informs us that the 13th Regt., Penna. Cavalry would march from Raleigh, N. C., for Philadelphia, the 16th July, 1865, to be mustered out of service.-Friends and relatives may expect to see the brave boys at their homes by the first of August next.

-The mules so extensively advertised to be sold here, came at last on Thursday. In the evening quite a number of citizens were in the field inspecting the animals, which they found in tolerably good condition .--The mules sold well, the price averaging about $80. One hundred were sold on Friday, and the remaining one hundred on Saturday. We expect to see mule teams quite numerous hereafter.

-It may not be known that re-frozen ice cream is un wholesome; but such is the fact. In an eastern city many deaths have occurred from eating ice refrozen the next day. While eating, the harmful influence is not felt, and not until it reaches the stomach and is dissolved. Venders of the luxury will make a note of this and have a regard for the welfare of the community.

-It is strange how editors sometimes get muddled in selecting copy for their journals, and many laughable incidents have we read of the strange commingling of facts and data. We have an incident under our notice which though not laughable is yot curious. The Altoona Tribune gives in these words the substance of an accident that occurred in this place to Mr. Henry Snare :

"Henry Lenard, a carpeater, while handy-invert a common flower pot engaged in building an out bouse on over the butter, with some water in the property of Joseph Hanigar, in the dish in which the butter is laid. Hollidaysburg, on Saturday last, fell from the top of the same upon a chisel, which entered the sole of his foot, com ed or not The porousness of the
