

WAR FOR THE UNION.

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

Washington, May 16.—Despatches from the Army of the Potomac, received to-night, say it was intended to follow up the enemy early on Saturday morning to their new position, and attack them vigorously, but the heavy rain for several days interfered much with the movement of the army, the roads being in the worst possible condition, rendering it impossible to move the artillery and trains over some portions of them. Parts of the 5th and 6th Corps formed in position on the north side of the Ny River, about two miles north of Spotsylvania Court House.

The second Corps occupied the right of the new line on the Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania plank-road, with Burdiss on its left, the 5th Corps on the old stage road, and the 6th reaching half a mile further east. About 8 A. M. the regulars of the 6th Corps, about three hundred in number, were ordered across the Ny River to dislodge a regiment of Rebels who were in an entrenched position behind a house on their front, which they did in gallant style, killing and wounding some, and capturing about a dozen and driving the remainder to the woods.

Our guns in the centre opened and shelled the woods in front, but without eliciting any reply from the enemy, although they could be seen through a glass throwing up intruments. Their new position is deemed a strong one, but as soon as the army can get into position, and bring the guns to bear on it, they will make them answer or evacuate.

The Rebels made a sudden and unexpected attack on Saturday afternoon on that position from which they had been dislodged in the morning, across the Ny River on our left, and succeeded in gaining possession of that point. Portions of the 1st and 2d Brigades of the 1st Division, 6th Corps, were placed there to hold it, but were attacked by three or four times their number, and were compelled to fall back to this side of the stream, losing about a dozen wounded and nearly half their number captured.

General Meade had been visiting the line at this point at the time of the occurrence, being at the house of Mr. Anderson, who has a very handsome residence there, and the rebels had nearly reached the house before he was apprised of their approach. He however got away in safety, and troops were at once sent to meet and drive back the enemy.

A heavy artillery fire was opened on them, from which they suffered much, as the shells were soon to explode in their midst. Our infantry finally drove them back across the river, and captured a number of prisoners. A Rebel major and other officers were taken during the day.

Late in the evening our guns on the right opened fire on a section of a battery belonging to the Rebels, who scattered the infantry supporting them, the 1st Brigade of the 1st Division, 2d Corps, charged and captured two guns, with limbers, &c., and a squad of rebels. Our loss was very light.

The Rebel prisoners say Leo has issued an address to his troops, congratulating them on their success. Butler had been defeated and driven back to the gunboats.

Our loss in the past ten days is said to be about 45,000 in killed, wounded, and missing. A large portion of the latter may be put down as stragglers.

Gen. Grant's Movements. An Attack of the Enemy Repulsed—A Reinforcement of Twenty-Five Thousand Veterans—The Advance of Gen. Sherman.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Major Gen. Cudwaller, Philadelphia:—This afternoon we have despatches dated at 8 o'clock this morning from General Grant.

Last evening an effort was made by the 5th Corps to turn our right. They were promptly repulsed by Birney's and Tyler's Divisions, and some of Warren's troops that were on the extreme right.

About three hundred prisoners fell into our hands, besides many killed and wounded. Our loss footed up a little over six hundred wounded, and about one hundred and fifty killed and missing.

General Grant says that probably one killed and missing is over stated. Over twenty-five thousand veteran reinforcements have been forwarded to General Grant.

The condition of the army and its contemplated operations are entirely satisfactory. The army is abundantly supplied. Under instructions from this Department, Colonel Schriver, commanding our wounded soldiers sent to Richmond by Major Slaughter, an equal number of the principal citizens of Fredericksburg and its vicinity.

Three persons are in custody who are suspected of having been engaged with Major Slaughter. The Mayor had made his escape before intelligence of the outrage reached Washington.

Our gunboats have reached Fredericksburg, and the sick and wounded who could not be transported overland will be brought here on water transports. Despatches from General Sherman, dated at Kingston, Ga., at 10 o'clock last night, state that during the day we had pushed a column beyond that place after Johnston, as far as Cassville, skirting the latter part of the day with Hardee's Corps. Cars were expected to reach Kingston to-day. A hard fight for Atlanta was looked for.

No reports have been received from General Butler to-day. Major General Hunter has been placed in command of the Department of West Virginia, including the Shenandoah Valley. The latest dates from Major-General Canby were at Vicksburg. The river was reported to be blocked by shore batteries of the enemy at different points. But measures had been taken by him which were believed to be adequate for clearing the river of all such obstructions, and enabling him to reach Alexandria, where he will take command of the army.

