

To Subscribers.

Those subscribers receiving a paper marked with a † before the name will understand that the time for which they subscribed is up. If they wish the paper continued they will renew their subscription through the mail or otherwise.

To the Union Voters of the County.

Now is the time for the Union voter to subscribe for and circulate the Union papers of his county. The terms of the Globe are 50 cents for three months, $1.00 for six months, $2.00 for a year—in advance. Those who subscribe for the Globe will find it more reading matter than in any other paper published in the county. The friends of the party and of its nominees in every township, should exert their influence to give circulation to Union sentiments. Our books are now open for new subscribers.

Scratchings.

—Thomas Colder's family will please accept our thanks for a fine treat of Washington and Egg plants. —The County Superintendent has started on an examining tour. His appointments are to be seen in the Globe. —The public schools of this borough open on Monday next, September 4. The boys have had a long vacation, and will no doubt resume their studies with earnestness.

—The numerous buildings, we noticed as being in progress some time ago, are still going up. The foundation of the new freight car repair shop in new town has been almost completed, and another house is going up in the same borough.

—A new boot and shoe shop has been opened up across the street from the new Globe office, by Mr. John Westbrook. John could not have opened in a more convenient locality, and the people should give him their patronage.

—Will not our friends throughout the county assist us in keeping up the Local Department of our paper? Events are transpiring every week, in every section of the county, which, if properly described, would be of interest to the public.

—Last week we had a foretaste of winter or the coldest part of autumn. So chilly were the nights that mosquitoes ceased from troubling, and many of them must have frozen to death. The mornings were also cold and fires were necessary to make rooms comfortable.

—We call the attention of the store keepers of the county to the card of Messrs. Eldredge and Brother in another column. Mr. Geo. P. Eldredge of that firm was for many years a teacher in this county. Those of our merchants who go east, for their stock, cannot do better than to give him a call.

—We neglected mentioning that the brass band we some time since referred to, has purchased a full set of instruments. The troupe have made it a practice to practice every evening, and as practice makes perfect, we hope to see them good practitioners before long. Indeed, we expect to see them ready for the Fair. Practice, boys, practice.

—Sergeant Bathurst, our corkleg candidate for Sheriff was in town on Friday last making acquaintances. We are pleased to think that even the Opposition party treat his claims with proper respect. We cannot think it possible that the Opposition will make any opposition to his election.—The same we may say of our arm candidate for Treasurer, Mr. Myton.

—The Stirlingsburg Herald believes "besides Huntingdon, there is no more suitable, accessible and convenient point in the county than Mt. Union," in which to hold the coming Fair, and accordingly calls upon the hotel keepers, store and shop keepers of our sister village to try what can be done. We don't know how much has been subscribed here, but we think not much, and if our eastern friends get to work in earnest they may see the Fair.

—Notice has been given by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to owners of cattle, and other live stock, that in all cases of injury to the property of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, or to persons or property in charge of said company, in consequence of cattle or other live stock obstructing the track, the owner of such live stock will be held responsible for all damages that may ensue. Cows, especially, should soon become acquainted with this item, and learn to save their own lives, and their owners immense costs.

—Young ladies are often asked why they blush so when spoken to about their lovers, but they are seldom able to give a satisfactory answer. Taking pity on their bashfulness, a writer in the American Medical Gazette furnishes the following lucid explanation of the beautiful phenomenon: "The mind communicates with the central ganglion, the latter, by reflex action through the brain and facial nerve, to the organic nerves in the face, with which its branches innervate." The mystery is now perfectly clear.

Huntingdon Local Bounty.

We publish below the correspondence respecting the arrears of bounty to our re-enlisted veterans:

The question of laying a tax will probably be disposed of at the next meeting of councils, on Friday evening, the 1st prox.

HUNTINGDON, Aug. 8, 1865.

