A Monument in Memory of Huntingdon | "Spring Fever."

A few gentlemen in this place in a reneral conversation started the idea, that as the Nation will take care of the memory of its martyred President and of the officers of high rank who have fallen in the rebellion, so, small communities should not let die the names of the heroes who have fallen in the ranks and in the humbler offices. Why then might not we erect a Monument in this county in memory of the soldiers who have fallen in the war for the Union? It seems to meet with general favor from all, and wherever it has been since mentioned people say they would be glad to have the oppor

This noble object needs no words of commendation from us. Every patriot who has retained the memory of the contest just terminated, will cherish the memory of those connected with the contest who have fought for the perpetuity of the Nation; but more especially will those be honored who died defending the right. We are pleased to see the project brought thus far, as it has been the desire of many to have an opportunity to aid in honoring the departed brave. The opportunity is now presented; let pa-

The question has been agitated, and re-agitated, Are we to have a celebration on the fourth of July, or not? meet to propound the question, and what anniversary of the Declaration of Independence should have been more hallowed than the one approaching? For four years the Fourth has come and gone, and, with the exception of the noise from a few fire crack-

Browning's excelsior cof-

Whilst trying Coffee of all the various brands, Remember "BROWNING EXCELSIOR"—at the head it stands.

True, it's not like others that are 'SOLD SVERY WITHIM.'

A little stretch, we all do know, good goods will easily bear,

(But a stretch like this "sold everywhere" is very ant lo tear.)
Now, I can safely say, without any healtation.
There's none like "BROWNING'S EXCELSION" in this eallightened nation.

Exilied chemists have not found a Coffee from any Store
Resident chemists have not found a Coffee from any Store
Resident as the English of the Coffee Stade.

Nor is there any one, in or out of the Coffee Stade.

Who knows the articles from which "Browning's Recolledge with a Coffee Stade.

If and it is made from bartey, rre, wheat, beaus and pease.

Name a thousand other things—but the right one if year

Name a thousand other things—but the right one if year Name a thousand other things—but the right one if you noted.

But with the Conse men I will not hold contention for the many, many things they may tay—too numerous to mention. Whilst they're engaged in running round from store to to learn the current wholesale price of "Browning's Exsome who know my Coffee gives perfect satisfication, Here formed a plan by which they hope to cause a quick reaction.
The case—its with a few, no doubt 'twill by more—to name their Contro after mine, (Browning of Excellent, Some say their a the only brand that will stand a rendy. Some say theirs the only brand that his beau a ready test.

Now, trya little of them all—nee which you like the beat.

Nor would I now or ever consent to publish more.

Irika some used by "everybedy," "soid everywhere," in "every store." "every store".

A trade like this I do not wish; the orders I could not fill;
The factory all Jersey's land would take—leave not a foot to till. to mi.

By trade is not so yeary large; still I think I have my share.

Dpt, reader, you mey rest assured, this not "SOLD EVERYWHERE."
