

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Those of our subscribers receiving bills will please give them immediate attention. Our terms are now advance payments—our friends will remember this.

Religious services will be held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday morning next.

There has been a change made in the running time of the Penna. Railroad trains: Read schedule.

The citizens of Harrisburg are feasting upon strawberries and cream. We hope that westward the star of luxury will take its way.

Mrs. Lincoln and her two sons passed through on the Central Railroad on Tuesday morning last. They arrived at Chicago on Wednesday morning.

The price of butter, and good butter, too, has now reached a purchasable standard. Last week it sold at 20 cents a pound.

There will be communion service in the Rev. Church on next Sabbath morning. Preparatory services on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and in the evening at 8 o'clock.

Alfred Hildebrand, who has been confined for some time in the rebel prison in Texas has returned home. Al. was hospital steward on board the Clifton at the time of his capture.

Thursday next is the day appointed by the President for thanksgiving. Our citizens will observe it by closing stores and suspending business, and conform to the letter and spirit of the proclamation.

The ministers of the Gospel in this place have each received a letter of request from the society of Good Templars of this place to preach a sermon on the subject of Temperance. It is expected that they will each discourse upon the topic at an early day.

The brick building on Washington street formerly occupied as a warehouse by David Gwin has been refitted for a dwelling house, and will soon be ready for occupancy. Mr. James Glazier has made some fancy, substantial and valuable improvements to his house on Hill street, near Dean's hotel. Other improvements are noticeable in different portions of the town—the way of improved drains, and the removal of unadorned sheds and fences. In a word, the tide of improvement sweeps on.

We observe a pile of lumber lying along the railroad above the canal bridge leading to Portstown, which is evidently being worked in order for a platform, to be erected, perhaps, in that locality for the accommodation of passengers and the storage of freight from the new steamboat that is soon to ply between Hollidaysburg and here.

In a late edition, we noticed that the M. E. Preachers' Association of the Juniata District would meet in Lewis-ton on the 14th of June next. The meeting of this body has since been postponed to the 21st of the same month, on account of the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars being held on the 14th. The M. E. Sunday School Convention will be held on the preceding day, the 20th.

The farmers represent that their grain never looked better, and if the weather continues favorable, they may expect more than an average crop. The grain and grass is remarkably high. Some of the fruit may have been injured by the recent frost, but nevertheless a good supply is expected.

Our merchants and the public generally are invited to read the card from our town clerks in regard to the policy of closing the stores at seven o'clock in the evening. The hour appointed is not too early to allow the clerks to suspend their labors for the day and allow them a few hours' recreation. The clerks need pleasure as much as the mechanic, and it would not be just to withhold it from them. Besides the card, we understand the clerks have drawn up a petition to the same effect for the purpose of having it signed by their employers and the merchants generally.

We learn that on Saturday last the territory known as West Huntingdon or New Town and belonging to the Penna. R. Co. was surveyed, and parceled into lots and offered for sale. Several gentlemen have invested in the enterprise, and we expect to see the really valuable site, now grazed with one dwelling, built and improved upon, until a flourishing and populous district is reared. Dwellings in whatever locality have long been needed here for the accommodation of business men and others, and we hope the scheme will not fall through in its incipient stage. We think the profitability of rearing houses has been long enough experimented upon to prove its entire success.

A Card from Clerks to our Merchants.

HUNTINGDON, PA., May 27, 1865. Messrs. Editors—You noticed in your local columns a few weeks ago, the propriety of merchants closing their stores at seven o'clock in the evening to afford their clerks a few hours' recreation to obviate the injurious to health occasioned by the confinement of the day. We were pleased to see some such reference made concerning us, and can only add it meets with our entire approbation.

Just look at the case as it now presents itself: The stores as a general thing are opened by us at six o'clock, and during the entire day are kept open, with no intermission but that devoted to meals. Not only is our time and services employed during the day, but sometimes we are detained to half past ten, and eleven o'clock. We are thus afforded no time for pleasure, and the monotonous routine of duty is continued day after day and night after night.

We are not the original movers of the system of closing at seven o'clock, but the step we learn is in progress in other places, and in some towns the plan been made a custom, and worked favorably.

We, then, can see no reason why the system should not be introduced here. What business is done after seven o'clock can be done just as well before that hour, for it is only town customers that do purchase. Country dealers and customers seldom remain after dark to purchase articles, but transact their business during the day, and return home before evening. The customers in town who have made it their custom to "go shopping" in the evening could as readily and conveniently habituate themselves to purchasing during the day. Perhaps some would suffer a little inconvenience at the outset; but we think eventually it would tend to their good; at least they could sacrifice a little self-comfort for the great benefit of the many.

We hope to see our employers introducing the wise system immediately, and also the few individuals opposed to the change acquiescing in promoting the welfare of the

MANY CLERKS.

