

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

Wednesday morning, May 24, 1865.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Those of our subscribers receiving bills will please give their immediate attention. Our terms are now advance payments—our friends will remember this. Those receiving a paper marked with a † before the name will understand that the time for which they subscribed is up. If they wish the paper continued they will renew their subscription through the mail or otherwise.

Veratchings.—The Millin & Conroy county Railroad is opened from Lewistown to Reedsville, and trains now run regularly. This road is the property of the P. R. R. Company.

We had the pleasure of taking by the hand last week, our gallant soldier friend, Adjutant John Wiloughby, of the 1924 P. V. He looks as well and soldier like as ever.

Oil has been discovered in the farm of David Partner and heirs of Daniel Spiess, two miles from the P. R. R. It bears the qualities of pure petroleum.

We have had an over sufficient supply of rain this season, so much that the grain in certain localities is ripening too readily, and the stalks thereof rendered rank and frail.

An exchange says that to be married by Spurgeon is now "the rage" among the young people of London. In this neck of timber it is the custom to be married by almost any body, but at present there is nothing doing.

Wednesday last was a very hot day, remarkably so for the month of May, the thermometer indicating 85 degrees in the shade. This is more remarkable when it is known the week previous it was cold enough to freeze.

The festoons of mourning that for a month past have draped the residences of our citizens are fast disappearing. The flags can now be fully unfurled in honor of the capture of Jeff Davis, the death of rebellion, and the return of our gallant soldiers.

Now that the war is almost ended, a friend asks, What are "we editors" to do for news? Certainly, exciting war news are "played out," but our only alternative is to bite our nails, disappoint the "devil" crying for more copy, and wait for something to turn up.

The Fifth Annual Sabbath School Convention for the Juniata District will be held in the M. E. Church, Lewistown, June 20, 1865. All interested in the Sabbath School cause are invited to attend. Lewistown will have its share of Conventions in June next, two on the 14th and one on the 20th.

The Hollidaysburg Register of last week says that "the war being about over, the Enrollment Board here is out of work. Commissioner Harr took leave of the office on last Monday week, and Surgeon Rothrock will do the same in the course of a few weeks." Their arduous labors over, they rest content, we suppose.

The Pittsburg Commercial states that traveling mailing cars between that place and Philadelphia will be placed upon the Pennsylvania Central Railroad this week. It has been concluded to place three cars upon the route at present, and as the business enlarges other cars will be added. The arrangement will probably go into effect on Friday.

A large fire occurred in Lewistown on Monday, 15th inst., by which the tannery of John A. and Wm. R. McKee, near the canal, was burnt to the ground. Several houses in the vicinity of the fire were also ignited, but the exertions of the citizens prevented a spread of the flames. The loss of Messrs. McKee & Bro. will probably reach $6000, of which $4000 is covered by insurance. The fire, it is believed, originated from the engine.

We understand that a reward of $50 was offered by a citizen of this place for the petticoat worn by Jeff Davis, when he tried to make his escape, so as to exhibit them. To see the petticoats would be a gratification, but we think to see the reality of Jeff in the petticoats, with his blackfaced heels protruding, and dagger in hand, a la Booth, would be a more ludicrous and gratifying sight. Imagination alone can't do the spectacle justice.

Our New Postmaster.—Mr. John Read, Druggist, has been appointed Post Master at this place. We suppose he will take charge of the office on the first of July, when it will be removed to his drug store. Mr. Read will no doubt, make a good officer. He received his official documents on Friday evening last.

Animals Wanted.—A number of squirrels is wanted at the Garden of E. C. Summers. A reasonable price will be paid for all sent in.

E. C. SUMMERS. Huntingdon, May 24, 1865.

We refer our readers to the advertisement of Prof. Coyle, agent for the sale of Stead & Co's Piano, for this and adjoining counties.

Remember Our Bravos. Now that the rebellion is ended, we have the opportunity to look to the authors of its overthrow, and reward them for their deeds of gallantry by over holding them in remembrance and compensating them in the numerous ways the facilities of our Government afford. While we can honor the living soldiers in this manner, we should not forget those who have fallen on the bloody field, and died in defence of our country's interest. Not only should their names be remembered, but their deeds of bravery more. To do this a praiseworthy act we see in progress in some of the towns in this State which proposes to raise the sum of $5000, or more if necessary, for the purchase of a burial ground in or about the town, and to collect in it the bodies of all the soldiers from the neighborhood who have died or been killed in the Union armies during the war, so far as they can be procured. They will then erect a handsome monument over them with a record thereon of their names and deeds. This is an object to which our citizens would subscribe liberally, and would be a proper channel in which to direct the current of popular esteem and appreciation of the heroic dead. Let some such noble step be taken at once by us; give our people a chance to prove their love for the soldiers, and erect a monument over the honored dead that will be a testimonial of our gratitude for their service in our behalf.

