

HUNTINGDON, PA.
Wednesday morning, July 4, 1866.
LOCAL & PERSONAL.

To Subscribers.
Those subscribers receiving a paper marked with a † before the name will understand that the time for which they subscribed is up.

—We print this number of the Globe a day earlier than usual that all hands may enjoy the 4th.

—Don't forget E. W. Thomas, the Celebrated Cornetist, every night at Castilian Garden.

—The whooping-cough is prevalent among the children in this place, but we have heard of none suffering from a very severe attack.

—Many of our neighboring exchanges have determined not to publish any paper this week, on account of the national holiday.

—A rumor is afloat that all free passes on the Penna. Central are to be lifted. What a falling of mouths and pocket money amongst the D. H.'s if the rumor is found to be true!

—To-morrow, Wednesday, is the glorious Fourth. We would advise our citizens to be up and doing if we only know some new appeal to make to awake their patriotism on this occasion. We expect to hear enough, should we not see enough.

—Go and see Harry Leslie in Favorite Parts, at Castilian Garden.

—Excursion tickets on the Pennsylvania Railroad have been issued from the 1st of July up to the 8th. Many of our citizens will take advantage of the reduction of fare to see the grand ceremonies at the flag presentation in Philadelphia on the 4th.

—Go and see the Greatest Combination in the World, at Castilian Garden.

—Base Ball clubs are starting up in every town, of any size, in the State. We notice that our neighboring towns are also getting awake to this subject, and clubs are organizing, thus affording the Social of this place a chance for numerous match games.

—Prof. Stephany, the Celebrated Pianist, at Castilian Garden.

—A man named Michael Boshour, says a Millin paper, observed a large copperhead crawling under a flat stone when he killed it and twenty-five smaller ones. This is snaky. The paper says the man is an old Republican. He ought to be, as his services are indispensable in the coming election to kill Copperhead votes.

—Go see Harry Richmond, the World Renowned Song and Dance man at Castilian Garden.

—We learn, says the Hollidaysburg Register, that on Sunday last a male infant was found in a state of nudity, near the bluff above town. A handkerchief was thrown over it. The child was alive when found, but lived but a short time after having been taken to a house in the neighborhood.

—Capt. Daniel K. Ramey, says the Hollidaysburg Standard, in excavating the cellar of the new Seminary building, had the good luck to strike a vein of excellent fossil iron ore, which readily commands $2 50 and $3 per ton. It is thought a sufficient amount can be taken out to realize some $4,000 or $5,000, which will assist materially in the erection of the building. It was certainly a lucky hit for the stockholders.

—Don't fail to see J. C. Keene, the greatest Jig and Essence Dancer in the World, at Castilian Garden.

—The Methodist Sunday School intend holding its annual picnic at the Cottage Grove on the Fourth. With joyous hearts and plenty of "goodies," we have no doubt the lads and lasses will enjoy themselves hugely. We say give them plenty fun and few or no speeches, and they will like it better. We are speaking for the little ones, who don't like to listen to a dry speech with a winding end.

—Harry Wells, Violinist and general performer at Castilian Garden.

—If this town isn't plagued we don't know what a plague is. A while since we were shocked to see dead cats and dogs lying here and there, but now we have to record that a boar constructor big enough to swallow a lamb is lying (dead, of course), near Muddy Run.—This monster snake (name unknown) belonged to the showmen recently here, and dying, we believe was buried by them, but was unearthed by some curious boys. After snakes, what else to plague us this cholera season?

—Don't forget Billy Chambers, the Champion Banjoist of the World, at Castilian Garden.

—This institution will soon be opened. Mr. Hunter, the proprietor, is a gentleman deserving of patronage, being one who does everything to secure comfort, and impart instruction to his pupils. The Academy is in a flourishing condition and has gained an enviable reputation under his management. See card under new advertisements.

Looming up.
Huntingdon is beginning to cast aside foggyism. We give this for what we believe to be a fact. Our young men were among the first to inaugurate here the new era of Base Ballism, (and older ones now find a fund of enjoyment in this novelty) the Castilian Garden, still kept by that indomitable prince (king, rather,) of varieties, now boasts a set of dancouse, together with a band of musicians of the first class, who discourse music, merriment and excitement to the crowds that nightly attend. The two bands, one brass the other string, still outlive the most sanguine expectations of some of our citizens who thought they would die out in a given time like everything else that is started, and the nightly serenade that salute our ears not only have a pleasing effect but encourage us to believe that they are perfecting permanence as well as excellence.

Our hotels are now boasting a run of city custom, and we are sure our accommodating landlords know how to cater to the wants of the most fastidious. Col. Geisinger, at the Warm Springs, is making his first attempt at "keeping hotel," and, as in everything else, the beginner does his best, so does Mr. G., and his gratified guests fully appreciate his unsparring efforts, and will give the Springs a wider reputation than ever before attained.

