Advertisements.
—A full attendance is requested at the meeting of Standing Stone Lodge, I. O. G. T. Very important business.
—Messrs. Barker, Hall, Haines and Baker will please accept thanks for public donations.
—Rev. Mr. Speer, of Altoona, will preach in St. John's Episcopal Church, this place, on next Sabbath.
—Messrs. Hunter & Swoope have in progress the completion of a grist mill at Petersburg, this county.
—Question of the times—Are you broad or narrow gauge? That is, Are you for the Atlantic & Great Western Railway or the Penna. Central?
—We have another communication, from Broad Top city, recommending Hon. John Scott for the next Governor.
—The 135th Regiment, P. V., will soon be mustered out. It is one of the last to be discharged. Our townsman John Willoughby is Adjutant.
—“At Home.” We are prepared to print in good style, wedding cards of invitation. They are very fashionable.
—“At Home” is the order of the day.
—A successful protracted meeting is now in progress at Wesley Chapel, Manor Hill circuit. A number of penitents are found at the altar nightly.
—Miscellaneous.—The editor of the Shireysburg Herald and others, with the Latin phrases made use of by “certain Huntingdon editors” to express their ideas.
—K. Allen Lovell, Esq., of this town, has been appointed District Attorney, in lieu of James D. Campbell, Esq., resigned. A good appointment. Mr. L. is a worthy and competent man.
—The runaway Snyder and Wilson were brought from the Harrisburg jail on Saturday evening last and incarcerated in the Huntingdon prison. Sam Dearmit remains at Harrisburg.
—Several valuable town properties will be sold at public sale on Thursday 25th: Rev. Reid's residence, Nich. C. Decker's residence, and the Dean Hotel property.
—We publish the full proceedings of the first week of Court. The individuals sentenced to the Western Penitentiary were taken to their new abode by the Sheriff last week.
—We are sorry to state that the effort to institute a Reading Room and Library in Huntingdon has proved unsuccessful, for want of sufficient interest and still more liberality by our citizens. Good by, Reading Room!
—Miss Susannah Evans, the Welsh orator, will lecture to day (Wednesday) at the White Church near Broad Top city. Her subject, which is said to be well handled, is, “The Soldier's Empty Sleeve.”
—The frame dwelling on Washington street, near the corner of Montgomery street, and the property of Thos. Barchinelli, Esq., sold on Saturday last for the sum of $2,650. H. T. Wharton was the purchaser.
—The Shireysburg Herald mentions that Judge Long of that place has dug thirty four feet in a bank of clay. The editor avails “developments.” Of what? We think it would make a first rate field for a brick yard.
—The First Anniversary of the McLean Lodge No. 88, I. O. G. T., M. A. V. J. Port, to be held Jan. 27th, will be largely attended by the citizens of Barre township and West township. Mr. Dewiler, the State Lecturer, will remain in that locality several days.
—The fact that two of the liquor vendors of this place are now undergoing imprisonment for violation of the law by selling liquor to minors and selling liquor without license, should prove a warning to all other offenders.
—We are pleased to note that the law in such cases will be vindicated.
—It is surmised by some, perhaps competent of judging because they are so deeply interested, that a branch road of the Atlantic & Great Western Railway will be in operation from Spruce Creek, this county, to Lewisburg, Union county, before the close of next fall.
—A discussion was recently held at the Teachers' Institute in Shireysburg upon the subject: Resolved, That the County Superintendent is a lumbar. We suppose no reflections were cast against the present Superintendent, who was there, fortunately, to take part in the discussion. The wording of the question might be misconstrued into an insinuation.
—It is strange that editors find so much to note in the fashions of the ladies, especially concerning their cap appearance. They must have felt a few observations. The following is the latest information: “The last new thing in bonnets is described by a letter writer as a ‘brown velvet dice-box with a little shade over the forehead, and what at restaurants they would call a ‘portion’ of woodcock stuck on top.”

Court Proceedings.