At an informal meeting of a number of young men held in the Court House, at Lewistown, a President, Vice President, Rec. Secretary, Cor. Secretary, Treasurer, and Executive Committee of twelve were selected to compose the monumental association of Millin Co. The object of this association is to erect a monument in the public square at Lewistown, in honor of the heroic dead of Millin county. It is to be permanently organized, and will appoint sub-committees for the townships. Let us not be behind our neighbor in the good work.

Correction. We recently published a statement hinting at the number of musical instruments there were in town. We intimated that the number of pianos would reach about thirty-seven only, and took as our guide to that conclusion the number of scholars taught by a musical Professor in town. We have since received from a reliable source the number of pianos, melodeons, and cabinet organs, gleaned through calculation. Here are the figures: Sixty-one Pianos, eleven Melodeons, and two Cabinet Organs. This makes seventy-four in all, almost twice the number we had imagined. Our figures as to the population of the place were also too high, there only being about 2,000 inhabitants in the "ancient village." Will our Bro. over the way give his calculation in figures? His statement may thereby dwindle considerably.

The Work Progress.—The Hollidaysburg Standard of last week publishes the following item in regard to the launching of the steamboat Etna, to ply between that place and here. We are pleased to see the work having progressed so effectually. "The first vessel of the Juniata Steamboat Company was launched at half past five o'clock last Saturday evening, at the boat yard of Mr. Samuel Sharar, in this place. This boat is beautifully modeled, handsomely and substantially built, and is large enough to accommodate all the travel and freight between this place and Huntingdon, which will ply twice a week, and will be ready to start on the 1st of June. The machinery, a double oscillating engine and screw propeller, was furnished by J. King McLanahan, of the Gayport Iron Works and it is thought will be more than sufficient for the work assigned it. The boat yet requires its boiler, which will be completed and put in place next week, when she will be ready for the trial trip. As we expect to be present on that occasion, we will have more to say about the Etna. The company expect to begin business the first of June at the farthest, but of course due notice will be given of the first regular trip."

An order has been issued by the War Department, placing the 187th and 187th Regiments of Pennsylvania Volunteers at points along the border. One company of the 187th has already arrived at Bedford and encamped above Mr. Samuel Debaugh's grove. This precaution is taken to prevent evil disposed persons from making sudden inroads across the border into this State and Maryland.

The discharged soldiers, paroled prisoners, refugees, and others, are constantly crowding into the large cities for employment. This is a great mistake, if employment is the object. Almost always the supply of labor in the cities is greater than the demand, and, as a consequence, the opportunities for lucrative employment are few. Persons in search of work will usually do better by remaining in the country at this season of the year.

Humorous.—A Chambersburg coal oil speculator recently fell asleep in church, from which he was waked by the Pastor's reading: "Surely there is a vein for the silver and a place for the gold" were they find it." Jumping to his feet he shook his Palm Book at the Minister, crying "I'll take 'A' hundred shares Brisky Run."

Our Correspondence.

AUGUWICK CREEK, May 18, 1865. DEAR GLOBE.—Perhaps it would not be amiss to let your numerous readers know that there is such a place in Huntingdon county as above headed. This delightful stream flows through Auguwick Valley in a northerly direction, on the eastern side of Jack's Mountain, and empties into the Juniata river below Mount Union in this county. The flourishing towns of Mount Union, Shireleysburg, Orbisonia, and Scottsville, are located in this valley. The stage line running from Mount Union to Chambersburg, runs directly through this valley; also a daily mail at our post offices en route from Mt. Union to Chambersburg.

The Almshouse of this county is located at Shireleysburg. We have an abundance of iron ore, limestone, and timber in our valley. There are also very strong indications of stone coal, and Petroleum in our vicinity, (a great inducement to all those who wish to make a fortune.) Our people are a benevolent and kind hearted people; (if any body has any scruples about that, let them come and try them, and we have no doubt they will feel satisfied on that subject.) Our bottom lands are of a good quality and can be made of the best quality in the county. Our grain foretell a rich and abundant harvest. The farmers have nearly all their corn planted.

Fire.—The house and barn of Mr. James Smith, living near Orbisonia, in this county, were consumed by fire on last Tuesday at noon, together with all the grain in the granaries, wagon shed, wagons, thrashing machines, carriage houses and carriage; there was very little saved in the house, and nothing in the barn. Also, a man by the name of Levi Wiers had his two horses and wagon burnt while at feed. The fire originated in the stable by some unknown means, and was conveyed to the house by the current of wind. The loss is supposed to be about three thousand dollars. Mr. Smith is in the army.

Yours, &c., J. B. S. [We thank you, "J. B. S." for your communication, and would be pleased to hear from you again. The Local news of the townships is what we desire, and are always ready to publish communications upon that subject from any section of the county.—Ed GLOBE.]

