For the Globe. From the Battle-Field.

Huntington, May 23, 1864. DEAR GLOBE :- The papers received ere on the 15th inst., contained the startling news that Colonel Halings and Lieut. Colonel John Blanchard Miles of the 49th P V were killed. I started in the first train for Washington, to ascertain the truth, and, if true, to obtain, if possible, the body of Lt.

ters at the War office, I went down the Bay to Belle Plain. ningham of the same regiment, was After a weary walk of twenty-five wounded slightly in three places miles I found the Regiment encamped Others of the regiment were wounded on a farm about 11 miles from Spottbut we do not discover the names of sylvania Court House. They were busy distributing the first mail received during two weeks. They were in command of Captain Wakefield of Mifflin county, Major Hickman, the only surviving field officer, being indisposed and at the hospital. The mail distributed, we sat down in the tent of Captain Wakefield, and he and the other officers, with sad faces, told me of their struggles during the terri-ble contest of the present month, and great battles in which they were engaged were fought on the 5th, 6th, 10th and 12th of May. This regiment has filled up with drafted men, and they were auxious to know how they w'ld behave under fire. Their first engagement was on the fifth of May. They were ordered to charge a rifle pit, and they marched up to within twenty yards when the rebels poured in on them a fire of musketry and fifty two mon fell, but the drafted men retired. On Tuesday evening the 10th May, about seven o'clock, the regiment was ordered to charge a succession of rifle pits. With Col Hulings and Lieut Regiment made the charge, and the 1st, 2d and 3d rifle pits were taken in succession, but with such fearful loss

Col Miles were killed, and their bodies were left in the hands of the enemy.
A private had lost his cap in the struggle and seeing another on the ground, as he stooped for it he found it belonged to Licut Col Miles whose dead body lay beside him. Hastily stripping him of his sword, sash, pocket books, watch and map, he ran to the cap to headquarters. A bullet hole through the edge of the cap, tear-ing away the button, showed where the fatal wound had been received. At daylight on the 12th they commenced the attack and with but three hours intermission in the evening, they fought until 3 o'clock in the morning of the 13th. This engagement is with-out a parallel in the history of any war. Two hundred rounds of cartridges were fired. The men were so blackenened with powder as to be scarcely recognizable. They ceased firing only because their guns were so foul that they could not be loaded.

On Saturday last Paymaster Hewitt of Hollidaysburg, paid off in this place, shows what this struggle cost. Number 1 Chia the company of Captain Garrettson of bering 658 muskets on leaving Brandy