WASHINGTON, May 23, 1.35 P. M. A Dispatch from Admiral Porter dated on board the flagship Black Hawk at the mouth of Red River, May 16th, states that the portion of the squadron above the falls at Alexandria have been released from their unpleasant position, owing to the indefatigable exertions of Lieutenant Colonel Bailey, acting engineer of the Nineteenth Army Corps, who proposed and built the dam of six hundred feet across the river at the lower falls, which enabled all the vessels to pass in safety, the back water of the Mississippi, reaching Alexandria, and allowed them to pass over all the shoals and the obstructions planted by the enemy, to a point of safety.

The Rebels Attempt to turn our Flank—A Bloody Repulse—Bivouac of a New Division. Headquarters Army of the Potomac, Tyler's division of heavy artillery, Friday Morning, May 20—8 A. M. My dispatch yesterday informed you of the attack made last evening upon the right wing of our line, and the handsome manner in which the rebels were driven back. The purpose of the enemy's movement was undoubtedly to discover what we had on our right. It was made by the whole of Howell's corps, Rhodes' division leading. The enemy left the vicinity of Spotsylvania Court House about 1 P. M. yesterday, made a detour by the Ny, and at about 5 o'clock struck the Fredericksburg road on the rear of our right flank, breaking out within three-quarters of a mile of the headquarters of Generals Meade and Grant. The only troops we had on the ground at the time were a couple of regiments of the 1st Division, 6th Corps, which has lately been brought from Washington, and is composed of troops that were never before under fire. Tyler soon brought up the remainder of his force and met the rebel attack, driving the enemy back into the woods. Here the rebels had formed their line of battle in single line, with skirmishers in front. Gen. Tyler left rather apprehensive at the work before him, considering the ravages of his troops, and he experienced some difficulty in getting them into formation. When once under fire, however, they showed they showed the utmost bravery, and audacity surpassing even that of old troops. In these murderous wood fights our veterans have learned all the devices that are related to the enemy from him, and will lie down and take advantage of trees, stumps, &c., but the heavy artillery braves unshaken to this kind of craft, the moment they saw the enemy, blazed away and rushed on. In consequence of this their loss was quite heavy, much more so than reported by me in my dispatch of last night, and will probably reach a thousand if killed and wounded. Perhaps it was also in consequence of our heavy artillerymen's cool courage that the rebels, unused to this style of attack, and not exactly understanding it, gave way in confusion, scattering through the woods. The honors of the repulse of the rebels, whose boldly conceived movement might, under different circumstances, have produced most disastrous results, rests exclusively with Tyler's heavy artillery division, though Birney's division of the Second Corps, and Crawford's of the Fifth, were afterward sent in support, and formed line, enabling Tyler to withdraw, after driving the enemy several miles, and clearing the Valley of the Ny. The confusion of the rebels appears to have been very great, the major portion of Rhode's division scattering in the woods. Three hundred and fifty of them were picked up in the woods during the night, and have just been brought into headquarters. The division of raw troops feel immensely tickled at their success. And although their loss has not been estimated, it will be an accumulation of numbers is fully made up by the increase of morale.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—To Maj Gen. Dis: Despatches from General Sherman state that our forces found in Rome a good deal of provisions and seven fine iron works and machinery. We have secured two good bridges, and an excellent ford across the Etowah. The cars are now arriving at Kingston with stores and two days would elapse before they could be shipped and sent up to the depot just received from Gen. Banks, dated at Alexandria the 8th of May, states that the dam will be completed to-morrow, May 9th, and the gunboats relieved.

I would then move immediately for the Mississippi. Gen Canby was at the mouth of the Red river on the 18th of May, collecting forces to assist Banks in necessary.

Despatches from General Butler dated at 10 o'clock last night, report that he had been fighting all day, the enemy endeavoring to close in on our lines; we shall hold on.

We have captured the rebel General Walker of the Texas troops.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—General Meade has issued an order complimenting General Tyler's division and General Kitchen's brigade for their gallantry on Thursday.

There was no fighting on Friday.

LATEST NEWS. Grant's Army Pushing Forward.

THE REBELS FALLING BACK!

OFFICIAL DISPATCHES. WASHINGTON, May 22—10 P. M. To Major General Dix, N. York.

On Friday evening General Grant commenced a movement for the purpose of compelling Leo to abandon his position at Spotsylvania, the details of which, for obvious reasons, should not be made public. It has thus far progressed successfully. Longstreet's corps started south at one o'clock on Friday night. An hour and a half later, Hancock moved. Ewell's corps followed Longstreet last night.

This indicates that the rebel army has fallen back beyond the North Annapolis bridge and joined Leo. The movement of General Grant has thus far been accomplished without any severe engagement or serious interruption. We now occupy Guinea's Gap, Millford Station, and south of the Mattapony on that line. No despatches have been received to-day from General Butler.

Despatches from Kingston state that General Sherman's forces are resting and replenishing their supplies.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.
