

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Wednesday morning, July 20, 1864. LOCAL & PERSONAL.

The Crops. The wheat and rye crops in this county, is said to be good, much heavier than was expected three weeks ago. The grass will be light, but still there will be a heavier crop than last year. The oats will be short in straw and crop but the grain will be heavier than last year. The corn is suffering and unless we have rain very soon, the crop will be very light. The local press of the counties of the State, speak very favorably of the crops. Indeed the crops now being gathered, they say, will be much better than last year. Unless there is a heavy foreign demand for wheat, and it does not seem probable, it must soon come down to a much lower price. We would not advise farmers to hold out for high prices, the consumption cannot be greater than at present.

Patrols Young Men. Some forty young men, recruited by T. B. Road, J. A. Willoughby and W. F. Cunningham, for the hundred days service, left this place for Harrisburg on Thursday last; and we understand that the company numbered seventy men on Saturday, some additional men from here and other places having joined with the first squad after it arrived in Camp Curtin. We have no doubt the company will be filled to the required number by 'boys' of the right metal. Better leaders than Read, Willoughby and Cunningham could not be found anywhere, and many of the men in the ranks have been well tried for three years and have not been found wanting. We shall publish a roll of the company in our next. We hear of other companies to leave this county this week.

The 'Boys' Moving. A fine company of hundred days men passed through this place on Thursday night last, for Harrisburg, from Bloody Run and Hopewell, Bedford county. On Friday, a company of young men from the Farmer's High School, also passed east to be mustered in as hundred days men. On almost every train, for six days past, there has been companies or squads, making their way to Camp Curtin, but the response to the Governor's appeal has not been as prompt as it should have been.

830 Bounty. Our County Commissioners met here on Wednesday last, and ordered that a bounty of $20 should be paid every hundred days volunteer from this county.

The Show. The crowd of people in town on Friday last, to see the show, was great. We do not know that we ever saw a larger crowd in town on any former show day. A full regiment of able bodied young men on hand, but they could not be persuaded to volunteer for any other purpose than to see the Elephant. The show was, in our opinion, a poor affair—but it was a show, and everybody must see it, no matter how great the swindle.

Congress. We would advise the friends of the candidates to keep as cool as possible during the hot days and nights yet remaining of July. It is entirely too warm to think of anything else than the war news and ice cold lemonade.

There will be preaching in the Lutheran church in Huntingdon, by the recently elected pastor, on the 24th, inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M. Also near Marklesburg on the 31st inst., at 10 o'clock.

Don't Forget the Soldiers. Those of our readers who have any friends in the army should not forget to write letters and send newspapers to our gallant soldiers. They are always longing to hear news from home and a letter or newspaper—their home newspaper especially—is ever a most welcome visitor. Just now there are hundreds of our brave boys prostrated on beds of pain in the hospitals at Washington, Alexandria, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, to whom the time passes wearily, who would find great solace in their home newspapers.

The Juniata Steamboat Company. An adjourned meeting of the stockholders will be held at the Exchange Hotel, in Huntingdon, on Thursday the 4th day of August next, for the purpose of the taking of stock and fully organizing the company.

As it should be. The city councils of Philadelphia, refuse to pay bounty to recruits under eighteen years of age. The same rule should be adopted in this and all other counties in the State. The Government wants able bodied young men—not boys who can be of but little if any service as soldiers. We have seen many boys in the ranks who could be more usefully employed at home.

It is stated that we shall receive from internal revenue, this year, the sum of three hundred millions of dollars. Can men who read this believe that a country with such resources can be overthrown by a miserable rebellion?

Memorial of Co. 1, 2nd Regt. P. R. V. C. Our request which we made of the Reserves a few weeks ago has been responded to by a member of Co. I, the company recruited at Huntingdon Furnace. We are under many obligations to the gentleman who has thus cheerfully and promptly fulfilled a general requirement. We herewith publish the names of the members of the company and the place where, and when, those who were wounded received their wounds, &c., as they were transmitted to us by the author, who vouches for the correctness of his statement. The names and deeds of the heroes should be held in remembrance by the patriotic masses throughout all time. A memorial of Co. C of the same regiment would also be acceptable.

At a meeting of the members of Co. B. 13th Pa Cavalry, held at camp near City Point, Va., on the 7th of July, 1864, G. McGane, G. Davis and J. Morris, were appointed a committee to prepare and submit resolutions expressive of the sorrow of said company, at the death of their fellow soldier, Sergt. James R. Johnson, and of the pride they feel in the brave manner he met his death. The committee report the following: WHEREAS, It has pleased almighty God to take from our midst, our esteemed friend and fellow soldier, Sergt. James R. Johnson, be it Resolved, That while we bow to this Almighty mandate in reverent submission, we feel deep and sincere sorrow at the loss of so gallant and useful a soldier, so warmly loved and beloved companion. Resolved, That we mourn with the family and friends of the deceased, but glory in the manner of his death. Resolved, That we will cherish the memory, and emulate the gallant conduct and many virtues of our fallen brother. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and that they be published in the HUNTINGDON REGISTER and HUNTINGDON JOURNAL.
