Our Flag Forever.

The State authorities are arranging to procure the names of all Pennsylvania soldiers who perished at any or all the rebel prisons, and who were buried at such localities. Wherever the marks correspond with the records of the prison, and there is no doubt of the identity of the remains, the same will be published, and at the proper time transportation will be issued for the removal of the bodies Active efforts will at once be made to gather all the facts of importance in connection with the Pennsylvanians buried at Andersonville. A State agent will be despatched to that locality fully instructed to examine the condition of the graves, secure full particulars concerning their marks, and make such other arrangements as will and as little necessary expense to the TREATMENT OF PRISONERS .- The opinion seems to be gaining ground, that our prisoners in the hands of the rebel authorities were subjected to the inhuman treatment that they experienced, by a deliberate policy. Investigations are in progress which will show whether this opinion is correct or not. If it shall turn out to be incorrect, we shall certainly rejoice, as human nature will be expnerated from one of the most odious imputations ever laid upon it. If, on the other hand, it shall be ascertained that our poor men were slaughtered in thousands by the process of starvation, through wicked design or scarcely less wicked neglect, the fiendish contrivers and agents of such a cruelty should, without exception, pay the forfeit of their miserable lives for the deed. We wish it may turn out otherwise. It is sickening to think of such indescribable arguish and misery of mind and body as our men endured till death relieved them, as deliberately planned and inflicted. Savages never perpetrated such atrocity.

The Secretary of State continues his duties in almost perfect health .-The novel and extraordinary splint was removed from his face by order of his surgeons, and proves to have been a marvellous success; and very few traces are to be seen of the original achis right cheek. Mr. Seward rose on Wednesday morning, dressed himself, that he has entirely recovered the use of his arms, one of which was fearfully maimed when he was thrown from his carriage. For seventy days of three of suffering, Mr. Seward's mind has been engaged in the transachis Department.

CONFESSING THE SINS OF TRAITORS. -The Mobile, Alabama, Tribune, confesses the sins of the South thus: "We have sinned against the progress of the age. No man can deny this; and yet we have done it with provoke the compassion of those we must rely. We are as good as they. We have acted as honorably as they. We have suffered infinitely more than they of the North. A few years' famine and pestilence, with occasional earthquakes, would not have so hurt us as has this four years' war."

At this moment, likely, the steamship Great Eastern is reeling the cable off at the rate of six miles per hour. Every precaution has been adopted to prevent a second failure of the enterprise. The powerful batteries used, so say the electricians, will be able to force from six to eight words through per minute, perhaps more. By agreement with the English Government, the charge for each word is 2s 6d, at which low rate it is apprehended the line will be overwhelmed with work. The idea has, therefore, been suggested to the shareholders to abandon the Government patronage, and make the charge £1 per word, by which change, it is supposed, a million of pounds may be realized yearly, a sum lmost double the entire expense of the line fully completed. A very short time will determine the commercial ef fects to be produced by this instanta neous communication with Europe.
