Baltimore and Philadelphia Platforms

It is just now the cue of the leaders of the revolutionary Radical movement to claim the authority of the Union Party for their principles and measures. Every one who hesitates to follow in their footsteps is denouneed as a renegade and traiter to the Union Party. The hypocrisy and unprincipled recklessness of this pretext are apparent. None of the Radical leaders onlisted in this crusade ever were leaders of the Union Party, and the doctrines they now put forward as Union dectrines find no support in any of the authorized declarations of principle put forth by the Convention of the Union Party. The Baltimore platform is the latest authoritative declaration of the principles held and the policy espoused by the Union Party which carried the country through the war. It was adopted by the unanimous vote of the delendopted by the unanimous vote of the delegates from every loyal State and Territory in 1864, while the war against the rebellion wasstill raging, and was the basis upon which President Lincoln and Andrew Johnson were nominated and elected. It was accepted by both these great men, as the platform on which their administration would be based in case of their election, and was regarded throughout the Union, by men of all parties, as the true basis and platform of the Union party. And we now assert, and challenge contradiction, that there is not a single principle tradiction, that there is not a single principle touching national affairs asserted in it, which is not reaffirmed by the Philadelphia platform; nor is there a single principle contained in the latter which is not embraced or implied in the former.

The Philadelphia platform is identical, in every principle and position, with the Balti-more platform; and in proof of this position we reprint the provisions of the two, side by ough their action in Co inrough their action in Congress or otherwise, any State or States from the Union.—

The Union of these Sides in perpetual, and the authority of its Government is supremitable in the limitations and restrictions of the Constitution

The Philadelphia Declaration is thus seen to be the re-affirmation and adoption, by all the States, including those lately in rebellion, of the principles which in 1864 were declared of the principles which in 1864 were declared by the loyal States to be essential, and which they were resolved to attain by prosecution of the war. In 1864 the Union party declared that the war should be waged until the suprome authority of the Constitution was restablished, until the integrity of the Union was restored, and all its States and all its people accepted that result. In the Philadelphia Declaration the South joins the North in declaring that the authority of the Constitution has been restored and is again supreme; that the Union is perfect and perpetual—no "the Constitution of the United States shall" in the Union is perfect and perpetual—no "the Constitution of the United States shall" in the Union is perfect and perpetual—no "the Constitution of the United States shall" in the Union is perfect and perpetual—no "the Constitution of the United States shall" in the Union is perfect and perpetual—no "the Constitution of the United States shall" in the Union is perfect and perpetual—no "the Constitution of the United States shall" in the Line of the Union is people accepted that results are the Union is people accepted that the Union is people a that the Union is perfect and programmer, that the Union is perfect and perpetual—no State or States having any right to secede.—So far as this fundamental principle is concerned, therefore, the principles of the two are identical. Next comes the subject of SLAVERY.

Upon the subject of slavery the two are identical—or rather the Philadelphia Declaration acknowledges and accepts the complete fulfillment of every pledge and promise made at Baltimore—delegates from the southern states uniting in and ratifying this acceptance. THE NATIONAL DEBT.

There is thus an absolute identity of senti-ment and principle between the Baltimore Platform of the Union party in 1864 and that adopted at Philadelphia last week. We chal-lenge any man to point out any deviation from leage any man to point out any deviation from the former on the part of the Philadelphia Convention. The Baltimore Platform declared it to be the object and purpose of the war to re-establish the integrity of the Union and the supreme authority of the Constitution; and in the Philadelphia Convention delegates from a reary State and Townitory of the Union from every State and Territory of the Union, Northern and Southern alike, unite in the de-claration that this has been done, and they accept all the legitimate results and conse quences thereof.

What the Philadelphia Convention has accomplished, therefore, has been to nationalize the principles and purposes of the Union party as declared at Baltimore in 1864. If others as dectared at Ballimore in 1864. If others have added to those principles, they have done so on their own responsibility. They cannot hold any Union man bound by their nets in so doing. The Union Party represented in the Baltimore Convention was represented in Philadelphia, with the additional advantacy of Southest his principle triumble. advantage of findling their principles triumph-ant, and accepted alike by the great mass of the patriotic Democrats in the North and the great body of the people in the Southern States. If they cannot, thus fortified by success and the general acquiescence of the American people, maintain their principles and secure their recognition in the practical administration of affairs, we shall have reached a new era in American politics.—N.

