Address to the Union Voters of Huntingdon County.

It has not been customary for the County Committee to issue an address to the voters, especially when the contest did not involve the election of a Governor or President; but innamuch by a resolution of the Union County Committee, at its first regular meeting, and there are some topics of vital interest to the party, in this county, vention or State Committee, it is thought best to make this briefappeal of Mr. Brown at the meeting of the to a party which has never been indif- Mifflin County Convention, and we ferent or lukewarm, when duty or patriotism called it to action.

The war which has so long taxed our energies is happily ended, but we have still dangers to meet and duties to perform. The foe which sought to overthrow our government by fierce and bloody war is now broken, defeated, subdued, but the foe in our own midst which has lost no opportunity to thwart and ridicule every measure calculated to sustain our government and crush the rebellion, is still bold and rampant, or stealthy and cunning, as may best serve the occasion. There has never been a time since the organization of our party, requiring more wisdom and forbearance. Situated as we now are, there are two dangers to be apprehended—first, a lethargy and inertness which seem naturally to follow severe or long continued exertion; and second, dissentions among those who stood shoulder to shoulder when beset by common dangers. Comparatively, there is little for alarm from the first cause. Intelligent men will see the machinations of our enemies, and seeing the danger they will arouse to meet it. On the second head permit us to give a few words of counsel. All history has shown that just in proportion as a party (or even a nation) becomes successful and strong, just in the same proportion is it exposed to disruption from rival interests, and personal ambition. This is the teaching of history, but is the result inevitable? Must we follow a course wnich brings shipwreck and ruin? From history we may learn a double lesson-to emulate the good and shun the evil. "A prudent man forseeth the evil and

This much we have said generally, but we would not even intimate that anything has occurred or exists, which threatens disaster to the Union Party in the pending campaign. On the contrary we believe that no effort of our enemies can overthrow us, and nothing save the coal dealers the trouble of short of absolute madness, on our own "rising," this is the best time togather part, can deprive us of a triumphant victory, in our own county and in the

Our County Convention has met and placed a ticket in nomination. In previous years, county conventions met and ratified nominations which had really been made by a few candidates and politicians beforehand. Delegates came to the county seat so trammelled by promises and pledged to anxious candidates that they were not left free to choose from the best material in the presented to the convention. This year all this was reversed. A ticket like the cream. We should remember, the war, that in all the armies of the tably the government of the United -Mr. Harrison Flenner resigned on | States. This was true, and shall it be mistaken in this; and they will find that as we get farther away from the On Wednesday night last the office nominating convention, and nearer the election, these trifling animosities of the Huntingdon & Broad Top Rail-road in this place was entered through a window by one or more burglars.

SAMUEL T. BROWN, for Committee on Address. A. H. BAUMAN, Chairman of County Committee.

THE UNION CONFERENCE.—The Union Representative Conference of this district met at Lewistown on Tuesday last and nominated for the Legislature, JAMES M. BROWN of Mifflin county and EPHRAIM BAKER of this county. 'Juniata county did not offer a candidate. Rupp, of Philadelphia Mr. Brown is an intelligent farmer, a as such an address was provided for highly respected citizen and very popular. He gave liberally of his means during the war to sustain his country and when Pennsylvania was invaded he left the plow and marched to meet not fully discussed by the State Con. the enemy on the border. We had the pleasure of making the acquaintance can say that we believe he will make an honest, useful and popular Representative. He should, and we feel confident he will, receive the united vote of the Union party of the district. With Baker and Brown we have in jail. a strong team, and all that is necessary for their triumphant success is a full turn out at the ballot box of every Union voter.

Now Firm. Messrs. Samuel E. Honry, Wm. F Johnston and Thos. S. Johnston con stitute the new firm which takes the place of Messrs. Henry & Miller in the mercantile business. Mr. Henry an experienced merchant, and one of the first firm, will, by his experience add greatly to the success of the now established firm; and we are sure that the claims of the other two members—the Messrs. Johnstons-both of whom have just returned from doing conspicuous service for their country, will secure a liberal share of the patronage of ou citizens and the community in general, throughout the county. As soldiers are "trump," now-a-days, with the people of our county, in a political aspect, we are sure they will not confine their rewards to that alone, but will render rewards to whom rewards are due, by bestowing a liberal share of patronage upon the boys in blue, now in business.

