
Cife Cblobe

 Mond
 chativision ind ind iner

SHALL WE SMG IMEMVE

 sun wind

 Profnity in tue cans- $A$ writer 2n one of our oxchanges has the following to eay about shat bas been obse ved by many persons, viz: tho rapi inderease of profanity and vulgarity other place where pronisceouns crowds of people are ate intolerable nuisncee, and with a viow to ite anatement we would suggest the propriety of attacling a profunc car in the accommodation of those ekio have har no regard for the laws of God or for no regrigs of those who may be with the feeliggs of in the sound of - ar Cuffoy; but white man bound nespech dis uniform, (striking bis breas) whas is mbould think these whecls must he fatienued after whecls nust be fatigucd after runnin all day,' obsoredi sam. Well, Yos replied Setb, taking a squint at then replied Setb, taking a squin they do appear to be tired.
$\mathfrak{t b e}$ Clutre.

| WILLIAMII LewIs, Editor and Proprietor. | -PERSEVERE.- - ${ }^{\text {a }}$ TE | TERIHS, si, 50 a y year in advance. |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| VOL. XIX. HUN | WEINESDAF, JUNE 8, 1864, | 84. NO. 50 |

\section*{| $o$ |
| :---: |
| $\vdots$ |
| 2 |
| in |}

| A Lesson for Wayward bogs. | Rejel Spy Shot and Captured | EDUCATIOARL COLUMH. |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
| About a year ago, tho anxions faco of $a$ poor woman in scarch of her lost | On Friday linst, Latsthav, the Gn Sling officer for Fruilklin 10 wnship | S, $B_{i}$ CEAMEY, Editor, |
| bog, was familiay on the railroad in | Mdans counts, meta aspinicions lioke | Let fr Exication shont |
| the norlthera pait of Ohio. | tioned lin | Hool Rooim as a Teadher |
|  |  |  |
| lowing was tho story of hior atticition |  | , |
| which sho toid such sympathizing | and lic sii | Goethe, "to enoorrage the |
|  |  |  |
| clilid, $a$ |  |  |
| Joars,-In that bog centerod all her | ty tonresthim, and ho did fo. Thic | this aumonition of tho "many sided" |
| hoppes and fars. One day she cor- |  | Germaio. They are to apt to talko |
| rocted him for some ofence, and on | , | it for grinitud, that the "boantifill 'en- |
|  | ablo oporunity to jump the fonce and | ${ }^{\text {coniras }}$ |
|  | Run ivay, Tho oiticer prisind, and | fal Mhiel demanels thair utmogt ef |
| , but hoard noth |  | forts in its belarif. How slow tench- |
| him. Thinking that ho had joired | w |  |
|  |  |  |

tecting qualities of any artiele of die named, nothing oan be inforred, for twro two of tho men lived on the samo king of food; all that can be rationally an safely said is aithe safely said is, either that they livod so long in spito of the quality of the foo they ate, or that their instinct call for a particular lsind of food; and tho gratififantion of that instict, instod ond on its perrersion, with a life of steady espect to live long by doing any on thing which an old mand did, and omid all others, but by doing all ho did allo thery, but by doing all he did thant is, work steadily an well as ean mainy a particular dish. $\rightarrow$ Hall's Jour nal of Heatht.
al of Health.
Norfolls, Va., when a whito man, pass ing by, shouldered him insoletty uhe sidewalls, quite into the street;

\section*{| '1 |
| :---: |
| T |
| wen |
| brou |
| coel |
| c |
| T |
| ton |
| ' |}

|  |  |
| :---: | :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

$\left|\begin{array}{l}\text { days , without some symptoms, some } \\ \text { feeling sufticiently disagreable to at. } \\ \text { tract the mind's attention unpleassant. }\end{array}\right|$I of plain food, usually have no spare
flosh, are wiry omplifications of theso statements ar found in the lives of the centenarian of $a$ ma past ngo. Galen, one of tho th the distinguixided phbsicians among the ancients, lived very eparingly after the | reached ạ hundred and cight-five yrs. Jenkins, a poor Yorkshire fistiorman, who lived on the coarsest diet, was one hundred and sixty nine years old when he died. Old Parr lived to a hundred and fifty three; his diet being milk; |

| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

quantity; ; lis son Michach, by imalila means, , lived to bo a hundred and threyans old. Father Cull, a Methodist clergyman diod nt the age of a hund red and five, the main dict of his life

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { consumes himself in the fire of his } \\ & \text { own reflection. } \\
& \text { Mysteries and Miseries of Flshing. } \end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { procected to dig for another. When } \\ & \text { wo had anptured another, we discor- } \\
& \text { ered that number one had equirmed } \\
& \text { around in an insulue. manner and ro- } \end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { "hoping to find the finn tribe in the } \\ & \text { same stato of Lealth." We fished and } \\ & \text { fishos. Thero was nothing but min- } \end{aligned}
$$

$$
\left\lvert\, \begin{aligned} & \text { nows-myriads of nibling minnows. } \\
& \text { They had not, apparenty, tasted food } \\ & \text { for severalsweapares } \end{aligned}\right.
$$

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { In the following brief paragraph in in } \\ & \text { a recent nitboer of to Cleveland Her- } \\ & \text { ald, we find tho equel to the sad sto- } \\
& \text { ry of Catharine Buek: }
\end{aligned}
$$

 buffeting with the waves of the 'raging canavil? wo reaceded tho storo in safety, firmly convinced that Izank Walton, (poacecful soul) was, in his

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { cherishes wrath to keep it warm, and } \\ & \text { consumes rimself in the fire of his } \\ & \text { own reflection. }
\end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { An editor gives tho following "ex- } \\ & \text { perione" in fishing: } \\
& \text { Wo got one worm and laid tho sli- } \\
& \text { my thing down puon tho earth, nud } \\ & \text { proceded to dig for another. When } \end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { on che Athantic and grant Western } \\ & \text { Railroad, near West Grenvile, Pa. } \\
& \text { Sho was sitting on the track and made } \\ & \text { no offort to eseape until it wns to late. } \end{aligned}
$$

$$
\begin{aligned} & \text { trom lowng } \\ & \text { and } \\ & \text { and dean } \end{aligned}
$$

to death by bumblobee's, was prosen.
tod. We closo the former, and atter Walton, (pacaceffl soul,) was, in his palmiest days, to say tho least of them
'haurd up' for amusement. What President Lincoln thinks $\qquad$

| To a Mother. |
| :---: |
| u bave a child on your kneo. Lis |
| en a moment. Do you know what |
| $\cdot$ destined to livo forever ! |
| fined to be happy |
| tho mother! you, who |
| th, the mother of its being. |
| mother of its soul for good |
| is placed in your hands. |
| Il it bo? Tho child may |
| ${ }^{\text {n }}$ pr |
| nkard; you can provent it. It may |
| an athoist; you can pre |
| ischief to others; $y$ |
| It may descend into tho |
| evil |
| fore yon can provent it. Yes, |
| mother, can prevent all |
| nsp-will you or will you not? |
| at the inno |
| you saro |
| it? Will you tonch it, disciplino |
| piray for it? Or will you, in vain arch of pleasure, or ial gaicts; or fa- |
|  |
|  |
| ct tho soul of that |
|  |
|  |
|  |

[^0] [^0]:    ent success.

