

HUNTINGDON, PA. Wednesday morning, July 26, 1865. W. Lewis, Editor and Proprietor. Hugh Lindsay, Associate Editor.

Our Flag Forever.

"I know of no mode in which a loyal citizen may so well demonstrate his devotion to his country as by sustaining the Flag, the Constitution and the Union, under all circumstances, and under every administration."

Union State Convention.

A State Convention will be held at Harrisburg on Thursday, the 17th August, 1865, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of putting in nomination a State Ticket, to be supported by the friends of the Union at the coming October election.

The earnest and zealous labors of a loyal people secured the great victory in 1864, and made the war, which our enemies denounced as a failure, a glorious success in 1865.

Our flag has been maintained—our enemies destroyed—our Government preserved, and peace re-established. Let every friend, who aided in this result, take measures to be represented in the Convention. We must see to it that the fruits of our success are not lost to the Nation.

Business of vast importance will be presented for its consideration, and every district in the State should be represented. By order of the Union State Central Committee.

Meeting of the Union State Central Committee. Agreeable to notice, the members of the Union State Central Committee met in the city of Harrisburg, on Wednesday, July 19, 1865.

Simon Cameron, Chairman, called the Committee to order. A. W. Benedict, Secretary, called the roll, when it appeared that a quorum was present.

The Chairman thereupon stated the object of the meeting of the Committee to be the fixing of a time for the assembling of the Union State Convention. Whereupon, the following resolution was submitted and unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the Chairman of the Union State Central Committee issue a call for the meeting of the Union State Convention, in the city of Harrisburg, on Thursday, August 17, 1865, at 12 o'clock M.

On motion, the Committee adjourned. To our Patrons.—Candidates for Office. It is important to the people that the claims of candidates for office should be known before the election of borough and township delegates in August next.

UNION STATE CONVENTION.—The State Committee have ordered that a Union State Convention be held in Harrisburg on Thursday, August 17, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Auditor General and Surveyor General.

THE MURDER TRIAL.—The trial of Miss Mary Harris for the murder of Mr. A. T. Burroughs, a Government clerk, has ended after a tedious examination of witnesses lasting ten days, and a deliberation of the jury of eight minutes.

U. S. SUBSCRIPTIONS.—The subscriptions to the Seven-Thirty loan week before last exceeded thirty-five millions. But for the fact that even larger weekly subscriptions have been made, this would be regarded as little less than monstrous.

It is represented that in Georgia the freedmen generally, having recovered from their jubilation over the acquisition of their liberty, have settled down to work on the plantations; but many of them have yet to be taught that freedom and idleness are not synonymous.

Rewarding the Soldier.

EDWARDS GLOBE.—The time has come when the deeds of the returned soldier should be recounted, or rather, appreciated; when we, as a people, should praise him for the same, and when we should consider his claims upon our honor and oft-repeated declaration to remember and reward him.

Certainly, there are distinctions to be made as to capacity to fill the important positions at the people's disposal, just as there should have been among civilians. All soldiers would not make good public officers, and we feel confident there are soldiers who are frank enough to admit this fact; but if we were to choose between an honest but ignorant soldier and a corrupt office-seeker, we would most assuredly select the former, no matter how intelligent the latter might be; because we would feel safe that the former would do no harm and a little good, while the other would do no good, and great harm.

On motion the Conference adjourned sine die. GEORGE TAYLOR, Pres. J. J. PATTERSON, Sec'y.

Representative Conference. Agreeably to previous arrangements the conference of this Representative District met in Lewistown on Thursday, July 20th, 1865, and was organized by the election of Wm. Butler as President and John Balsbach as Secretary.

Huntingdon.—Henry S. Wharton, Joseph Johnson, A. C. Hutchison. Mifflin.—Col. Wm. Butler, David Witherow, J. W. Campbell. Juniata.—J. A. Gallagher, William Given, John Balsbach.

On motion the Conference adjourned sine die. WM. BUTLER, Pres. JOHN BALSACH, Sec'y.

A Love Letter. In the trial of Miss Harris, at Washington, for shooting her recent lover, A. J. Burroughs, a Government clerk, an effort is being made to prove her insane, and for this purpose his love letters to her have been read in court to give color to the theory that she was not in her senses.

The Crop Prospects. The Agricultural Bureau has received reports from different parts of the country, which represent that the crops of hay, potatoes, and corn, will be larger than any previous year.