Lewis & Co's Family Grocery is another improvement that makes foggyism shake. Our citizens, we have found, like good things just as well as city-zens (or as we do ourselves) and the manner in which the dainties and substantial disappear, is a strong indication that our people will "live while they live."

We need not expatiate on the beautiful and romantic location of Huntingdon, the wide expanse yet unpopulated, the healthiness of the climate, but indeed we cannot tell why Huntingdon should not become a — well, we were going to say "city," but we know an instance where some people got soon for weak-minded persons to vote in favor of it. We are encouraged, however, because we think prospects are looming up in Old Mother Huntingdon, owing to a prevalent spirit of enterprise, and before many centuries revolve, we think it will be a city, with one daily paper, at least. So mote it be.

Croquet.
The spirit of ball playing which now possesses our young men generally, has at last seized the ladies, and we understand arrangements are being made to have a croquet club organized. We are not well enough versed in ball matters to give an idea how this game is played, but we believe it is a popular game in the cities. A ball and peculiar ball is used in the game. It is a ladies' game, and is therefore just the thing to give our ladies good health and a ruddy countenance. The interest which some of the ladies manifest at exhibitions of skill by the young men in base ball, convinces us that they can take more interest in a game of their own. We expect to hear of a game in the course of a week, and if so we would be pleased to give the scorings. We would also like to witness a game in order to give a description of it.

—The Social Base Ball Club of this place has chosen its first and second nines. They are already receiving challenges, and have accepted one from the club in Alexandria, this co., and one from the Kickenapawling, of Johnstown. The Socials are fully able to cope, we venture, with any club that was organized this spring, and it will not be long before old clubs will suffer defeat through the surpassing skill and matchless activity of the Social. We don't think we are making use of any vain flattery, but we wish to be understood to say that the material of the club is good, only requiring some practice to acquire perfection.

The Circus.
We advise our readers, if they wish to save their character and their money, to stay away from this Peter Pink exhibition. Hands on your pocket books! —Journal & American.

Reader, would you believe it? It's true; Robert McDevitt after writing and publishing the above was one of the most conspicuous lookers on in the circus, seated between two ladies. Of course, it didn't cost him any thing, except the risk of losing his character and his pocket book. Hoops he got off without losing either.

—The Journal & American says all Johnson men—all who favor his policy are Copperheads. Stick a pin there.

MARRIED.
On the 21st ult., by Rev. J. A. Price, Mr. LLOYD of Coffey Run, and Miss SARAH HAGEY of Blair county.

On the same day, at the Washington House, by the same, Mr. JAMES MACCOB, and Miss KATE M. SMITH, both of Ononda Twp. Hunt, county.

On the same day, by the same, Mr. W. H. SHARVER, and MOLLIE M. ESTER, both of Huntingdon.

On the 25th ult., at the Exchange Hotel, by the same, Mr. J. T. WESTON, and Miss MARY A. WOODRUM, both of Warrowsmark.

At the same time, and place, by the same, Mr. J. A. MOXO, and Miss ELLEN C. GANOE, both of Warrowsmark.

By A. Johnson, Esq., on Thursday, June 28th, in Huntingdon, Mr. ANN G. FLECK of Mapleton, and Miss ELLEN MOORE of Union twp., both of Huntingdon county.

Soldiers' Meeting.
Minutes of a Meeting of the Boys in Blue of Huntingdon county, held in Huntingdon, Pa., June 29, 1866.

Mr. M. S. Lytle in the chair. Minutes of last stated meeting read and adopted, with the exception of the paragraph relating to the censure of Mr. Gregg.

Mr. Cunningham, Recording Secretary, offered his resignation, which on motion was not accepted.

The following was offered as an interpretation of Section 3, Article 1: Resolved, That so much of section 3d, article 1st, as refers to men who have performed military service, means that those persons who have been in active military service of the U. S. and received an honorable discharge therefrom, (whether or not a resident of this county,) shall upon being proposed and elected by the required number of votes become honorary members of this League.

Resolutions passed at Pittsburg convention were read and adopted.

On motion of Major McCabe, a committee be appointed by the chair to invite Major General Geary to visit the League and notify the officers when he would be present. Committee—Maj. McCabe, George W. Warfel and James E. Wilson.

On motion of Major Neff the name be changed from the Geary Club to "The Boys in Blue of Huntingdon County." The following were elected honorary members: Gens. Grant, Geary, Butler, Meade, Hartranft, Hon. A. G. Curtin, Col. J. A. Wright. President Andrew Johnson was nominated but rejected by the Convention. On motion the nomination closed.

The following resolution, offered by M. G. Davis, after some discussion, was not passed: Resolved, That whilst we hereby declare our intention and willingness to acquiesce in and support all nominations of the Republican Union Convention, we would yet recommend a liberal apportionment of the offices for which the nominations are to be made, among the faithful and war-worn soldiers of the county, and we hereby declare the sentiment of the Soldiers' League of Huntingdon county to be for the soldier for nomination, when the merits of candidates are equal.