Caution to Fence Thieves. Fence stealing is a peccadillo made almost a custom, especially in winter when fire wood is wanted. Those guilty of the crime, and all others not guilty, will do well to read the following act passed by the last Legislature, which provides: "That if any person or persons, from and after the passage of this act, shall maliciously and wantonly break or throw down any post and rail, or other fence, erected for the enclosure of land, or shall carry away, break or destroy any post or other material of which such fence was built, enclosing any lot or field within this commonwealth, such person or persons, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, one half thereof to be paid to the informer, on conviction of the offender or offenders, the other half to the support of the poor of such county, township, or borough or ward where the offense has been committed, with costs of prosecution, or to undergo an imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the court."

Robbery. On Sabbath morning, between the hours of ten and twelve, while the inmates of the residence of Mr. Adam Fouse, in Hopewell township, were at church a robber sneaked into it and made quite an extensive robbery. He entered the house through a window at the back part by breaking the panes, after which he opened all the doors and windows for the purpose, it surprised, of making a rapid flight. He stole a watch, about $400, a revolver, and bonds to the amount of about $2500, and other valuables. He broke the drawer that contained the money, with a hatchet. The party on returning to their home immediately made search for the miscreant, but succeeded in finding only a few of the papers.

Robbery. The residence of Mrs. Franks in Penn township was entered Saturday night near midnight. There was stolen a good suit of gentleman's clothes, ladies dresses, and other articles to the sum of $150. The inmates were not disturbed by the marauder; nor did they know he was in the house until morning. A search was immediately made, when some of the valuables were discovered in the woods close by, but the robber has not yet been apprehended.

The Place to Get your Money Back. Summers' Garden is in full blast and crowds of people visit it during day and evening. His show is well worth the price it costs to see it. Our friends from the country should call at the Garden and see the sights and get something good to eat and drink. Summers deserves to be well patronized.

Tail Runabout. We received from Mrs. William Hoffman the present of several stalks of rhubarb that measured at least three feet in height and about three inches in circumference. The present, of course, was acceptable, and still more highly prized for its remarkable proportions.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. John G. Hughes, a resident of the borough of Perryville, Juniata county, for some time past employed as brakeman on a freight train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was instantly killed on Tuesday night last, by falling from the train, the wheels severing his head from his body. The accident occurred near Spruce Creek. He leaves a wife and family to mourn his sudden death.—Altoona Tribune.

Mrs. Kate Dean of Juniata township, will please accept our thanks and best wishes for the present of a beautiful boquet.

Major General Sherman made a brief speech last week in response to the compliment of a serenade, in which he expressed the hope, now that the war is virtually over, that his brothers in arms will, with alacrity, resume their former vocations of peaceful times and go to work with energy to make the Union as prosperous as it was before the rebellion, which has been so effectually crushed.

Squirrels Wanted. A number of squirrels is wanted at the Garden of E. C. Summers. A reasonable price will be paid for all sent in.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TO THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to essay wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebel Jeff Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? Our modest, dress reduction will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Devils, the Devil. Can you see in following this example of Angels? They having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of relatives, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to furnish you with such articles of dress as you desire. Give your father, ere, husband, brothers, neighbors and children to visit the same store. They can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing Materials, Hats, Caps, Queens-wares and a general assortment of Groceries, on a reasonable terms as at any House in town. Store on South east corner of the Diamond, Huntingdon, Pa. May 31, 1865. JAS. B. WALLACE.

Two bad cases of Piles cured by Dr. Strickland's Pile Remedy. Mr. Glass of Jamesville, Wisconsin, writes for the benefit of all who suffer with the Piles, that he has been troubled for eight years with an aggravated case of Piles, and his brother was discharged from the army as incurable, (he being quite paralyzed with the Piles.)—Both these distressing cases were cured with one bottle of Dr. Strickland's Pile Remedy. The recommendation of these gentlemen, besides the daily testimonials received by Dr. Strickland, ought to convince those suffering, that the most aggravated chronic cases of Piles are cured by Dr. Strickland's Pile Remedy. It is sold by Druggists everywhere.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES, $230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the 7.30 LOAN. These notes are issued under date of July 1st, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into U. S. 5-20 SIX PER CENT. GOLD BEARING BONDS.

These Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from State County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to One cent per day on a $50 note. Two cents " " " $100 " Ten " " " $500 " 20 " " " $1000 " $1 " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of the Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Series-Thirtieth already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent, instead of 7 3/10ths in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 1st, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirtieth will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold, would be fully equal to those made with seven and three tenths per cent. in currency. This is

THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the

Great Popular Loan of the People

Less than $250,000,000 of the Loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will be subscribed for within sixty days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium; as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan the National Bank, State Bank, and Private Bank, throughout the country, have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

JAY COOKE, Subscription Agent, Philadelphia. Subscriptions will be received by the First National Bank of Huntingdon, First National Bank of Hollidaysburg, First National Bank of Altoona, First National Bank of Bellefonte, First National Bank of Harrisburg. May 21, 1865.