The following are the proceedings of the first week of January court:
Commonwealth vs Thomas Jones, John O'Donnell and Hugh McKiernan. Indictment rape. True bill. Continued from November term. Thomas Jones found guilty, and Hugh McKiernan, not guilty. John O'Donnell did not appear. Thomas Jones sentenced to pay a fine of $5, and to undergo an imprisonment in separate and solitary confinement at labor in the Western Penitentiary for the period of eight years and three months.
Com. vs Thomas Jones. Indictment escape. True bill. Defendant pleaded guilty. Sentenced to one year's imprisonment in Western Penitentiary, to take effect at the expiration of the sentence in the above case.
Com. vs James G. Allison. Indictment fornication and bastardy. True bill. Continued from November sessions. Guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $5; and that he pay $25 lying-in expenses, and that he pay to prosecutrix 75 cts. per week for two years from the 7th of August, 1885; 62 cts per week for two years thereafter and 50 cents per week for the next ensuing three years, if the child so long live; and that he enter into recognizance with at least one good security in the sum of $500, conditioned for compliance with this order and sentence, to indemnify the Directors of the Poor against the child becoming a public charge.
Com. vs John Free. Ind. selling liquor to minors. Being found guilty in November sessions, and sentence deferred, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs; and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for ten days.
Com. vs Same. Indict. keeping a gambling house. True bill. Being found guilty in Nov. sessions, and sentence deferred, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs, and undergo an imprisonment in the county jail for ten days, to take effect after the expiration of sentence in above case.
Com. vs Same. Ind. selling liquor without license. True bill. Having pleaded guilty in Nov. sessions, and sentence deferred, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10.
Com. vs John Danlap. Ind. larceny. True bill. Guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs, and that he undergo an imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary of 2 years and 3 months.
Com. vs Same. Ind. larceny. True bill. Guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $5, and undergo an imprisonment in Western Penitentiary, of one year and three months, to take effect at the expiration of above sentence.
Com. vs John Jackson. Indictment assault and battery. True bill. District Attorney entered a nolle prosequi.
Com. vs Moses Hardy. Indictment larceny. True bill. Plead guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $5, and undergo imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for 1 year and 6 months.
Com. vs Same. Ind. escape. True bill. Defendant pleaded guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $5, and undergo imprisonment in Penitentiary for one year, to take effect at the expiration of sentence in above case.
Com. vs Gratz Palmer. Indictment fornication and bastardy. True bill. Def. pleads guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs, and that he pay $25 lying-in expenses, and that he pay prosecutrix 75 cts. per week for 2 years from 1st January, 1885; 62 cts. per week for two years thereafter, and so on, as in case of James G. Allison.
Com. vs John Wherley. Indict. selling liquor to minors. True bill. After trial had commenced it was discovered that no issue had been formed, and Dist. Attorney enters nolle prosequi.
Com. vs Same. Ind. selling liquor without license. True bill. District Attorney entered a nolle prosequi, for reason as in above case.
Com. vs Miles W. Starr. Indictment fornication and bastardy. True bill. Guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $5, and costs, and that he pay $25 lying-in expenses, and that he pay prosecutrix 75 cts per week for two years from the 4th May, 1884, and so on, as in cases of Allison and Palmer.
Com. vs David Rupert. Assault and battery. True bill. Not guilty, but that he pay one-half the costs, and the county the other half.
Com. vs Lewis Richter. Selling liquor to minors. True bill. Defendant pleads guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $10 and costs, and undergo an imprisonment in jail for ten days.
Com. vs Nelson Stouder, William P. Barry, Samuel Stevens and Tighman Geiser. Ind. riot. True bill. Wm. P. Barry, the only one produced on trial, was found guilty.
Com. vs Same. Indict. 1st count, assault and battery; 2d count, aggravated assault and battery. True bill. Wm. P. Barry, the only one produced for trial, was convicted.
Fire at Marklesburg Station.
The store building with contents, and the ticket and telegraph office on the opposite side of the track, were entirely destroyed by fire on Thursday last. Mr. Cantner who occupied the store, lost everything. The fire originated in the cellar from a hoghead, in which meat was being smoked, taking fire.