From the Lower End. The following items of local interest we gather from the Shireleysburg Herald of Thursday last: FIRE.—A destructive fire occurred on the premises of Jas. Smith, (Flasher's old property,) in Cromwell Township, about 11 o'clock on Tuesday, the 16th, while the family were at dinner. A stable adjoining or near the main building was discovered on fire, and so rapid was the progress of the flames that in a few minutes the barn and dwelling-house were a burning mass, giving the family but little time to save anything from the devouring element. Two horses, the property of L. Wierman, that were feeding at the time, were consumed in the flames, together with his harness and wagon. The horse gears, farming implements and utensils, besides other valuables, of Mr. Smith's, were also consumed. So rapid were the flames that but a small portion of his household affairs could be saved. A sad feature attending is, Mr. Smith is absent in the army. The loss to Mr. Smith is quite heavy; also to the Wierman, in losing his horses, &c., before mentioned.

A Run off.—On Monday last the horse of Rev. Mr. Honeycutt, in going from town out the German lane, ran off, being at the time hitched to a buggy. The vehicle was capsize, bruising the Reverend's head and injuring an arm considerably in the fall. The buggy again righting, the horse ran out the lane a short distance, where he was stopped by a neighbor, doing but little more damage to the vehicle than breaking a shaft. We learn that Mr. Honeycutt had so far recovered as to return to his home, at Cassville, on Tuesday. The animal was a young one.

SAD ACCIDENT.—About ten days ago a Mr. Whitehead, an employee in Mr. Hertzler's factory, in Germany Valley, had his right hand caught in the wood-picker, and so badly lacerated, as to make his recovery doubtful. Mr. Whitehead is an aged and poor man, a family dependent upon his support, which make the accident more distressing.

The recent rains have caused the waters to rise in the streams surrounding us, and the Juniata is unusually high for this season of the year. We had severe thunder storms the three past days, and the weather is not yet favorable.

A cow belonging to Mr. Cremer of this place, was killed on the railroad on Sunday last. He had refused seventy dollars for the cow a week previous.

Orders have been issued for a material reduction in the expenses of the Medical Department of the army. No more supplies are to be purchased until present stocks are exhausted. Thus the work of retrenchment goes on.

Northern and Eastern farmers are flocking to Maryland, where land can be purchased at eight dollars an acre.

WALL PAPER RECEIVED. The latest and most fashionable styles of Wall Paper just received at Lewis' Book Store. The stock is extensive, but those who come first will be the sooner suited—having the first choice.

LATEST NEWS.

Our Colored Troops Remember the Massacre at Fort Pillow.

A plot for revenge.—Their designs frustrated.

MEMPHIS, May 19. The influx of paroled prisoners has caused a great excitement among the colored troops here.

A plot to rise and murder every rebel in Memphis in revenge for the Fort Pillow massacre was discovered last night, and the white troops were put on guard during the night. The negroes attempted to come out of the fort, but were resisted by the white troops, and after a sharp skirmish, in which twenty were killed or wounded, were driven back.

Natchez dates to the 16th say Gen. Farrar has just returned from an expedition to Harrisonburg, where he captured the entire rebel garrison. Gen. John B. Smith supercedes Gen. Washburn at Memphis.

The Conspiracy Trials.

As the evidence of the witnesses in the trial of the conspirators of Abraham Lincoln and Secretary Seward is entirely too lengthy for insertion in our columns even should we make a summary, we therefore only state the standing of the different prisoners to the extent of their complicity.

Arnold's direct connection with Booth and his confederates was proven, but the effect of the testimony was favorable to him. There may be more damaging proof introduced against him.

Slaughter seems to be sinking under the weight of his afflictions, and is the only one of the prisoners who appears utterly crushed and helpless, yet next to Arnold his chance of escape from the gallows is the best. He groves paler and physically weaker every hour.

Dr. Madd, as the case progresses comes out prominently, and it would now appear that he was one of the principal actors in the bloody drama. Many circumstances detailed in the testimony show that Atzerot was as fully committed to the assassination of Johnson as Booth was to the murder of Lincoln or Payne to the assault upon Seward.

Jeff Davis's guilt has been partially evidenced by the testimony of Rev. Mr. Ryder, who produced the paper in regard to the burning the shipping and towns of the north, that he had found in the State House at Richmond. This letter we published a few weeks since.

A despatch from Fort Monroe of the 21st, says that Genl Wheeler and staff were removed from the Clyde to the gunboat Manawac which left for Fort Warren. Alexander H Stephens and Postmaster General Reagan were also removed from the Clyde to the gunboat Tuscarora, which left for Fort Delaware, it is presumed.

MARRIED.

On Thursday evening, 18th inst., by Rev. S. H. Reid, Mr. A. P. Decker to Miss Mollie E. Martin, both of Huntingdon.

Just as we supposed. The brave warrior, covered with the glory of recent triumphs, returns to his home and makes new and fairer conquests in the way of a life companion. The couple, one brave, the other fair, (and none but the brave deserve the fair,) will accept our thanks for their remembrance of the printer, and also our best wishes for a life of happiness and increasing prosperity; and may the "greenback" they assiduously employed, return to them "after many days," with a profusion of gold and silver "shiners" following in its train.

On the 21st inst., by J. A. Price, Mr. GEORGE LONG and Miss SARAH LONG, of Bloody Run, Pa.
