What Does it Mean?

A bogus call appears in the last Journal & American for a meeting of the Union County Committee at the Franklin Housein Huntingdon, to-day (Wednesday.) The call has attached to it the names of twenty of the members of the Committee. How many (if any,) of the gentlemen signed the call it is impossible for us to say, but we do know that some of the members whose names are attached to it never signed or authorized their names to be signed to the call. On the day the Journal & American was issued (on Tuesday last) containing the bogus call, and after they had circulated their papers in town and were about finishing working off their edition, at 11 o'clock, the editors of that paper sent to this office for publication the call in manuscript they had published, differing in the day of the meeting from the call as it appeared in their paper. The call they furnished us

I have certainly no objection to a meeting of the Committee whenever the true interests of the party require it, but it is my right as its Chairman to call and fix the time of its meetings. I have good reasons for believing that a meeting at the TIME proposed would not conduce to the best intertherefore request the Committee to Union men, or those professing to be threats and intimidations that were meet at the Franklin House, in Hun- Union men, who will persist in discr. freely uttered by the men who oppostingdon, on Monday, the 25th inst., at 2 o'clock, P. Respectfully yours,
A. H. BAUMAN. We are at a loss to know what the Journal & American editors mean by their disorganizing conduct. They certainly know that their conduct, if it should have any influence with Union men, would result in an injury false when they stated that ANTHONY to the cause and the Union ticket. Is J. BEAVER had written a letter to the it possible they wish to see the ticket | Chairman of the Democratic County or any part of it defeated? If not. then why attempt to disorganize the County Committee? Why attempt to deny the Chairman of the Committee the right to call and fix the time of the meetings of the Committee? Mr. Bauman, Chairman of the Committee, is a live Union man, -a man fully competent and willing to do his whole duty well-and a man who will not permit very few disorganizers to defeat a ticket the people have nominated.

Porter, of Alexaudria, son of John Porter, Esq., received the nomination over Col. R. F. Haslett, for the Assembly. Major Porter has the reputation of having been a good soldier during the war. His platform was right then if the letters he wrote home were his honest sentiments. How he can now be the candidate of the same party he then denounced is a convenient way of changing positions we don't understand. It will be expected of him by the party putting him in nomination, if elected, to support the extreme mensures of the leaders of the party who whole Union army as "Lincoln hirelings," "murderers," &c. For Director of the Poor, John H Lightner, of Shirleysburg, was nominated. This candidate is too well known to make much of a run in the county. He was along with the army as a volunteer, we believe.

For Auditor, W. W. Worthington of West township was nominated. Mr. W. was a soldier, and is considered competent to fill the office.

A long string of resolutions was of fered by R. B. Petrikin, the manager of the whole concern. They were adopted of course. Mr. John Dougherty offered a resolution in opposition to the sentiments of some offered by Bruce, but it received no favor-the radicals were too strong, and Mr. D. was nowhere with his platform.

The Restoration of the South. Arthurens Report of President Johnson Speech to the Southern Delegations.

The following is the full report of ference between a delegation of Southland, of Virginia:

