Robert McDivitt, editor of the Journal & American, the low skulking liar, in his last paper takes back what we challenged him to prove. Poor vile coward-henceforth your readers will know how much of your slang it will be safe to believe. We offered you fifty dollars for every name of a responsible man you could secure to a certificate certifying that the charges you made against us were true. We will furnish the numbers of your paper in which the charges appear, and will deposit them and the money with any iustice of the peace in town you may name. It's no "joke," Bobby, and your respectable readers haven't seen it in that light.

A Question for School Boys.

Mr. H. G. F. makes a motion in a public meeting that Mr. A. and Mr. B. be admitted as delegates. Mr. D. S. B. moved an amendment which was seconded, that Mr. C. and Mr. D. be admitted. Mr. F. objected to the amendment and took the ground that the Chair could not put the question on the amendment unless he (Mr. F.) accented the amendment. We do not know how the difficulty was settled, but as Mr. F. is chairman of the County Committee, it is important that the balance of the Committee have some light upon the subject before their first meeting.

Another Accident. The town of Mill Creek, five miles below this station, has been very unfortunate in having three of its citizens injured on the railroad, during the iast two weeks. On Wednesday, Aug. 1. John Ritter died from injuries redrew Miller died from injuries received a short distance above this place; and on Tuesday last August 14th, George Miller, a brother of the latter, while walking on the track in Mill Creek was struck by a locomotive, and thrown some distance. He was injured about the head, and when we last heard he was in a very critical condition.

We see that our enterprising Herald, offers his paper until after the the 25th inst. October election, for one dollar, and promises to distribute one third of all the money thus received by lot among the subscribers. Everybody acquainted with Ben knows he will do all he promises. We learn that he has already several hundred campaign subscribers on his books. Send in your dollar, and have a chance at the greenbacks.

Camp Meeting.

Under the Superintendency of the Rev. Thos. Barnhart, P. E., a Camp Meeting will be held commencing August 24th, on the Manor Hill Camp ground, the ground occupied last year and now purchased by the Circuit. Ample provisions will be made for all those desiring boarding on the ground. Those wishing regular accommodations at the boarding tent should immediately address one of the ministers of that charge.

Lost Boy. Any information concerning the whereabouts of Oliver McLain, addressed to his father Isaac McLain, at Eagle Foundry, will be thankfully received. The boy is about 14 years of age, rather large of his age, light hair, wore a dark suit of clothes, and left his home about the 20th of June last. He was last heard of at Huntingdon about the 20th day of July. 3t.

To our Patrons and Readers. We expect our course this week wi disappoint and offend many of our patrons and readers. It is our choice, and those who may differ with us can have their choice-either to give us a hear ing or withdraw their patronage.

A press of matter has crowded out some local items.

"The Immortal J. N."

This distinguished personage made his first appearance in this place on Saturday last, and addressed a large audience in the Diamond in the evening. We doubt whether any of our people ever heard a man who possessed such a stentorian tone or such an N., "the immortal J. The Republican Convention

[We are indebted to the Shirleysburg | the fourth ballot. The first ballot stood Herald, a Republican paper, for the as follows: following proceedings of the late Republican County Convention. It is, we believe a correct report. The platform resolutions were left with us, by amount of Ciceronian eloquence. J. Mr. H. G. Fisher and they will be found below.]

For seven or eight consecutive years past, we have been an attendant at only known to himself, though he has the Republican Convention of this County-three times as a delegatebut the one held yesterday was in many respects the most remarkable of them all

At one o'clock, the delegates assembled in the Hall above the Court-room judge of that for themselves, as we and Mr. H. G. Fisher—a Huntingdon delegate, and, as it subsequently proved, the leader of the Wharton party, immediately moved that the Convention organize with David Black of Huntingdon in the Chair. Mr. Bauman, Chairman of the County Committee, being present, promptly and properly snubbed H. G. by asserting his right to call the Convention to order, which he did; whereupon David Black of Huntingdon and John G. Boyer of Penn were nominated for President, and the former elected.

This was Wharton victory No. 1, and proved to be a very important one. Immediately H. G. moved that Bar ton Green of Barree and J. B. Geissinger of Carbon be Secretaries, which also was carried. No Vice-Presidents were elected.

There being no seats in the Hall, a notion was made to adjourn to the school house, which was carried, and the Convention took up its line of march for the hill.

On re-assembling, the credentials of delegates were received. There were two contested seats from Hopewell and one from Coalmont, which being disposed of, the following delegates composed the Convention:

Alexandria—I., G. McPherran, S. P. Foster.
Barrec—Barton Greene, C. T. Greene.
Barrec—Barton Greene, C. T. Greene.
Barrec—Barton Greene, C. T. Greene.