Our Candidate for Congress.

HUNTINGDON, Sept. 11, 1866. R. L. JOHNSTON ESQ.

DEAR SIR:—As a candidate for Congress, do you endorse the sentiments ittered by the following resolutions manimously adopted by the National Union Convention, held in Philadelphia August 14.

Representation in the Congress of the United States and in the electoral college is right recognized in the Constitution as ab ding in every State, and as a duty imposed upon the people, fundamental in its nature, and essential to the existence of our republi can institutions, and neither Congress nor the general government has any power or author-ity to deny this right to any State, or to with-hold its enjoyment under the Constitution from the people thereof.

We call upon the people of the United States to elect to Congress, as members thereof, none but men who admit this funda mental right of representation, and who will receive to seats therein loyal representatives from every State in allegiance to the United States, subject only to the constitutional right of each house to judge of the election, eturns, and qualifications of its own mem

WM. LEWIS.

EBENSBURG, Sept. 15, 1866. WM. LEWIS, ESQ., -DEAR SIR -Your note-is before me, and with it the resolutions it refers to. I recognize your right, whether as a voter in my dis-

'the Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State,"—and that "Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers" &c. I believe with the late President Lincoln and his Cabinet-with the Congress which inaugurated the war to put down the rebellion and prevent secession;with the statesmen in the forum and the soldiers in the field;—that no State can secede from the Union. All the acts of the Government, in all its de-partments, were based upon the duty of preserving the "Union of the States." For this we labored-for this we incurred our enormous debt-for this we gave the lives of our brethren. That the Union was preserved is not now a matter of argument—it is history. Every Southern State is now moving on peacefully under her own Constitution and laws; while the Judicial Department takes cognizance of every Southern State in the administration of civil and criminal jurisprudence, and the Executive Department collects its proportion of the taxes to pay the National debt, and "takes care that the laws be faithfully executed." If Mr. Stevens, who embodies the radical idea, were asked how many States are in the Union, even he would unwillingly give the same answer as the student in Geography, "thirty six." Yet while any radical would make this answer; and while "our flag," the proud emblem of our nationality, flings its thirty six stars to the breeze, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from the lakes to the gulf-while our gallant tars float the same "starry ensign," on every sea under the Heaven;—these same radicals, by refusing them that which makes a State, and without which a State cannot exist, would reduce them to subjugated provinces. Believing, then, that every State in the South is entitled to two Senators in Congress, and as many members of the House of Representatives as the act of Congress provides, I can at once "subscribe to the sentiments" of the resolutions to which you refer. And while, under that other clause of the Constitution, which makes each House judge of the "qualifications of its own members," I would refuse a seat to any DISLOYAL member, and every member refusing to take the test oath prescribed by Congress, I would make the disqualification a personal one, and not permit it to impair the rights of a Sovereign State. Hoping you will excuse the crudeness of the foregoing views, arising from the extreme hurry in which they are written, I remain very respectfully yours, R. L. Johnston.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Spinal Affections, Contracted Joints, Cholte Pains, Pains in Side or Back, Toothache, Headache, Sprains, Sore Throat, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, and all Diseases of the Muscles,

This is an Internal and External Medicine, composed of coots, Herbs and Barks such as our foreathers used.—cheric is a bountied sapply on the earth to cure all cominants, if we only knew what they were. This has been subject for constant study with the Medical Faculty for great many years, to find out the kinds best adapted to he above complaints—how to put them together, and what portions to use. a great many years, to find out the kinds beat adapted to the above complaints—how to put them together, and what portions to use.

This wonderful remedy needs no recommondation saye
the results which invariably follow its application.

29 This pepular remedy is first coming into use from the fact that it gives good satisfaction.

29 PhysicilaNs are favieted to test its efficacy in all cases of Rheumatism, Affections of the Spinal Column, and all Diseases of the Skin, Muscles and Glands. It has been used in thousands of instances under the personal supervision of the Inventors, and has never disappelated their expectations. All we ask far it is a trial—experimental proof—not the testimony of the men of straw, are the vouchers we desire to present to the public.

It would be well for many now lying in beds offerture, if these facts could reach their sick chambers. It is more important to them than to the inventors that this should be the case. "Truth is mighty and must pravail."

21 The Keep it in your family, for sickness comes when you least expect it.