On motion of Mr. Yocum, of Centre, the following resolution was adopted unanimously: Resolved, That this Convention heartily endorse and approve the administration of our President, Andrew Johnson, and of the Governor of our State, Governor A. G. Curtin, and pledge to them our continued confidence and support.

On motion the Conference adjourned sine die. GEORGE TAYLOR, Pres. J. J. PATTERSON, Sec'y.

A Word for a Soldier.

Mr. BRON.—I was much pleased to see the name of Capt. John Livingston announced as a candidate for Auditor General, and your will pardon my old acquaintance for saying a word in favor of his claims.

Captain Livingston though a young man, dependent on his own exertions, has obtained for himself a good education, and established an excellent character, both as a soldier and citizen.

When the war broke out Captain Livingston, though a citizen of this county, was engaged in teaching a Normal School at Schellsburg, Bedford county, and in October 1861, with the assistance of two or three other young men raised a company, of which he was first commissioned 1st Lieutenant, and afterwards Captain.

The company was attached to the 55th Regt. P. V., and ordered to South Carolina, where it remained upwards of two years, taking part in all the operations about Port Royal and Charleston.

In the Spring of '64, the regiment was attached to the army of the James, and fought at Cold Harbor, and in the severe battles south of the James river, and before Petersburg. In one of these battles Captain Livingston was severely wounded in the thigh, and disabled for several months.

When he returned to duty he was found too much disabled for field duty and resigned his commission about January last.

Those who knew him in the army speak in the highest terms of his character as a soldier and a gentleman. Those who know him as a citizen, and have known him from his youth, believe that he would be an ornament to the position which he seeks, and express the hope that he will not be neglected by mere politicians, as often happens in nominating conventions.

OSWEDA TOWNSHIP. July 24, 1865. Farwell Address. The following stirring words were addressed by the Field Officers of the 8th and 5th Regiments to their commands:

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 6, 1865.—Four years ago our thoughts were turned upon War to come. To day our thoughts are upon War passed and Peace to come.

The bloody strife is over and you with many of your fellow soldiers are now to return to your homes.

We part joyfully, for the life we have led as soldiers has been a severe one, and we are glad the task is over, and that henceforth we can enjoy the comforts of peaceful life.

Let us not forget each other. Parting as a band of brothers, let us cling to the memory of those tattered banners, under which we fought together and which, without dishonor, we have just now restored to the authorities.

Let us not forget each other. Parting as a band of brothers, let us cling to the memory of those tattered banners, under which we fought together and which, without dishonor, we have just now restored to the authorities.

Supposed Murderers Arrested. It will be remembered that about six weeks ago a brutal murder was committed in Ebensburg, Cambria county. The victims were popularly supposed to possess a large amount of money, but whether the murderers found any plunder did not appear.

The announcement was received with loud applause, and some of the women cried with joy. Handkerchiefs were waved and hats thrown up.

After Mr. Carrington had concluded his plea, Judge Wylie said to the jury that the law had laid down by the court; feeling satisfied that they understood it, he now submitted the case without further charge.

A PATRIOTIC FAMILY.—We were this morning favored to receive a visit from a brave soldier, named John Pon Radd, of Co. A, Thirtieth Pennsylvania Cavalry, who is here awaiting the arrival of his regiment, to be discharged.

Mr. Pon Radd, is a German, and a son of Henry William Pon Radd, Esq., of Buttzown, Pa. The father is eighty-nine years of age, and has lost nine sons in the war for the Union.

The Commissioner of Pensions has decided that a pension of $25 per month is granted to those having lost both hands or both eyes in the military service of the United States in the line of duty, and $20 per month to those who, under the same conditions, shall have lost both feet; if such parties were entitled to a lower rate of pension under the act of 1862.

Political.—Col. Francis Jordan, of Bedford, is recommended by a correspondence in the Chambersburg Repository, as a candidate for Governor.

The Murder Trial.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The trial of Mary Harris for the killing of A. T. Burroughs, terminated this afternoon, having occupied twelve days. The room was densely crowded with spectators, including many women, long before the court was formally opened.

Mr. Carrington said: "Let them laugh, Judge; they have the right to laugh or cry."

Mr. Carrington, resuming, said: "Very well, I submit; and continuing his remarks, said: 'If the jury acquit this woman on the ground of insanity, they put upon the records of the court a fact that would make them look ridiculous. The scene is laid in Chicago. We find Mary Harris meets Myrta Devin, who keeps a military establishment. Myrta Devin had of an establishment was that?'"