Control—James B. Gelssinger, W. H. Piper.
Clay—P. H. Bence, Adam Heeter.
Coalmont—J. H. Benford, L. G. Dom.
Dublin—Capt. D. R. P. Neely, John M. Appleby,
Franklin—Hays Hamilton, Alex. G. Ewing.
Huntingdon—H. G. Fisher, David Black.
Henderson—William Brown, Robert E. Thompsol
Hopewell—Dewalt Fouse, Harris Richeson.
Juniata—Levi Ridenour, David Corbin.
Jackson—George McAlevy, John B. Smith.
Lower West—Henry Hultzapple, Alex. Stehr.
Mortis—James M. Fiper, J. D. Gelssinger,
Mount Union—A. C. Morrison, Peter Shaver (B.)
Oncida—A. P. White, J. A. Greene.
Orbisonla—D. S. Baker, Robert S. Gahrett.
Penn—J. G. Boyer, Hon. A. J. Beaver.
Porter—Jacob Kelf, Bord. Isenberg.
Polersburg—Abraham Renner, L. W. Port.
Shirley—Henry Hertzler, David Boyer, Told—George McClain, Theo. Houck.
Upper-West—John Henderson, John C. Wilson.
Union—Abraham Swoope, Levi Pheasant.
Walker—James Ward, Henry Snyder.
Warriorsmark—Henry Cryder, Levi Clabaugh.

Nominations were then re reposed in him by the National Union ceived for Assembly. H. S. Wharton, Ephraim Baker and J. N. Swoope were named, and the nominations closed. After the first ballot was taken, and before the result was announced, a motion was carried that the candidates be brought before the Convention and personally sanction the resolution of support for Gov. Curtin. Mr. Baker being called first, declared him-self a friend of Gov. Curtin, first, last, can only, in our judgment, be accounand all the time, and that he would support him in caucus and out of it. Mr. Wharton was next called. He asserted that he owed Simon Cameron nothing; that the reports circulated that he was pledged to the support of is now proving himself to be, all the Cameron, and that Cameron had furnished him $3,000 to carry this County, were malicious falsehoods; that he was a friend of A G. PLATFORM RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the history of the world furnishes no parallel of so causeless a war as the war of the Rebel States upon the best Government on earth. That the instigators of, and the actors in that Rebellion, forfeited treatment. Afflicted ones, you can ors as the Government they sought to free people.

Resolved, That the course of Andrew Johnson, who, by the agency of J. town, Huntingdon County.
Wilkes Booth, the assassin of the PaAug. 14th, at the Exchan els, high and low, to all their former privileges, and power to work mischief in the national government, thus ac-counting the blood and treasure expended to save the government an un-Party in electing him Vice President, in disregard of the loyal sentiment of the whole nation, and in direct opposition to his oft-repeated, and reiterated declaration before, and for some time after he unhappily became President, that the people should be taught that treason is a crime, and must be punished and rendered odious; displays a degree ted for on the supposition which opens up the mystery that shrouded the trag-ic event which made him President, that the Rebels, if they did not know that he was in beart with them, as he is now proving himself to be, all the and that he and the few of his officeseeking adherents, are wholly unwor on Party.

Resolved, That all those, who, like President Johnson, oppose the proposed Amendment to the Constitution, and who believe that the President of the United States, or any one man, has the right to fix, and make the true condition of conquered Robels, and Robel States,-and who deny to Congress, or the law making power of the people that right, are the foce of the Union and of that party, of this State, which fought for the Union, and their sympathy with the Copperhead element of the country proves that they have abandoned their professed love of the Union for the "bread and butter" of Power. Every friend of the Union should watch them, and warn the peo ple to avoid their companionship and conneil.

Resolved, That the spirit of Andrew Johnson, Mayor Monroe, and the Reb els of New Orleans, as manifested in the indiscriminate massacre of one hun dred loyal men, and the wounding of three hundred more, in the new was on Union men-began in Memphis and continued in New Orleans on the 30th July 1866-all demonstrate that the Rebels and their friends, North and South, encouraged and aided by President Johnson, are again organizing to strike once more for Secession and Rebellion.

Resolved, That the true issue present ed to the people at this election is— have the friends of the Union won or lost in the war with and triumph over Rebellion? If Congress is sustained -if the Amendments to the National Constitution are carried, the friends of the Union have won. If these things burg, will preach in the St. John's Epis- and Instruction of Huntingdon, and the great question to be answered Randolph Simpson, of Huntingdon, and the great question to be answered by the people is, have a million of loyal lives been eacrificed, and thousands of millions of treasure been wasted in | 1866. vain? and it is the duty of every true Union man to forego every minor consideration to secure the election of our member of Congress and of the Legislature. Resolved, That General JOHN W. GEARY is the true representative of the people in their war against Wrong. He has proved his fidelity in the field. He fought the Rebels and their friends when in arms, and with his blood aided to win our victories. He is still in the field against the same foes. His comrades in arms-"the Boys in Blue"are by his side, and now, as then, the people will cheer him to a new victory, and by their unchanged devotion to the cause of Freedom, prove that the true strength of a Republican Government is the honest hearts of its virtu ous sons.

Resolved, That the members of the Legislature nominated by this Convention be instructed, if elected, to work and vote for governor A. G. Curtin as our choice to fill the place in the United States Senate now occupied by the traitor Cowan.
