A Conductor in Luck.

A Deserted Infant Found in the Cars .--Our friend Harry McAtteer, Passen. ger Conductor on the Penna. railroad, is an extremely fortunate fellow. As he was coming eastward, last Tuesday night, with the Pittsburg and Erie mail train, he was making his ticket collections after leaving Huntingdon, and in his searches for hidden passengers he discovered in one of the saloons a "sweet little darling," about four days old, nicely wrapped in a shawl. The "package" had evidently been left there by its heartless mother. Harry, with the sense of duty that he will undoubtedly feel more sensibly ere long, took the child to his bosom and left it at Mifflin, where he had it properly cared for. The mother of the child got off the train at this place and took the direction of the Shaver's Creek camp meeting, to which place she was followed, but was either lost sight of in the crowd, or escaped further pursuit.

Associate Judge and Auditor.

The Union County Committee met here on Monday in answer to the call of the Chairman, and renominated Anthony J. Beaver for Associate Judge. This second nomination of Mr. Beaver by a large vote, which was immediately made unanimous, should certainly satisfy all Union men that he is worthy their support.

The committee also, by a unanimous vote, placed upon the ticket Lieut. Milton H. Sangree of Walker township Mr. Sangree is well acquainted with the duties of Auditor, having lately served three years in that office. He is an excellent selection.

We have a private word for those gentlemen professing to act with the Union party who are busy sowing the seeds of dissension. If you will not act with the party for its success because you have been deprived the privilege by the people of dictating the ticket you desired to see nominated we advise you to step aside in an open and manly manner and permit the honest voters to lead in the contest against the enemies of the party. The people are always honest and should always lead-we want no better lead-

"Major General Collis concluded the speaking. He made an appeal to the soldiers to enroll their names once more in the great cause of the country, sympathizers with treason, as faithfully with their ballots as they fought trai tors with muskets. It seemed strange to him that it should be deemed necessary to say anything to soldiers on the issues of the day, but he was compelled to caution them. He said:

'You must not be deceived by the head and front of the so called Democratic ticket being dressed in the national uniforms; you must not be dev ceived by the enemy's column of canboots? Didn't he always head his column with a few blue coats? Didn't this wolf in sheep's clothing always approach you as a friend, and then strip you of everything worth carrying away? We are sure they struggle to preserve the Government. The soldiers who fought by my side under our soldiers who fought by my side under our glorious flag, and are ready to do so again will not turn from the appeal of their former comrade in arms. If there is anything on earth that sanctifies friendship and proves our common brotherhood, it is the sufferings, the struggle, and the wounds of war. I propose to check, and effectually dissipate more ache and pain, and to accomplish more perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fluids in the human system, than can be effected by any other, or all other methods or medical aid in the same space of time.

THIS POPULAR REMEDY is fast coming into use, for the fact that I curs, free of charge, all these complaints whenever there is an opportunity to do so. As soon as it is applied it almost miraculously kills the pain. I do not ask you to buy before you are certain of its officiency. If you have an achoor pain, it is warranted to do all it purports on the label; otherwise the money will be refunded.

I do not propose to cure every disease—only a class named by my directions. My liniment operates on chemical and electric principles, and is, therefore, appliable, to the cure or natural restorative of all organic derangement arising from an impropor circulation of the nerve vital fluids. ment arising from an impropor circulation of the nerve vital fluids.

Prof. J. H. McEntyre's INDIAN COMPOUND acts directly of the absorbents, reducing planduler and other swellings in incredible short time, without any possible danger from its use uncer any possible chramastances.

This is an internal and external medicine—composed of roots, herbs and barks, such as our forefathers used—There is a bountiful supply on earth to cure all complaints if we only know what they were.

This has been a great study with the Medical Faculty for many years, to find out the kinds best adapted to the above complaints—how to put them together, and what proportions to use.