Judge Hughes here called the attention of the court to the misrepresentation of the evidence by the District Attorney.

Judge Wylie informed the District Attorney that he should not retort upon Miss Devin as to the character of the defendant, but that she was nothing in the evidence against the character of the house of Miss Devin, and he would not permit him to make an attack upon the house, though he might comment as much as he pleased on the testimony of those ladies, but he should not assail her house, against which there was no evidence.

Mr. Carrington said, "No man shall say that I was ever seen by a cow. I discharge my duty in the fear of God, and without fear of man."

Judge Wylie said he did not desire to interrupt the District Attorney, and he therefore hoped he would confine himself to the evidence, and within bounds.

Mr. Carrington resumed his plea, and again denounced Miss Devin.

Mr. Bradley rejoined, "No gentleman would use such language."

Mr. Carrington said he would return the insult—the gentleman having used such language against Dr. Burroughs.

The Court ordered Marshal Gooding to stop this quarreling between the lawyers, and informed Mr. Carrington that he was going beyond bounds, in using insulting language towards the lady against whom there was nothing in the evidence.

NEWS SUMMARY.

The State seal of Virginia has been materially altered by the new State Government. The device is the same, but the motto, "Sic Semper Tyrannis," has been expunged, and the words "Liberty and Union" now appear above the Goddess of Liberty trampling upon the prostrate form of Tyranny.

The Philadelphia Ledger is authorized to say that there is not one word of truth in the story that the Government has ordered 80,000 men to Texas. The Government does not propose to add $100,000,000 to the next year's expenses for the pleasure of a "demonstration." The troops in Texas consist of parts of three corps, and number about 20,000 men in all.

A correspondent of the Richmond Bulletin writes that Benjamin Harrison, late Secretary of State of the Confederacy, has reached Paris. Ex-Quartermaster General Myers has also reached that city. When Benjamin parted with Davis he said: "We're both going to the same place." "Tow is that?" asked Davis. "Well, said Benjamin, 'I am going to Europe, and you are going to your rope.'"

Affairs in the interior of Texas are in a terrible condition. Gangs of robbers, known as jayhawkers, go about the country murdering and robbing. Rebels and Union men do to their extinction, and the people look anxiously for the arrival of Federal troops, in the hope that they will be able to restore order. The robber gangs sometimes number two or three hundred.

The New York Tribune's Washington special says the settlement of public lands in connection with the subject of foreign migration is now engaging the attention of the departments. It is confidently believed that the payment of our war debt can be vastly facilitated by a wise and liberal policy being extended to emigrants settling in our public domain, and more particularly on the mining fields of our Western territories.

Gov. Murphy, of Arkansas, reports a deplorable state of affairs in that State. He charges the rebel leaders with permitting their troops to plunder themselves before their surrender, so that they have scattered themselves in every direction, taking arms and ammunition, plundering and robbing without discrimination. There is much destitution in the State.

Mrs. Suratt, Payne, Harrod and Atzrott, are all buried in the jail yard, at the foot of the scaffold on which they were executed. Their graves are plain boards, marked by plain head boards, telling the names of those who would be forgotten. The Government has steadily refused to render the bodies to the friends who apply for them.

The steamer Virginia arrived at Savannah on the 12th, with fencing material, head boards and other lumber to be used in enclosing the prison at Andersonville. All the remains of our murdered prisoners will be decently interred in proper graves, and where identification is possible, the name of each martyr will be legibly marked upon neat head boards. The whole area is to be henceforth consecrated, and when the fencing is up a suitable monument will be erected.

Items about Home. Fair.—The Blair County Agricultural Society are agitating the subject of a fair this fall.

Appointment.—Col. John W. Hicks, of Blair county, has been appointed a Lieutenant Colonel in Hancock's Reserve Corps.

Sudden Death.—Lieut. Calvin B. Selheimer, of Lewistown, died suddenly on the 18th inst., from, it is supposed, an over dose of laudanum.

Provost Marshal.—Capt. A. B. Selheimer, late of Lewistown, has been appointed Provost Marshal of Nashville, Tennessee.

Two more Suspected Murderers Arrested.—On Monday of this week, says the Ebensburg Alleganien, a woman named Daniel Busser and John B. Houser were arrested in Pittsburg by Detective Hague, on the charge of complicity in the Paul Munday murder, and on Tuesday were brought here and committed to jail, to await trial at our approaching Court.