Grand Swindle!
A set of unprincipled scoundrels representing themselves to be Bounty and Pension agents, and agents of a so-called National Protective Union, are carrying on a wholesale system of Robbery in the United States.
These Godless scamps send out beautifully engraved tickets accompanied with the necessary circulars, etc., and within a week or two, the recipients of these tickets and circulars, receive a “Catalogue” of fictitious drawings.
Thousands of persons have been induced to risk money in this foremost of all swindling concerns, but have never heard from it, and of course, never will.
Not satisfied with one mode of swindling, these sharpers turn their attention to robbing soldiers, soldiers' widows, and soldiers' orphans.
They state by their cards that they are “Bounty, Claim and Pension Agents,” and “refer by permission to Hon. James H. Colfax, and N. H. H. Howe, of Pension Office, Washington, D. C.”
Having obtained the necessary papers from parties having claims against the government, they procure the money through their emissaries in Washington, thereby robbing soldiers, widows, and orphans of the very means of their existence.
These swindlers and robbers have their headquarters in Connecticut and New Hampshire, some having their letters addressed to Newington Junction, Hartford County, Ct., and others to West Andover, Merrimack County, New Hampshire. Their printed circulars are headed, “Vernon Comp.,” and some of their letters are mailed at Vernon.
Speaks for Itself.
The following letter from Judge Rose of Altoona, to B. M. Greene, in regard to the Piano purchased of him speaks for itself:
ALTOONA, January 20, 1886.
B. M. GREENE, Esq.—Dear Sir—Allow me to express to you my entire satisfaction with the Steinway & Son's Piano, purchased of you last March. As far as I am able to judge it combines all the necessary requisites of a perfect instrument. Quite a number of performers have tried it, and all pronounce Steinway & Son's as UNEQUALLED. I have not the least hesitation in recommending their make as the best, and hope those of my friends who desire a good article may give you a call.
Respectfully,
B. F. ROSE.
These splendid Pianos and also Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organs, can be seen at Mr. Greene's Music Store, Huntingdon, Pa. Mr. Greene is the sole agent for this county, and persons wishing a good instrument should not fail to give him a call, or send for a circular.
Switch 'em Off.
There is a boy down east who is accustomed to go out on a railroad track and initiate the steam whistle so perfectly as to deceive the officer at the station. His last attempt proved eminently successful; the depot master came out and switched him off! Some boys in this neighborhood have attained a higher state of perfection than that of imitating a locomotive whistle, and they can play brakeman as good as the next one, and by a little more forwardness they will become experienced engineers. We would rather recommend a good switching by fathers and railroad men than that the youths should persevere in attempts at perilous leaping on cars while in motion and hair breadth 'scapes.
Thief Caught.
On Thursday morning last, Mr. H. Snare, a carpenter working in Brown's new building, missed a coat from where he had placed it. Making search and not finding it his suspicion rested upon a darky named Dennis Tenley, who was then loafing about the premises. The darkey upon being questioned acknowledged to having hid the coat in the cellar of Brown's building, where they both went. While here the darkey attempted to show his valor, but finding himself snared he made his escape through a window. Mr. Snare and others gave chase to the fast flying Dennis, and after a good run, captured him. He is now in jail. He is suspected of other thefts, and perhaps that is how he lived. We understand his parents live in Philadelphia.
Steamboat.
At a meeting of the stockholders of the Juniata Steamboat Company, at the House of R. W. Martin, in Williamsburg, on last Friday, the following gentlemen were elected directors for the ensuing year: Samuel Iselt, Samuel E. Henry, Samuel Schmucker, P. Vandevender, and A. A. Cobill. The statement of the business done last season shows a considerable balance of profits, notwithstanding the expense and accidents incident to a new enterprise. It was resolved by the directors to at once take subscriptions for additional stock sufficient to build another boat. The second boat will doubtless be running next summer, then with the increased capacity for carrying freight and passengers the company may expect confidently, still larger returns.—Hol. Register.
Concerts.