S. E. Henry & Co., as the firm is to be called, are fully prepared to supply the greatest demands; and the means they have for renewing their stock are so ample and speedy, that they are enabled to keep on hand continually a large and well assorted stock of the best and cheapest goods.

I was born and reared in Penn township, and am now 32 years of age. Raised a far-mer, I followed that pursuit until the com-mencement of the rebellion, when on the 16th of September, 1861, I enlisted as a private in the company of Capt. J. H. Wintrode in the 53d Regt. P. V., commanded by Col. Brooko. I was engaged in the seven days battles on the Peninsula, at Antigtam, Chancelloreville, Gettysburg, and the intermediate fights, and on the 14th of October, 1863, a few miles from Bristow Station, Vu., I had my right arm nearly shot off, compolling me to bave it amputated close to the shoulder, a few hours afterwards. I was then taken to the hostical in Alexandrian Wassell I was the Machine the control of candidates. The Yeas and Nays were called on the question, with the following result:

Yeas—Campbell, Shenrer, Painter, Woods, Sigler, and McCov.—6. a part of my daty to keep the rolls of the company, I did my writing with my left hand. This is a brief account of my services during the war, and I take pride in referring to my Company and Regimental Officers for my record as a soldier; and as, for character as a sitter I refer to my distribute at home in citizen, I refer to my neighbors at home, irrespective of party.

I am not and never was a politician. I love my country, and am willing to risk my life again in her defence. I claim no honor for what I have done—it was only my duty; but as I am poor, and, having lost my right arm in the service, and unable to earn a livelihood by honest toil, I appeal to the peo-ple, soldiers and citizens, to reward those who have been crippled for life in this great struggle to preserve the Government. The glorious flag, and are ready to do so again will not turn from the appeal of their former comrade in arms. If there is anything on earth that sanctifies friendship and proves our common brotherhood, it is the sufferings, the struggle, and the wounds of war. As the great fight is now over, the rebellion suppressed and peace restured, we should not pressed, and peace restored, we should no forget the brave men who won us the victory

If elected I promise to discharge the duties of the trust with honesty and fidelity; and whether elected or defeated, I shall be none the less true to my country, and her trium-phant flag. ANTHONY J. BEAVER.

Keep it in your Families-Sickness comes when least expected.

I propose to check, and effectually dissipate more ache and pain, and to accomplish more perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fluids in the human system, than can be effected by any other, or all other methods of medical aid in the same space of time.

THIS POPULAR REMEBY is fast coming into use, for the fact that I cure, free of charge, all those complaints whenever there is an opportenity to do so. As soon as it is applied it almost miracultously kills the pain. I do not ask you to buy before you are certain of its efficiency. If you have an acheor pain, it is warranted to do all it purports on the label; otherwise the money will be refunded.

I do not propose to curs every disease—only a class tamed by my directions. My liminent operates on chemical and electric principles, and is, therefore, appliable, othe cure or natural restorative of all organic derangement arising from an impropor circulation of the nerve italiands. and arising from an improper circulation of the nerve ital fluids.

Prof. J. H. McEntyre's INDIAN COMPOUND acts directly on the absorbents, reducing glandular and other swellings in incredible short time, without any possible and an internal and external medicine—composed of roots, herbs and barks, such as our forefathers used—Thore is a bountiful supply on earth to care all complaints if we only know what they were.

This has been a great sindy with the Medical Raculty for many years, to find out the kinds best adapted to the above complaints—how to put them together, and what proportions to use.

PIANOS & MELODIANS FOR SALE NO CABINET ORGANS.

Not a Sole Agent.

DROFESSOR HUGH COYLE of-PROFESSOR HUGH COYLE offers for saie the celebrated PIANOS of STECK & CO., Yew York, which he considers cannot be surpassed in touch or tonability by any instrument in the market.
Notwithstanding Steinway & Co's.
Notwithstanding of creating spans, the Professor can only pronounce them good, for there is an uncertainty in the tone which he will not recommend. As Steck is the only manufacturer that gives a Printed Guarakhter for the durability of his instrument, i have no hesitation in recommending the same.
Prof. Coyle is a judge, from the fact that he has had twenty years experience in teaching music, which of itself fuulifies him to recommend any instrument, but Steck's in particular.
The community can use their discretion in purchasing lustriments, but Professor Coyle foels himself a judge, sun notwithstanding all fictitious advertisements, he would recommend Steck & Co's. in preference to all others.