MR. PRESIDENT : The gontlemon accompany me, and whom I have the honor of introducing to you, constitute a number of the most respectable citis zens of nine of the Southern States .-They come, sir, for the purpose of manifesting the sincere respect and regard they entertain for you, and to express their sincere determination to operate with you in whatever shall tend to promote the interests and welfare of our common country, and to say that they are as earnest now and faithful to their allegiance to the Uniduring the war denounced him and the ted States and to the Constitution of the Union as in the past, and that they have great confidence in your wisdom to heal the wounds that have been company since, and finding him there | mended by a sound and judicious poli-That they are assured, in doing this, of your desire and intention to sustain and maintain Southern rights in the union of the United States.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S REPLY. The President was surprised at the imposing appearance of the delegation and was evidently much affected in reply. Every gesture and utterance was full of subdued eloquence. The reply was as follows: GENTLEMEN: I can only say, in reply to the remarks of your chairman, that I am highly gratified to receive the assurances he has given me. They are more than I could have expected under the circumstances. I must say was unprepared to receive so nume. rous a delogation on this occasion; it was unexpected: I had no idea it was to be so large or represent so many When I expressed, as I did, my willingness to see at any time so many of you as chose to do me the honor to call upon me, and stated that I should be gratified at receiving any manifestations of regard you might think proper to make, I was totally unprepared for anything equal to the present demonstration. I am free to say it excites in my mind feelings and emotions that language is totally inad-equate to express. When I look upon my past actions, and recall a period scarcely more than four short years ago, when I stood battling for princi-ples which many of you opposed and thought were wrong, I was battling for the same principles that actuate me to day, and which principles, I thank my God, you have come forward on this occasion to manifest a disposition to support. I say now, as I have said st former occasions, that I on. tertain no personal resentments, enmities or animosities to any living soul south of Mason and Dixon's line, however much he may have differed from I remember how I stood pleading with with their hats in their hands ready to turn their backs on the United States; think now, as I thought then, and endeavored to induce them to believe, to do so. I feel that this Union, though but the creation of a century is to be perpotuated for all time, and that it cannot be destroyed except by the all wise God who created it. In doing so, I know I opposed some of you gentlemen of the South when this doctrine of secession was being urged upon the country, and the declaration of your right to break up the Government and disintegrate the the speeches on the occasion of a con- Union was made. I stand to day, as I ever stood, firmly in the opinion that arners and President Johnson, at the Executive Mansion, on Monday, 11th:

MR. M'FARLAND'S SPEECH.

MR. M'FARLAND'S SPEECH. The delegation was admitted soon against the Government, and the Gov after eleven o'clock, and presented to ernment has triumphed; and the south, the President as follows by Mr. M'Far- true to her ancient instincts of frankness and manly honor, comes forth and expresses her willingness to abide the result of the decision in good faith. While I think that the rebellion has been arrested and subdued, and am happy in the consciousness of a duty well performed, I want not only you, but the people of the world to know that while I dreaded and feared disintegration of the States. 1 am opposed to consolidation or con centration of power here under whatever guise or name; and if the issue is forced upon us, I shall endeavor to pursue the same efforts to disuade from this doctrine of running to extremes; but I say let the same rules be applied Let the Constitution be our guide. Let the preservation of that and the union of the States be our principal aim. Let it be our hope that the Government may be perpetual, and that the principles of the Government, founded is they are on right and justice, may be handed down without spot or blem ish to our posterity. As I have before remarked to you, I am gratified to see so many of you here to-day. It manifests a spirit I am pleased to observe. I know it has been said of me that my asperities are sharp, that I had vindictive feelings to gratify, and that I should not fail to avail myself of the opportunities that would present themcives to gratify such despicable feelings. Gentlemen, if my acts will not speak for me and for thomselves, then any professions) I might now make would be equally useless. But, gentlemen, if I know myself, as I think I do, I know that I am of the Southern people, and I love them, and will do all in my power, to restore them to that state of happiness and prosperity which they enjoyed before the madness of misguided mon, in whom they had reposed their confidence, led them astray to their own undoing. If there is anything that can be done on my part, on correct principles, on the prin inles of the Constitution, to promote these ends, be assured it shall be done. Let me assure you, also, that there is no disposition on the part of the Government to deal harsbly with the Southern people. There may be speeches published from various quarters that may breathe a different spirit. Do not let them trouble or excite you, but believe that it is, as it is, the great object of the Government to make the union of these United States more com plete and perfect than ever, and to maintain it on constitutional principles, if possible, more firmly than it has ever before been. Then why can not we all come up to the work in a proper spirit? In other words, let us has been made and decided; then, as wise men-as men who see right and aro determined to follow it as fathers and brothers, and as men who love their country in this hour of trial and suffering-why cannot we come up and help to settle the questions of the hour and adjust them according to the principles of honor and justice? institution of slavery is gone. The former status of the negro had to be changed, and we, as wise men, must recognize so patent a fact, and adapt ourselves to circumstances as they surround us. [Voices.