The North Point Glee Party, of Broad Top, intend giving concerts at McConnellstown, Marklesburg, Stoners town, and Hopewell next week. Their programme is an attractive one, and we have no doubt such a novelty will be well patronized.

Predictions for the Year 1886.
The New Year has hardly been enthroned before a witty “knight of the quill” is making the following sage predictions:
The year 1886 will be a very eventful one to every maiden who gets married.
Throughout the whole course of the year, whenever the moon waxes the nights will grow dark.
Whoever is in love this year will think his mistress an angel. Whoever gets married will find out whether it is true.
He that loses his hair this year will grow bald. He that loses his wife will become a widower. Happy Man!
If a young lady should happen to blush she will look red in the face. If she dreams of a young man three nights in succession, it will be a sign of something. If she dreams of him four times or have the toothache, it is ten to one that she is a long time getting either one of them out of her head. If any one jumps overboard without knowing how to swim, it is two to one he gets drowned.
If any one lends an umbrella, it is ten to one he is obliged to go home in the rain for his pains.
Whoever runs in debt this year will be damned.
Many an old sinner will resolve to turn over a new leaf this year, but the new leaf will turn out blank.
It is probable that if there is no business doing, people will complain of hard times, but it is certain that those who hang themselves will escape starving to death.
He that bites off his own nose, or turns politician, will not like a fool, and this is the most certain of all.
Skating.
For the benefit of beginners, the following suggestions are made:
First. Don't make sudden dashes, for they result in sudden stops.
Secondly. Don't attempt to cut too low figures, for they are invariably followed by low figures, and a loss of perpendicularity and dignity.
Thirdly. Be convinced that backsliding is as objectionable on ice as anywhere else, and ends in misery—to the crown of your head.
Fourthly. Don't spread your legs too wide apart, lest you become a spread eagle.
Fifthly. Keep your legs in a perpendicular position, or they will assume a horizontal position without your permission.
Sixthly. Don't cut fancy stars, lest they end in starchy visions.
Seventhly, and lastly. As you value the respect of your lady love, don't attempt to make a show of yourself, lest you become a flat show.
Death of Samuel D. Young.
Samuel D. Young, for many years connected with the Pennsylvania railroad, and for upwards of six years Superintendent of the Middle Division, died, at his residence, in this city early this morning. However and the event will be to his immediate friends, and those who knew him in a business way, the nature of his disease (an affection of the heart) had rendered his life more than precarious for several years past. Notwithstanding the fact of his indisposition, Mr. Young, while living, manifested great energy of character, showing his force of mind in the efficiency with which he discharged his duties. Unobtrusive in society, and eminently ardent in his profession, as a railroad man, his loss will be severely felt by this community, and his place in the Pennsylvania railroad company will be hard to fill, in all respects, with a man equal to the deceased. He was about 50 years of age.—Harrisburg Telegraph, the 20th.
Give the Printer a Fly.
We have a piece of advice, says an exchange, which we wish to fix firmly and indelibly upon the public mind, and that is, give the printers a fly. Do not forget that it costs something to “put” as well as to advertise, and never sponge upon a printer in any way whatever. It is the printer's ink that makes ninetenths of your fortunes; it takes money to buy ink, type and paper, and yet, after all this, few are the thanks that the printer gets. Give the printers a fly, and give up all expectations of gratuitous puffing, etc., and come down with a remuneration. The great American statesman, Daniel Webster, was right when he remarked, “Small is the sum required to patronize a newspaper; amply rewarded its patron, no matter how humble and unpretending the gazette he takes. It is next to impossible to fill a sheet with printed matter without putting into it something that is worth the subscription price.”
A Cheap Ice House.
Any one who lives near a water course can, at an expense of $10, build an ice house, capable of containing a cube of the crystal luxury, ten feet square. Rough boards for the outer wall, slabs for the inner, with a filling of a foot thick of tan bark or saw dust, a layer of the same thickness upon the top; a lapboard roof, a drain to carry off drippings from the ice, and then pack in the ice close and compact, cover it over with saw dust, and the work is done. Such a store would furnish half a dozen families with hard butter, cold water, frozen custards and all the luxuries of a first class ice cream saloon, for the whole season.