GENTLEMEN.—Enclosed you will find papers relating to an application to the Burgess and Town Council, of the borough of Huntingdon, for an appropriation to pay bounties to re-enlisted veterans, who are credited to this borough. I estimate that the number so credited is from 45 to 50; of these 32 have received $20 each, and one $40, the others nothing. At my suggestion it was resolved to ask your opinion as to whether the borough authorities had the legal authority to levy and collect a tax for this purpose under existing laws. Yours very truly, SAMUEL T. BROWN, Chief Burgess.

To Messrs. Scott, Benedict and Dorris.

To the Burgess and Town Council, of the Borough of Huntingdon.

By a communication of S. T. Brown, Esq., Chief Burgess, of August 8, '65, your opinion is asked whether the borough authorities have the legal authority to levy and collect a tax for the purpose of paying to re-enlisted soldiers, who re-enlisted and gave their credit to this borough under the understanding, and with the belief that they should be paid a bounty of $100, a sum sufficient to make their bounty $100 to each, part of them having already been paid $20.

The undersigned has no hesitation in saying that the sixth section of the bounty act of 1864, if not directly, by clear implication, authorizes the payment of a bounty to all who volunteered and were credited to any locality; and if the payment was authorized, surely the power to levy a tax for that purpose was also authorized. Our veterans soldiers re-enlisted, and were credited to our borough, and this was a volunteering within the meaning of the act.

JOHN SCOTT, A. W. BENEDICT, WM. DORRIS.

Huntingdon, Aug. 22, 1865.

—We are requested by a letter from a friend in Alexandria, Va., to announce the marriage of N. A. LEE to Miss VIRGINIA MANSFIELD. Mr. Lee was formerly a resident of Porter twp. this county, and a member of Co. I, 5th Penna. Reserves. Miss Mansfield is a resident of Raleigh, North Carolina, educated at the Irving Female College, Mechanicsburg, Pa. Mr. L. was not worth one hundred dollars at the breaking out of the rebellion; he is today worth his thousands, and is still doing well, at least we think so when he gets a well educated (and we suppose handsome) bride.

—Hardly had the camp meeting at Bloody Run concluded until another commenced at Marklesburg, and is still in progress. We have not learned what success the good people met with, but we hear there were immense crowds at both places. Two excursion trains of six cars each running from here on Sunday morning for Marklesburg were crowded to overflowing. The Shaver's Creek camp meeting comes off on the 15th of September.

—We call the attention of the store keepers of the county to the card of Messrs. Eldredge and Brother in another column. Mr. Geo. P. Eldredge of that firm was for many years a teacher in this county. Those of our merchants who go east, for their stock, cannot do better than to give him a call.

HUNTINGDON, Pa., May 4, 1865. Hon. A. A. BARKER.—Dear Sir:—It appears that Capt. McCahan is now an applicant for the Post Office. The frequent changes of late, from one applicant to another, of the citizens, friends of the several candidates, places all in an unpleasant position towards Capt. McCahan, but nevertheless his claims are just as strong as though he had no opposition. A soldier is always a deserving man, and I know there was no better in the field than Capt. Mc. If he should be appointed I certainly will not complain, as I think his claims far above mine.

Hoping you will use your best judgment in making a selection of the man, I remain yours, truly, Wm. Lewis.

The Journal & American editors would now, since a soldier ticket has been nominated, try to make the people believe that they were, previous to the meeting of the Union Convention, in favor of the nomination of such a ticket. We challenge them to point in a single word in the Journal & Am., previous to the meeting of the Convention, advocating the nomination of a soldier ticket. On the contrary, they did publish, immediately under the editorial head of their paper, an article opposing the nomination of a soldier ticket. The Globe has been outspoken in favor of a soldier ticket, and because we took such a position, the "regulators," hoping to defeat our purpose of aiding the friends of the soldier in having such a ticket put in nomination, united all their forces, and by all manner of means attempted to control the free representatives of the people.—The Convention spoke, and it was in condemnation of the course pursued by the Journal & American. No wonder the editors feel sore. No wonder the mere politician feels that his occupation is gone. In the future we hope the loyal people of the county will have the nerve to act as independent of the "regulators" as they did at the late Convention.

