Excitement in a Sleeping Car. We visited the Great Fair last week and on Wednesday night, in company with Mr. David Black, we took a double berth in a sleeping car, immediately over the front wheels, to return home.

The Brave Types. It is gratifying to us to know that the three types of Co. G. 5th Reserves, all having been members of the Globe family, have returned home sound of limb and body and in good health.

U. S. Internal Revenue. [We give the following notice by the Deputy Collector, an insertion in our columns, for the information of our readers:] All persons assessed and subject to take out licenses, pay income and other duties and taxes under the Excise Law of Congress approved July 1st, 1862, and amendments within the county of Huntingdon, are hereby notified that the undersigned will attend for the purpose of receiving notices and duties, and granting licenses, on TUESDAY, JULY 5th, at Altoona, ...

Deaths. We are requested to say that neither Col. Orison or his friends approve of the unjust attack upon the delegates of the Union County Convention by the editors of the Journal & American in their last issue.

Shorts. Many wounded soldiers have passed through this place on the Penna. Railroad since the late battles in Virginia. An indication that determined and sanguinary fighting must have taken place. - Coming - the fourth, the day-for spread eagle speeches, but as yet we have heard of no preparations among our orators for the delivery of any. - Bold, stout and tawny - the returned veterans of the Fifth Reserves, and all are having a gay and happy time on the strength of their deliverance from rebel chains and traitor bullets. - The sun last week reached his greatest northern declination or summer solstice, when the days commence to shorten and the nights to lengthen. - Gen. Buell one night last week remained in town preparatory to his departure to Bedford Springs, such distinguished visitors are always welcome to the ancient borough. - The haymakers have commenced in earnest to gather in their crops of the newly mown, sweetly scented hay. - Several cases of pugilism occurred last week between those who "know their rights, and knowing dared maintain them" even at the hazard of black eyes and bloody nose. - A schoolboy on Tuesday last suffered great pain from drinking poisonous ink. Boys should be careful in the use of inks, and not wipe their pens in the mouth as we have often seen. - The public schools of this place closed on Friday last, and they will remain closed until the first Monday in September, the 5th. - Scantler fever has made its appearance in town and several children are down with this loathsome disease. - Summer, it appears, has "now set in in earnest, judging from the exceedingly warm days we have had of late - all that are wanting to make the reality more certain and dreaded are the swarms of nocturnal pests - the mosquitoes. - The garden of Col. Summers is presenting a very lively aspect from the number of live wild animals he is receiving. The obliging Col. is determined to make his garden attractive. - Benj. Jacobs, a town merchant, sold his right, title, etc., to his store on Main street last week to A. B. Cunningham who again sold it to Mr. Shaffer, of Cameron county, and it is again open to the public. - For two weeks past citizens left this place and vicinity daily to see the sights at the Great Central Fair at Philadelphia. This country has been well represented in this Fair, both in the quantity of contributions and the number of visitors. Those who visited Philadelphia and who have returned state that everything connected with the Fair surpasses description, and that it is a decided success. - It is strange, both to strangers and to citizens, to know that this town which counts its inhabitants by thousands can boast of its many saloons, etc., in which to while away idle, dissipating hours, and yet we cannot show a place where the general instruction of our younger citizens is advanced preparatory to the future.

At Home. Surgeon H. K. Neff has been at home for several days. His health has not been good for some months, but we are gratified to learn that since he has been at home he has been gaining strength.

Big Dinner. Mr. John Dean, proprietor of the National House, gave the "boys" of Co. G. 5th Reserves, a fine dinner on Saturday afternoon last. We accepted Mr. Dean's kind invitation to take a seat with the brave Reserves, and we speak by the book when we say the rations placed before the company were extra A No 1 - and we can assure the friends of the brave Reserves that the "charge" was general along the whole line. After a warm contest for an hour, the "boys" gave nine cheers for the soldier's friend, Mr. Dean, and retired from the attack upon the supplies, leaving enough to feed triumphantly as many more. Mr. Dean is truly the soldier's friend, and they know it, and they will not soon forget him.

The Brave Types. It is gratifying to us to know that the three types of Co. G. 5th Reserves, all having been members of the Globe family, have returned home sound of limb and body and in good health, and better than all, with the high praise of their comrades as brave and good soldiers. Their names are Geo. A. Nash, Henry McDonald and Jas. Bauger. We hope they may live long to enjoy the honors they deserve.

REMOVAL! Having the requisite authority I take leave to inform the citizens of Markleysburg at the community at large, that the OFFICE of Adm. Express Company, formerly under the charge of Wm. March has been REMOVED, and is now under my immediate control at the DEPOT, (Markleysburg station). Therefore, any person or persons expecting to forward goods through the aforesaid company, will please be in mind that this is now the only legitimate point at which such business can hereafter be transacted, and where I will receive prompt and careful attention, through my assistance, for the benefit and convenience of all persons receiving and forwarding goods by express. As this is a more convenient point than Markleysburg, being in the heart of Woodcock valley, it has been established, not only for the advantage of the Express Co. but for the peculiar benefit of all concerned, that the above important change in the removal of the office and its agency has been made.

EXECUTORS' SALE. THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE JUNIATA STEAMBOAT COMPANY hold a preliminary meeting at the American House, on the 8th of this month. This corporation was chartered by the Legislature last winter. The Commissioners perfected a preliminary organization of the company for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the stock. It was resolved to open the books for subscriptions to the stock at once. Another meeting of the Board is to be held at Williamsburg on the 5th of July next. The Commissioners are A. M. Lynch, Samuel Dean, John K. Neff, Samuel Iselt, Saml. R. Schmucler, Daniel Houtz and John R. Hunter. From the spirit and determination manifested by those at the head of the Company, we presume that before long the steamboats will be seen plowing the "raging canal" between this place and Petersburg. - Hollidaysburg Standard.