Great Remedies.
Prof. McElyre's Great Remedies—the Indian Compound, the Dandelion Pills, and the Indian Vegetable Worm Destroyer—for sale at Lewis' Book Store, Huntingdon.
Gov. Curtin has arrived at home, with health much improved. His wife suffered from effects of the sea voyage.

Hard Freezing.
To give some idea of the intensity of the freezing on the morning of the 8th inst., we will state a fact, says the editor of the Johnstown Democrat, which came under our own observation. A goose went to the Conemaugh river, just below the bridge leading to Woodvale, on that morning, in search of water, and dropped over the edge of the ice into the open water to drink. While drinking, its tail feathers froze fast to the ice and it could not get away till released by human hands. The steam from the locomotives suddenly froze and fell in showers of snow.
Public Sales, &c.
We are prepared at the “Globe” Job Office, to print all kinds of bills on short notice any day in the week. Orders by mail will receive our prompt attention. Blank notes and stamps always on hand and will be sent through the mail when ordered.
Pure Liberty White Lead. Public notice is invited to this article.—Manufactured only by Ziegler & Smith of Philada. Read adv's in this issue.

MARRIED.
On the 28th ult., by Rev. W. Kirby, Mr. DAVID CAPEHOUR, of Huntingdon county, to Miss LYDIA JONES, of Mifflin county.
On the 9th inst., by Rev. M. Smith, at the residence of the bride's parents, Jas. T. McCLELL, of Huntingdon Co., to Miss MAGGIE A. CAMPBELL, of the vicinity of Waterloo.
On the 1st inst., by Rev. Joseph R. King, Mr. FLETCHER NOBLE, of Fannettsburg, to Miss MAGGIE A. CAMPBELL, of the vicinity of Waterloo.
On the 16th of January, 1886, by the Rev. R. C. Matthews, Mr. JAMES A. WALLACE, of Spring Grove, to Miss BELL, of Monmouth, Illinois.
On the 20th, Dec. '85, by the Rev. John Anderson, at the house of the bride's father, Mr. ALFRED KINYON, to Miss LOUISA COX, both of Barree twp.
Jan. 11th, '86, by the same, Mr. J. Hoover, to Miss ELIZABETH HOOPER, both of Jackson township.
Jan. 16th, by Rev. John A. Dixon, Wm. A. McCORMICK, of Huntingdon, Pa., to Miss VIRGINIA T. GARVIN, of Williamsburg, Pa.

DIED.
Dec. 24th, of Consumption, in Fairfield, Iowa, Miss ELLEN OGDEN, wife of Dr. OGDEN, and daughter of Daniel H. and Isabella Brown, in the 50th year of her age.
Mrs. ESTHER THOMPSON, wife of Jno. Thompson of Mooresville, Jan. 27th 1886, aged 64 years.
Mrs. Thompson was a consistent and devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for more than thirty years. For many years she was the subject of severe affliction; but as long as her strength permitted she was faithful in her attendance upon the worship of God in his sanctuary. Her trust in God was unshaken to the end; she died exclaiming “all is well.”

INK. INK. INK!
NOTICE
To Merchants and Business Men.
THE undersigned having recently been appointed agent for the New York National Ink Company, hereby gives notice to merchants, business men, and to consumers of all classes that he is prepared to supply the market with an article of Ink which is superior to any other in use, is absolutely the cheapest ever offered for sale in this country.
Is neither corrosive to the pen, nor mottles the inkstand, is of a rich bluish tint, flows freely, and is perfectly indelible, giving it advantages not possessed by any other ink, whether of foreign or domestic manufacture. This Ink contains no sediment and will not, therefore, thicken as most inks do, the best drop being as thin and clear as the first.
All orders whether wholesale or retail, will be promptly filled, at lower rates than for cash and will be purchased in the cities or elsewhere. Persons who entertain doubts as to the superior quality and cheapness of this Ink are respectfully entreated to give it a trial. John H. Clark, sub-agent will call on the county for the purpose of introducing this Ink.
