K.

On Friday last at 9 A. M. the Court hamites that they intended to run a ticket, or that they intended to make licly to declare that no opposition would be made to the Union ticket, and many were foolish enough to believe them. Two of the candidates on the Union ticket were officers of the election, and they withdrew from the board ; but not so with the Vallandig. hamites-their candidate for Justice of the Peace, and for Assessor, occupied seats on the board and held them throughout the day-the Union men being ignorant of the fact that they were candidates, for it was impossible for any man not of their secret organization, to get hold of or a peep at their ticket. Their tickets had been printed and circulated (judging from their appearance.) at least a week previous, and every man of the secret circle reported at the polls during the day and voted the secret ticket. No Know Nothing lodge ever managed its business more secretly, and it was amu sing to see how well the large majority of our Gorman and Irish citizens worked in Know Nothing harness. The whole tribe sucaked to the polls one by one, voted, and sneaked away again. They did not come up to the work like men engaged in an honorable purpose; their conduct was more that of the guerillas, their friends down South. The result. Every man on the Union ticket was elected. This was not expected by the guerillas, as they were sure their game would win. ' See the result, and see how handsomely
