Our town is seriously in need of public as well as private dwellings, and a town Hall would not be either a useless or a non-paying establishment. But we are pleased to communicate to the intelligence that a room well adapted to the purposes of a Reading Room is offered for rent by Mr. James A. Brown. It is situated on the second floor of that gentleman's new and mammoth building, and is finished for immediate occupation. Now that the opportunity offers, and what we suppose, the great barrier to the establishment of a Reading Room has been removed, we live in hope that our young people will consider the subject and agitate it until they come to the conclusion to accept the offer. Older citizens will not refuse their means and influence in advancing the worthy object, but it depends upon the young men to inaugurate the movement. It is to their advantage primarily, and to that of the citizens generally in the end, and of course it will be expected that they will labor for the procurement of every advantage that will tend to improve and prepare them for the future. A young man should never be indifferent to the means established for his benefit, nor should he refuse to cooperate in securing new fields of improvement.

We have agitated this subject again with the hope that it will not be lost to the minds of our many young people. It is presented in a more favorable light than ever before by us, the room being ready for the purpose. If no other objection exists to a Reading Room than that there never was a room to hold it in, we hope the young men will act at once and occupy the room now offered, and if there are any other objections entertained by our citizens we trust they will remove them, knowing that they are merely the offspring of superstition and prejudice.

We would suggest that the young men have a meeting to consult upon the matter and have that meeting at once before the opportunity of having the room is lost.

The Herald of last week comes to us considerably changed in appearance for the better, as is always the case when a new broom is first put to active use. Mr. John Lutz, heretofore editor, is now Associate, and Benjamin Lutz, heretofore Associate, is now Editor and publisher in chief. Both father and son have labored faithfully to establish the Herald upon a firm foundation and we hope they have not been disappointed.

The Herald will in the future be open to conviction, as will be shown by the following paragraph taken from the new editor's address to the public:

"I can lay down no line of policy which I intend to pursue. The future course of THE HERALD will be shaped by future events, as they transpire. It will be the organ of no political party or faction, but will favor or oppose the candidates and measures of either party at its option; taking care that its independence shall not be all on one side."

Stolen Horses Recovered. The horse stolen from Mr. Daniel Kiper on the night of the 24th of December, was sold by the thief to a gentleman in McVoytown, on the 4th. Mr. Adam Rupert, living in the neighborhood, read the advertisement in his Globe and seeing the animal knew her to be the property of Mr. Kiper, and he was informed of the transaction. On Saturday Mr. Kiper went after his animal and she is now again in his stable. The purchaser paid a good price for the animal. He will be more careful hereafter and not buy from a stranger. The thief is still at large and perhaps in the business in some other locality.

Go to Japan. If you want a place for cheap living go to Japan. You can buy a first class house for $30, and live comfortably in it for two cents a day. Servants charge fifty cents a month, and a horse and groom may be had for the same time for one dollar and fifty cents. These figures, it must be admitted, are a little lower than they are here. What a nice little difference there is even in the price of a house, between $30 and $9,950!

Which Would Be Best? It is a question with some whether it would not have been better to have sold the "Family Record" through the book stores instead of solely by agents. We are not prepared to say which plan is preferable, but either will do, for everybody will buy one no matter who sells them. Mr. A. Harrison is agent for the above, in this county.

A New Railroad Project.

We clip the following paragraphs from a communication sent to the U. S. Railroad and Mining Register. It refers to a project for an iron and coal railroad, calling it the Dauphin and Bedford R.R., which, as the writer says, "would, on its completion command a mineral traffic of a million of tons the first year to begin with."

He lays down the following as the route of the proposed railroad:

"Starting from a point on the Lebanon Valley Railroad, and passing on the south side of Harrisburg to an eligible site for a railroad bridge across the Susquehanna; thence up the Yellow Breaches creek, through and near a series of iron ore deposits opened at intervals along the foot of the South Mountain; thence across the route of the Cumberland Valley Railroad in the vicinage of Shippensburg; thence west to the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad, on the waters of the Bloody Run; and thence on, via Bedford, to a connection with the Pittsburg and Conneville Railroad on Wills creek, twelve miles from Cumberland."

Speaking of its importance in developing the Broad Top coal region he says:

"With this road built, the Broad Top coal region would mine and forward to market a half million tons of coal and more, per year, whilst large quantities of Somerset coal would be received on the new road, at its Wills creek connection with the Pittsburg and Conneville Railroad."

His further remarks:

"The Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad, 44 miles long, is now open and in operation, from Huntingdon to the Juniata at Mount Dallas, on Bloody Run, 6 miles from Bedford; in addition to the main road the company own three branches, (one of which is nine miles long) leading to the coal mines. Over two millions of dollars are invested in the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad, and about twenty-five collieries have been opened in the Broad Top coal field; so that altogether, Broad Top is the scene of vast investment in railroad, mining plant and mineral land."

"The Dauphin and Bedford Railroad would enhance the interests in the Broad Top coal field in amount equal to the whole cost of a new road from Harrisburg, via Yellow Breaches creek, to the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad. It would save to the Broad Top colliery operators a dollar a ton in cost of forwarding coal to market, which saving alone would more than pay the interest on the whole cost of the new road; and if we add what it would enhance Broad Top coal lands and Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad shares, we see the whole cost of the road represented in the increased value imparted to existing investments in the Broad Top district."

