Broad Top Ahead. We call attention to advertisement of Gleason & Sonsat Barnet. This firm has the reputation of selling immense stocks of Goods, and it is because the goods are sold cheap.

We call attention of country merchants to card of Thos. M. Kerr, Wholesale Grocer, 143 Market street, Phila. This house is one of the best in the city for country retailers and wholesalers to call at and make purchases.

J. Irvin Steel, formerly of this place, has taken charge of the Ashland Advocate, Schuylkill county. The city izens of Ashland will find that Mr. S. is a very clever fellow, and a journalist that will speak boldly for the interests of his party. Pecuniary success to you, Irvin!

Wm. March & Bro. Having removed to town and open. ed a new Dry Goods and Provision Store in Bricker's building, respectfully solicit the patronage of the public. The Messrs. Murch are clever fellows to deal with, and the price of their goods is just such as will make a rush of customers. Give 'em a call.

On Friday night last two thieves entered the smoke house of Mr. James Port, in Portstown, and stole a barrel of flour, some hams, sausage, and other articles enough for two loads for two men. completely clearing the smoke house. Two thieves, named Myers and Nightwine were arrested on Monday morning and lodged in jail. Their residence in West Huntingdon was searched, and some of the stolen goods belonging to Mr. Port were recovered.

More Robberies. Some scamp stole a bag of coffee from one of the freight cars of the H. & B. T. R. R., on Tuesday night last. Finding where the coffee was he bored a hole in the floor of the car into the sack and let the coffee run through .-Another car was entered by pulling the staple off and some boots, shoes, and a lot of dry goods stolen. Samuel Rupert, a farmer, residing in Henderson township, had three cows and one sow, together worth $400, poisoned a week or so ago. The cows died, but it is thought the sow will recover. The poison was discovered in the bran. Mr. R. lost a horse valued was poisoned in the same manner. It been arrested.

Executed. Booser and Houser, convicted of the murder of Polly Paul and Catherine Munday, in Cambria county, were executed in the jail at Ebensburgh on Friday last, at 11 minutes past 12 o'clock. Booser struggled a few minutes, Houser died without a struggle. The bodies were suspended for fortyone minutes. Not more than fifty persons were about the jail at the time of the execution. Previous to the execution, in a letter dated April 9th, 1866, Booser wrote a letter in which he stated that he and Houser had no hand in killing the woman, but that those who did the deed were far away. He also confessed that Houser, in particular did not know anything about it whatever.

Bold Theft. On Tuesday evening last a man entered the store of Mr. John Westbrook, or posite the Bank, and asked for a pound a crackers. Mr. W. at the time was counting his money, part of which how much is due to our returned sol lay upon the counter, which he left to attend to the customer. As soon as he had his back turned the man snatched the money from the counter and run from the store. Mr. Westbrook gave chase, but was met by another man at the door who commenced asking him questions, and pleading innocence before John had accused him and who are willing to give their aid with theft, and otherwise preventing and co-operation in the organization him from catching the theft. Mr. W. thinking the man who stopped him an accomplice immediately had him arrested, and when searched was found to have a bowie knife, a revolver and some morphia.

The man who had escaped was given chase on Thursday evening, and caught near Smithfield, over the river. Mr. Westbrook says it is the same man who stole his money, of which he had considerable. The men suspected. are both strangers, of unprepossessing, suspicious appearance, and during Tuesday had dropped in several stores and inquired for the same article. They are both in jail to await trial.

CONVENTION.

Soldiers' Union Campaign League. MEETING ON THE 28TH INST.

SOLDIERS :- There can no longer be any question as to our citizenship. The at $200, about two month ago, which great privilege of the elective franchise, which our copperhead enemies would have denied us, and which was is supposed that the poison was admin secured for us by the patriotic exeristered by some malicious person, and tions of our Union friends, has been his tracks were discovered a hundred yards of the dwelling; but he has the field. With this truth before us, that our political freedom has been obtained through the defeat of a cowardly faction and armed treason, it is a duty incumbent upon us to employ our right of suffrage on the side of loyalty and justice, and in the interests of our Commonwealth and of the whole country. We should take every occasion that presents itself and should use all the efforts of which we are capable, to make our sentiments publicly known, and believing that a great mass of the people are willing to repose confidence in us, we may feel that a free and full expression of our views will not be without its weight. In Major General Geary the Union party has a candidate whom we, as soldiers, should openly endorse. Relying upon the candor and judgment of the country, we should endeavor to make overy man familiar with his rec ord, and with that of his opponent, who is the representative of all that is vile in copperheadism, and in the comparison of the soldier with his antagonist, each individual can see which way duty and honor point him to go. Our sister states, New Hampshire, Connecticut, and Rhodo Island, have beaten for us a path in which we may easily follow. It may never be known diers for those glorious victories, nor how much more they might have accomplished had they labored together in an association such as we propose to form here. For the furtherance of our object, as indicated above, the undersigned here-by request all soldiers, residents of Huntingdon county, who have been honorably discharged from the service, of a Union Campaign League, to meet with us in Convention, in the Court House at Huntingdon, on Saturday the 28th inst., at 1 o'clock P. M.

MARRIED,

At Huntingdon, on the 17th inst., by Rev. Geo. W. Zahniser, Mr. Joseph M. Fleck, to Miss Martha A. McCartney, both of Henderson twp, Hunt. county,

DIED,

On Tuesday April 17, of consumption, Charles, son of John Cowdan of Norristown, Pa., aged 26 years, 6 mos MARTHA E. CORNPROPST of Cornpropst Mills, Huntingdon Co., Pa., April 9th, 1866, aged 30 years and months.

In the fourteenth year of her age she vas converted to God and joined the M. E. Church. She continued a consistent member of the same until the ime of her death. Her illness was protracted, painful and sometimes disressing. For ten months she suffered neredibly. She was truly tried in the furnace of affliction. But there appeared one with her "like the Son of God" and in Him she trusted and triumphed. During her last moments she requested of friends around her the requested of friends around her the mutual promise of meeting in Heaven. And thus peaceful in death she entered the valley and ascended to the skies.

In youth, life's day was bright, But soon the shining sun Gave place to coming night, Which said, "thy work is down." Thus life has quickly passed, Our Sister is no more; No more! she's only entered rest. On heaven's immortal shore, Instead of friends to comfort now. As while she suffered here, Attendant angels press her brow And God is more than near. And while she lives above, May we so Live below, That through eternal love,

In the village of Mapleton, April 16, 66. Mrs. Wilhelmina Elizabeth Rex consort of Mr. William H. Rex, in the 39th year of her age.

Her highest bliss we know.

Mrs. Rex was a member of the Lutheran Church, and adorned her Christian profession, by a consistent life and conversation. As a neighbor she was kind and obliging. As a wife and mother she illustrated her exemplary picty As she drew near the close of her life, t was consoling to her husband and friends to witness her faith in Christ, and with what a steadfast hope she relied on the "Rock of Ages." As might be expected, with composure of mind and without a struggle, she left this vorld in peace.

"Life's duty done, as sinks the clay, Light from its load the spirit flies; While heaven and earth combine to say, 'How blest the righteous when he dies!" COMMUNICATED.

SPECIAL NOTICE. TO THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so provalent, or dress less ologanity, because the rebel Jeff. Davis, was captured in Fashlonable Female attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sonse to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of Angels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of sebelacts, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to furnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urge your fath, ers, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visit the same store. They can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing Material, Hats, Caps, Queensware and a general assortment of Groceries
