Union Votes Lost.

Thousands of Union votes were lost at the late election because of the impossibility to reach Sherman's and Sheridan's armies in time with the necessary papers and tickets; and the ceaseless service demanded of the men under Grant will also lose to the Union cause many thousands more. The Union party will receive thousands of votes in the army at the Presidential election that it did not receive at the late election, As the army votes the people should vote.

THE HOME VOTE SHORT.—The vote in this county falls short of the vote last year 876 votes. The so-called Demogratic vote falls short 145, and the Union vote 731. Where are the Union voters? If in the army, they Delaware, will yet beheard from-and if at home, they will certainly be at the polls in November. Huntingdon county will do better in November.

importance from either Grant, Sherman or Sheridan, further than that each are closing in steadily on the rebel army. It is evident that the rebels are making every effort to hold out until the Presidential election, in hopes of gaining strength by the election of their friends McClellan and Pendleton. If Lincoln should be re-elected the war will end before three months.

LOYAL men of Huntingdon county, go to work and work in earnest, for our success in November. The opposition say they will carry the county. The Union majority can be run up to 800 on the home vote if every Union voter goes to the polls. See that every vote is out. Treason must be crushed.

and Balsbach are both elected on the home | she gave on Tuosday last, and the invote. The balance of the Union county ticket is also elected on the home vote. The soldiers' vote, if all polled, will give us the usual handsome Union majority.

OUR CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT .- Mr. Barker, the Union candidate, will fall short of an election on the home vote by 196 votes. The army vote will elect him.

OUR SENATORIAL DISTRICT .- Hall and Haines will fall short of an election on the home vote by about 600 votes. The army vote for the six counties may elect them.

M'CLELLAN and Pendleton are the candidates of the party daily denouncing our brave boys as "Lincoln's hirolings." This same party has the impudence to ask our soldiers and their friends whom they thus insult, to vote for their candidates, men who are the be cast solid for Mr. Lincoln, now that attain their object. choice of traitors North and South.

OHIO 85,000 UNION MAJORITY Indiana 20,000 Union Majority! PENNSYLVANIA O. K. FOR LINCOLN & JOHNSON.

A Gain of at Least 20 Union Congressmen in three States.

THE returns are full enough to satisfy us that Pennsylvania will give a handsome majority for Lincoln and Johnson in November. The result in Ohio and Indiana also gives those States to Lincoln and Johnson by verwhelming majorities. There is no room onger to doubt their election, and the sooner the rebs North and South surrender the better it will be for them, their dupes, and the country. The Administration and the war against treason will be sustained by the loyal In all three States there is a handsome gain of Union Congressmen to stand by the Government. Treason must go down.

How the Case Stands.

While we would not encourage the Union men of the country to slacken their exertions to secure the triumphant re election of Mr. Lincoln, we would point out the utter honelessness of the Copperhead cause, and the consequent certainty of an Union triumph. Let us look at the case as it stands at present. The electoral vote of the States entitled to cast their suffrages at the coming election is as follows: | Kentucky, Maine. New Hamp. Indiana, Massachusetts, 12 Connecticut, Rhode Island, Michigan Wisconsin Missouri, New Jersey, Iowa, Minnesota, ennsylvania, Kansas, California West Virginia, 5 Oregon.

The aggregate vote is two hundred and thirty, and one hundred and sixteen votes are necessary for a choice. THE WAR NEWS .- We have nothing of Where will General McClellan obtain result of the late election in Indiana, as to render it at once an appeal and a warning to the people of all the States. Indiana has always been Democratic. of the traitors from the hour the rebellion burst upon the country. In 1860 it had a delegation in Congress which conspirators; since then its public men for McClellan and Pendleton. have done all that they could do to secure the success of the rebellion. Jessee D. Bright, a Senator from Indiana, was expelled from the Senate, after trial and conviction as a traitor. Bright and Dan Voorhees, the traitors spirators of Indiana insisted that they acy just when they pleased, but they the war upon the country. considered that they could do more people of Indiana threw off the yoke of party, and boldly proclaimed their adhesion to the Government. Indiana perfectly understood what she was doing, when her masses repudiated the bogus Democratic leaders. With a wicked conspiracy arming in her midst-with the fact clear before her people, that the bogus Democratic leaders were "playing into the hands" of the rebel chiefs, the masses of Indiana suddenly wheeled into their old stand by the Government, as are the them the right to vote. brave Indianians in the ranks of the

The result in Indiana is worth more than all the speeches or editorials which can be made or written between this and the election. It teaches us that when the people understand fully the objectt and the terms of treason. they never hesitate to repudiate traitors. It is a warning to Pennsylvania, a warning to all the States, to go and do likewise at the November election.