The editor of the Register in commenting on the project says:

"In the first place, it proposes to occupy the best unoccupied railroad ground in Pennsylvania at this day, provided that it be built all the way through from the Lebanon Valley R.R. to the Pittsburg and Conneville R.R. or Cumberland; and that it be operated under lease by the Philadelphia and Reading R.R. Co., which is in position and in condition to accommodate the Broad Top coal trade, and also the Somerset coal trade; and also to form a combination line to Pittsburg, via Conneville; and also to form a combination line, via Cumberland, to Wheeling on the Ohio river, and to Parkersburg on the Ohio river. And so the Dauphin and Bedford Railroad would be a division in short, direct between Southwestern Pennsylvania and West Virginia in the interior, and the two great cities at tide-water. This consideration is of the first significance and importance, and will bear elaboration and enlargement, in mind open to events in the future."

A New Jail. It is about time our county builds a new jail, or gives the old one a complete repair. It is no longer a place where bad men can be detained for trial or punishment. All prisoners now in jail are in irons, and all new boarders will meet with a like reception. It is hard usage but it is necessary, to make sure their attendance at Court. We hope the Grand Jury now in session will visit the jail and make a report to the Court and people of the county.

The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Huntingdon Co. Agricultural Society Monday evening—Grassius Miller, President; R. McDivitt, John M. Bailey, Recording Secretaries; G. M. Spear, Corresponding Secretary; R. G. Jackson, Treasurer; Theo. H. Cremer, Librarian. The Society decided to hold a fair some time between the 25th of September and the 10th of October, 1866, and a committee of three appointed to select and prepare suitable grounds.

A Visit to Washington. John B. Shenckelt writes us an interesting account of his visit to Washington. It is rather lengthy, but we will try to publish it next week. It will be a map for others of our citizens of the county, who expect to visit Washington, to go by. Mr. Shenckelt and lady saw the sights and got the worth of their money invested.

Fish Convention. At a meeting of a number of the citizens of the county at the Court House on Monday evening last, the following persons were appointed delegates to the Fish Convention to assemble at Harrisburg to-day, Wednesday:—A. W. Benedict, E. Baker, D. Dann, Henry Noff and W. Lewis, with power to appoint additional members.

On Tuesday morning last, when the second fast freight train was on this side of Barree station, an axle broke, throwing thirty cars off the track. A brakeman had his ankle sprained.

The Chambersburg Repository

entered on its seventy third year, with its last issue, much improved and enlarged. It has always been a fearless advocate of justice and the right, and unquestionably one of the ablest journals in the country. We always hail the arrival of this journal, and we trust it will live three-score years and thirteen more.

Book Auction. There will be an auction of Books, Stationery, & Miscellaneous articles at the Book Store of Simpson, Armitage & Co., on Tuesday evening, Jan. 9th next, at 6 o'clock. All should avail themselves of this rare opportunity to secure good reading matter &c.

Term Expired. The term of David Black, County Treasurer, expired with the last day of the old year. T. W. Myton, elect, has reported, and taken charge of the office. Mr. Black made a most excellent officer, and we predict that the public will have no reason to complain of Mr. Myton.

The Bedford Inquirer states that a special court will be held by Hon. George Taylor, President Judge of the Huntingdon district, on the third Monday of February next, for the trial of causes in which Judge King was concerned as counsel.

The heavy sums received for brick and stone houses is inducing others to auction off and become thousands heirs. We understand the brick house on the corner of Hill and Montgomery streets, will shortly come under the hammer.

A company is organizing in Barree township, to bore for oil on Stouvo Creek. Some persons are tickled with the idea. One of the party interested says all that is wanted is a hole deep enough and oil will come. We hope so.

Our young friend Will, who has been operating in a useful channel of the business life for some years past, has eventually concluded to bid adieu to the sphere of single blessedness, and taken to himself a fair companion for life. We hope Will and his lady will C. a long and happy march together in their present relation in life, and after the present in the eternal realms of bliss.

DIED. MARY JANE, daughter of Abraham and Harriet E. Corbin, Nov. 19th, '65, aged 2 years, 11 months, and 12 days.

Weep not for Mary! She was fair and true, Engaged to dwell in this quiet-landed earth. The sinners glory and the golden air Of Zion seem to claim her from her birth: A spirit wandered from its native zone, Which, soon discovering, took her for its own.

Weep not for Mary! She's an angel now, And treads the empyrean floors of Paradise, All darkness wiped away from her radiant brow, Her sorrow, suffering, banished from her eyes; Victories over death, to her appear, And from earth's low defilements keep her back; So when a few sweet evening hours have flown, She'll meet those on Heaven's gate, and bear thee on.

Weep not for Mary! There's no cause for we; But rather note the spirit that she walks Untroubled o'er the thorny path below, And from earth's low defilements keep her back; So when a few sweet evening hours have flown, She'll meet those on Heaven's gate, and bear thee on.

At her residence, near McConnells-town, December 26th, ELIZA, wife of Benjamin Heifner, aged 45 yrs, 7 mos. Our departed friend we mourn, for she was a worthy woman. Early in life she became a member of the Ger. Ref. Church, and always adorned her Christian profession by a consistent life, and a regular attention to her duties. As a neighbor and friend she was highly esteemed, for she was always kind and ready to help. And a wife and mother she was not surpassed for the tenderness and interest she ever showed towards those of her household, whom she loved so much. How she is mourned by these! Her husband fondly cherishes her memory, and deeply laments her loss. Her beloved children weep over her grave, and sorrowfully exclaim, "O! our dear mother!" But,

Awful a way our thoughts do rise For a happy and glorious life: On Jesus' breast, dear mother, rest, And be forever blest.

Shaw & Clark's Sewing Machine.

We have received one of Shaw & Clark's beautiful sewing machines, and it has been tried by an experienced seamstress and pronounced a first rate article.
