion shall be crushed out.

New Director.
Mr. Benjamin E. Stitt, of Dublin township, was chosen to fill the vacancy in the Board of Directors of the Poor, occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Haeckerson, who has removed to the west. Mr. H. has discharged his duties as a Director with ability and fidelity.

Sorgo Sugar, &c.
A. B. Brumbaugh, James Creek, Huntingdon county, Pa., Agent for Clark's Sorgo Mills and Blair's Evaporators in Huntingdon and Blair counties. Pure Cane seed for sale at Huntingdon, Martinsburg, &c., in time for planting.

Also, for Prince & Co's Melodions, and Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines. Send stamp for Circulars, &c.

Important to Volunteers.
A joint resolution passed Congress on the 3d, continuing government bounties to volunteers until further orders.

The Provost Marshal General has decided that all volunteers who may enlist before the draft is actually made will be deducted from the quotas by the Board of Enrollment, in accordance with orders to be issued in each case by the A. A. Pro. Mar. Generals of the State.

The War Fever.
We learn that over five hundred volunteers have been sworn in at Hollidaysburg since the office has been located there. We hope all our townships that are not yet out of the draft will do their utmost to escape it. They will have to the 1st of April to fill their quotas.

Cambridge Court.
The Cambridge court commenced this week at Ebsenburg. The Moore-Marbourg case is on the trial list. Eminent lawyers have been selected to bear and try the case, on both sides. John Scott, Esq., has been employed by Mr. Moore.

Wanted.
Any person having a small dwelling house for rent, can have it occupied the coming year by a small family. Inquire at Lewis' Book Store.

The Bedford Inquirer.
The Bedford Inquirer office has been purchased by Mr. Benj. F. McNeil, who will issue his paper on the first of April next, enlarged in size and with new type. He intends to devote his columns to a "hearty and unflinching support of the Government."

The Draft and Bounties.
Government bounties will be paid till the 1st of April, and the orders requiring the draft to take place on to day are suspended. A subsequent day for commencing the draft will be announced.

Flowers and Garden Seeds.
A fresh supply received and for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

Spectacles.
A fine stock of Spectacles just received and for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

Appointments for Juniata District.
The Annual Conference of the M. E. Church held at Altoona last week made the following appointments for the Juniata district:
George D. Chenoweth, P. E. Hollidaysburg—Thos. Daugherty Altoona—Wm. R. Mills Woddybury—N. W. Colburn, D. B. M. Woddybury.

George D. Chenoweth, P. E.
Hollidaysburg—Thos. Daugherty Altoona—Wm. R. Mills Woddybury—N. W. Colburn, D. B. M. Woddybury.

Mr. Kennedy M. King, has been appointed Agent at this place for the Adams' Express Company. He has removed the office to a room under Manager's Photograph Gallery on Railroad street. The appointment is a good one.

Valuable Farm for Sale.
We invite attention to sale of a valuable farm at Marklesburg on the 22d inst. See advertisement in another column.

Spring Dry Goods now opening—large assortment—new designs—at the Old Established Dry Goods House of Eyre & Landell, 4th & Arch Sts., Philadelphia. Read adv.

Mooreville High School.
We call attention to advertisement of Prof. S. C. McClain in another column. Prof. McC. has the reputation of being an excellent teacher and we hope he may have a good school.

Hall the Stars and Stripes.
Hail the stars which gave them birth!
Hail the stars which gave them birth!
Freemen, let them never, never
Fall abandoned to the earth.
Shout, ye sons, and raise the anthem,
Offspring of heroic sires—
They who gave their lives a ransom
To secure the glorious prize.

War the banner—spread it over us—
Emblems of our unity,
Freedom's sons will reign victorious
In this land of liberty.

Here the Stars and Stripes were planted
By our noble ancestors.
Stand, ye brave ones, stand undaunted,
Hold the flag of liberty.

Patrons, see the drape bought here!
Purchased with your grandfathers' blood.
Be brave, and in the same manner,
Retrace the steps your fathers trod.

One splendid Guitar, price $80, for sale at Lewis' Book Store. This instrument could not be bought in the city for $40, but the owner has no use for it.

MARRIED.
On the evening of the 3d, inst., by John Love, Esq., Mr. JEREMIAH SPANGLER, and Miss CATHERINE DOUGHERTY, all of Barre township.

At Shado Gap, by the Rev. G. Van Arsdalen, on Tuesday morning, Mar. 1st, PHILIP ALEXANDER BEERS, of Shade Valley, Huntingdon county, to Miss ROSANNA BECK, eldest daughter of Charles Beck, Esq., of Pine Grove, Schuylkill county, Pa.

FLAX. FLAX.
THE HIGH PRICES RULING FOR Cotton Goods has compelled public attention to be more especially directed to the culture of Flax. It can be made by some attention, one of the most valuable products a farmer can produce; an acre readily producing 50 to 60 dollars worth of flax and seed. Great crops could be taken by growers to have their Flax sown very thick when rolling, when watered sufficiently on one side, it should be turned, and subjected to exposure until all the stalks get a grey color, and the tint readily separates from the wood by a gentle rub.