On motion of Mr. Gregg the resolution be published in the minutes of the meeting. On motion of Dr. Deyor the explanation of the chairman be inserted and published also. The Chair informed the League that the resolution was similar to one already passed and as the charge had been made that what we did at one meeting was repeated at the next, and if the resolution were passed it would look as if we were doing the same thing all the time, and stated further that a resolution similar had been offered at the Soldiers State Convention at Pittsburg which on being referred to the Committee on Resolutions had been tabled as it reflected on our friends of the Union Republican party.

The following resolution was offered by George W. Koons, read and adopted: Whereas, An effort is being made in this Congressional District, by men who, we believe, have not the interests of the soldiers at heart, to prevent the nomination of a soldier to represent us in Congress; and

Resolved, That we the soldiers of Huntingdon county condemn such acts, and call upon our friends throughout the district to aid us in securing the nomination of a candidate who has seen service in the field and bears upon his body the honorable scars of battle.

The following resolution was offered and adopted: Resolved, That the loyal Governors of all States shall be eligible on election to become members of the Convention.

On motion to reconsider the vote on declining to receive the resignation of the Recording Secretary was lost.

Committee on Finance report nothing, when committee was discharged on account of having failed to take any action towards securing finances and for inefficiency.

Committee on Transportation reported and were instructed to procure one car for the accommodation of the Boys in Blue from this county, when Mr. Gregg, chairman, declined doing so.

On motion of Major McCabe a new Committee on Finance was appointed to consist of Major McCabe, Captain Brewster, and Major Deyor.

The following resolution from West township was offered by Mr. McCartney, read and adopted: WHEREAS, The Congressional plan of reconstruction, by means of which justice is done to the loyal sentiment of the nation and rebels are rendered powerless for mischief, meets with our entire approval, and, whereas, the State Central Committee was formed for the purpose of organizing and carrying on a campaign, having for its object the election of General John W. Geary, for Governor of Pennsylvania, and, whereas, the member of said Committee appointed to represent the Union Republican men of the county, is at present editing a paper, which not only tends to abuse of the great and leading Statesmen of the present Congress, who devised and matured said plan of reconstruction, but has also become entirely silent on the subject of Governor, while endorsing the course of Edgar Cowan and other traitors to the Union Party; therefore,

Resolved, That the Boys in Blue of Huntingdon County, respectfully request Col. Frank Jordan, Chairman of the State Central Committee of Pennsylvania, to appoint a reliable member of the Union Republican Party in the place of William Lewis, Editor of the Huntingdon Globe, who is now so basely representing the party he had himself appointed to serve.

Mr. Flemer offered the following resolution, which was passed: Resolved, That the friends of Andrew Johnson, who are soldiers in good standing, be permitted to become members of this League.

No further business appearing, on motion the meeting adjourned.

W. F. CUNNINGHAM, Rec. Sec.

Blair County "Democratic Convention" declared for John Cresswell, of Hollidaysburg, for Congress.

Match Game.
The following is the scoring of a match game played on Saturday afternoon last, between the Social Base Ball Club of this place, and the Martzlog of Alexandria, this county. The game was played on the grounds of the Social, and many spectators were present. The playing was exceedingly well done for such young clubs, both of them having been organized late in the spring. When the Social plays the return match, on the Martzlog grounds, it is thought they will have a harder struggle. The Social plays the Kickenapawling, of Johnstown, to day, Monday.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
HORACE GREELY'S HISTORY OF THE "THE AMERICAN CONFLICT."
Upwards of 100,000 Copies Sold.

The high character of this work has gained for it among the distinguished men and leading journals of all parties, a reputation seconded to no other history of THE GREAT CIVIL WAR.

As a complete, impartial and authentic record of events, marked throughout by great care and discrimination, it has no rival.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer.
It is of course a history from a standpoint of observation far distant from our own, and from that of the Democracy generally; but it is marked by much less prejudice and partiality than the best of our own writers. It contains a vast amount of information, and is altogether superior to any volume on the subject that has yet appeared.

From the North American Review.
He writes without passion, making due allowance for human nature in the South as well as the North.

From the New York Daily News.
Joshua R. Giddings, J. P. Hendley, J. S. O. Abbott, Lansing and Horace Greeley have all published the first parts of a history of the war; but of these, no one has been so successful as that of Mr. Greeley, nor is worthy the same attention.

From the London Westminster Review.
It is temperate, and gives way to no vituperation, although it is the history of the leading editor of the leading newspaper in America to such a time, we may still more admire the spirit of fairness and directness which characterizes this very valuable work.

From the New York Herald.
Mr. Greeley as a Historian.—He has few equals as a writer of vigorous English. He is terse, rapid, direct, going straight to the heart of the subject as it presents itself to his view, hitting it off occasionally by a dash of grotesque humor, but more frequently irradiating it with glances of shrewd, homely sense.

From the Boston Free Press.
We recommend the perusal of "The American Conflict" to those who do not intend merely to talk about matters and things, but who wish to speak rationally and from conviction.