When the war broke out we repudiated the anti-war Democratic organization, and have steadily since advocated the pure principles of the Union party. During this trying time we had to look to the loyal people alone to sustain us—they did not disappoint us, and to day we stand upon a stronger foundation than we ever did. We have not held an office of profit from the Union party since its organization, (neither do we wish or expect to,) but how do we find the editors of the Jour. & Am. cared for in the way of office pay during the past four years?—one held the office of County Treasurer for two years, and the other has been Assistant Revenue Assessor at the sum of $4 per working day for three years. Now we would not complain of our neighbors receiving so liberal a share of party pay, if they were deserving of it. If they would conduct themselves as true friends of the Union party we could feel like helping them to a "fat take" at any time—but their appetite for office and their love for the dollar has made them ingrates and restless disorganizers, unworthy the confidence of Union men.

Is there a Union man in the county who cannot see in the course being pursued by the Journal & American, a determination on the part of the editors to disorganize and defeat the Union party of the county? They must be judged by their actions, not by their professions. On the day of the late Union Convention, before the body had assembled, they gave notice in their columns that the Union party was dissolved, that instead, a Republican Convention would assemble. The Convention did assemble, but it did not carry out the disorganizing notions of the editors of the Journal & Am.—Whenever the Jour. & Am. editors get tired working in and with the Union organization of the county and State, they can leave without asking permission to do so. The cause will be as strong without as with their influence. We advise the Union men to keep an eye upon the disorganizers.

A YEAR AGO, the Jour. & Am. tried to make the people believe that Mr. A. A. Barker was an extraordinary great man. That was when they were fishing after the Post Office. And up to the day the appointment was made, he was the Honorable, the gentlemanly, and was taken through the house by the gentlemanly proprietor, Mr. J. D. Boas, a man who knows how to keep a hotel, and we would advise our friends who may visit the capitol, to stop at the European Hotel and be convinced that no better accommodations can be had in the city.

When in Harrisburg a few days ago, we visited the European Hotel, (Brant's building), on Market street, and were taken through the house by the gentlemanly proprietor, Mr. J. D. Boas, a man who knows how to keep a hotel, and we would advise our friends who may visit the capitol, to stop at the European Hotel and be convinced that no better accommodations can be had in the city.

Important to Soldiers.

The Commissioner of Pensions has decided that in accordance with the Act of Congress, claim agents are prohibited, under severe penalty, from receiving more than ten dollars in all for their services in prosecuting any pension claim, or from receiving any part of such fee in advance, or any percentage of any claim, or of any portion thereof, for pension or bounty. If any claim agent charges more than the fixed rates he should be made to suffer the penalty.

Important to Farmers. Farmers are requested to bring forward all grists and chopping required for the next thirty days, to the Huntingdon Mills, as the mills will stop on the 8th of next month to undergo repairs. "A stith in time saves nine."

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TO THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to wear the beautiful styles now prevalent, or dress less elegantly because the late Mrs. Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? One moment's reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure class. They felt that for a time and to his the admiration of that Prince of Devils, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of angels? Then having made up your mind that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of what the late Mrs. Davis did, you will find that you will be happy all the time to furnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Ugo, your father, husband, brother, neighbor and children to visit the same store. You can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing, Materials, Hats, Caps, Quince, and a general assortment of Groceries, on as reasonable terms as at any house in town. Store on South corner of the Diamond, Huntingdon, Pa., may 31, 1865. FRANCIS H. WALLACE.

THE LUNGS.—The cold and changeable weather tells terribly on those who have weak and diseased lungs. Many are suffering at this time with affections of the throat and lungs. Bronchitis is becoming a very common affliction. Those who are predisposed to Colds, Coughs, Bronchitis, &c., should avoid the night air. There are many preparations recommended for these affections, but there is not a doubt but that Dr. Strickland's Mollifluous Cough Balsam is the best remedy. We have known it to effect cures in the worst cases of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, and primary cases of Consumption.
