The following resolution was then offered and adopted: RESOLVED, That Hon. John Scott, of Huntingdon is the first, and Gen. J. W. Geary tingon is the first, and Gen. J. W. Geary the second choice of the Union party of Hun-tingdon county for Governor, and the Con-ferees (Senatorial and Representative,) which have been elected by this Convention, as well as our Delegates to the State Convention are instructed accordingly.

The following resolutions were then offered and also adopted: WHEREAS, We believe that the principal foundation of greatness of our highly favored nation is its enterprise and industry, from the adequate protection of which the most successful results are achieved and the highest prosperity attained, therefore RESOLVED, That we accord our hearty co-operation in all proper measures to promote the best interests of the industrial class of our country and the development of our unfath-

the representatives of the people to secure the American markets to American manufactor ries and thus to American labor by such a system of protection as shall most speedily and effectually develope the great and inexhaustible resources of our nation.

The following resolution was also offered and after some discussion, was adopted:

RESOLVED, That the Chairman of this Committee be and is hereby instructed to call a Convention of Delegates from the election districts in this county to meet in Convention first week in April Court, to take into consideration and determine the question of the adoption of the Crawford County system of nominating candidates for office in future, and that the Chairman publish in the county papers with the call for the Convention nanner of making nominations under the

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the column of Wharton & Maguire in the list of new advertisements. This firm has been established almost a year, and their extensive patronage and the desire to increase the same, has induced them ley, of brain fever, aged 3 years, 11 to take advantage of the printer's ink, to the tune of a column, knowing that it worketh wonders, and will amply repay them for the money invested. We commend a perusal of their advertisement, as those in need will find where to get what they want, and, perhaps, those who are in need and don't know it, will see something that will greatly facilitate labor, or save time and expense. They will furnish to order everything in their line, from a needle to a Reaper and Mower combined, and their prices are such as will compare favorably with those of city dealers. Their store is on Railroad Street, convenient to both depots. Give them a call or send in your or

HORRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT-A MAN IN A FLAME OF BURNING OIL.—A terrible accident occurred, on Wednesday evening, near Larimer's Station, on the Pennsylvania railroad, and first of April, to advertise their sales about twenty-one miles this side of in the "Globe," which reaches every lecality in the country. The more these oil train coming east was detained on sales are advertised, the greater will the track while some cars of a forward train were being shifted. The front part of the train was composed of stock cars, next were several open ders and higher prices. An extra bid- trucks containing barrels of oil, and in der from a distance who would see the the rear of these was a "caboose" or advertisement in the paper, would emigrant ear, in which were several drovers, owners of the live stock. While these men were seated around a red-hot stove, a third train come thundering eastward on the same track.

One of the men happened to see the impending danger, and by almost superhuman efforts succeeded in breaking the fastenings of a side of a win escaped from the car as it was struck by the locomotive of the train No. 3 bursted and the oil flew in all directions. Unfortunately, one of the drovers, Mr. Edward Althause, of Reading, clothes dropping from his bedy as he moved,) and by immersing him in the the fire was extinguished. When taken from the stream Mr. Alt bause was entirely naked, and his body found to be burned in a most shocking manner. Singular as it may seem, Mr. A. was still alive when last heard from. He was taken to a hotel near where the accident occurred, and properly cared for.

The man who leaped from the car window just as the collision occurred fell down an embankment a distance of some twenty feet, and sustained severe yet not fatal injuries. Two or three of these men reached this city resterday afternoon with their stock. One named Emory, of Lancaster, was rendered unable to attend to business, and was sent home.

P. S .- Since the above was put in type we learn that Mr. Althause is dead. His remains will be taken to Reading for interment. He was an unmarried man.—Harrisburg Telegraph.
