They ought to know the diabolical intensity and malignity of the spirit with which they are contending. They ought to be instructed into what depths of inhumanity an unjustifiable rebellion-a prothe carth.* slavery mania stimulated to open war -can plunge their former fellow-citizens, how it can unman and brutalize the most chivalric and polished of people. They ought to understand the measure of suffering, worse than wounding, maiming and death, which their noble citizen soldiers are enduring for their sake. They should have deeply wrought into their souls a sense of duty laid upon them, as ministers of justice and of God, bearing not the sword in vain, to crush such iniquities, oaper, we hear of our Government purchasing flour for the rebel prisoners at Fort Delaware, of a quality commanding the price by the thousand barrels of $12.50 per barrel. That will do as a specimen of our mode of treatment of our captured enemies.
