

THE "GLOBE JOB OFFICE" is the most complete of any in the country...

Edward Bates and the President.

One of the most interesting events connected with the stay of the President at St. Louis was the occasion of his visit to the ex-Antislavery General of the United States, Hon. Edward Bates.

Do You Want to Marry into Your Family.

Hon. Horace Maynard, one of the leaders of the party opposing the reconstruction policy of the President, and supporting the revolutionary, disunion schemes of Congress...

Douglas' Last Words.

General John A. Dix, at the laying of the corner stone of the monument to Stephen A. Douglas, at Fairview, three miles from Chicago, on the 13th inst., delivered an oration, in which he recited the public services of Mr. Douglas...

TERMS OF THE GLOBE. For annum in advance $2 00 Six months 1 00 Three months 50

AGENTS OF THE GLOBE. The most perfect thing, the most useful thing, and the most of it for the least money...

AGENTS OF THE GLOBE. The most perfect thing, the most useful thing, and the most of it for the least money...

AGENTS OF THE GLOBE. The most perfect thing, the most useful thing, and the most of it for the least money...

AGENTS OF THE GLOBE. The most perfect thing, the most useful thing, and the most of it for the least money...

AGENTS OF THE GLOBE. The most perfect thing, the most useful thing, and the most of it for the least money...

AGENTS OF THE GLOBE. The most perfect thing, the most useful thing, and the most of it for the least money...

AGENTS OF THE GLOBE. The most perfect thing, the most useful thing, and the most of it for the least money...

AGENTS OF THE GLOBE. The most perfect thing, the most useful thing, and the most of it for the least money...

PENNSYLVANIA RAIL ROAD.

Table with columns for stations (Huntingdon, Altoona, etc.) and times for various train services.

HUNTINGDON & BROAD TOP RAILROAD.

Table with columns for stations (Huntingdon, Broad Top, etc.) and times for various train services.

READING RAIL ROAD.

Table with columns for stations (Reading, Pottsville, etc.) and times for various train services.

WATER TRUNK LINE FROM THE NORTH AND NORTH-WEST.

Table with columns for stations (Harrisburg, Pottsville, etc.) and times for various train services.

THE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS SPEAK.

THE CLEVELAND NATIONAL CONVENTION.

Brave Men by Thousands in Favor of Johnson's Policy. CLEVELAND, Sept. 19.—At the evening session of the Soldiers' Johnson Convention yesterday, the following resolutions and address were adopted:

THE PLATFORM.

Hon. L. D. Campbell, from the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following platform, which was adopted with immense cheering:

The Union soldiers and sailors who served in the army and navy of the United States in the recent war for the suppression of the insurrection...

Second. That our object in taking up arms to suppress the late rebellion was to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution...

Third. That our object in taking up arms to suppress the late rebellion was to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution...

Fourth. That our object in taking up arms to suppress the late rebellion was to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution...

Fifth. That our object in taking up arms to suppress the late rebellion was to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution...

THE COMMITTEE'S ADDRESS.

General Bates, from the same committee, reported a letter which was received with enthusiasm and adopted with waving of flags, cheers, and singing "Rally Round the Flag, Boys."

More than fifteen months have elapsed since you were released from service and permitted to return to your homes with the assurance of the country that your work was done...

You had yourselves left party ties behind when you marched to the field, and therefor know only your country. You had a right to demand that in the peaceful completion of your work they would follow your example.

You expected that those who had called upon you to suppress not only rebellion but the spirit of revolution, and to vindicate the violated law, would set a new example to the nation by a strict adherence to their constitutional power...

You expected, and after the performance of such services you had a peculiar right to demand that your successors in the work of restoration should not only devise measures which should be just, but should propose them at the season when they should be practicable...

That which would have been well and wisely accomplished, if proposed at the proper time, has been made impracticable by delay, and a condition which it would have been of doubtful wisdom to impose at any time is at last imposed when it is too late.

That which would have been well and wisely accomplished, if proposed at the proper time, has been made impracticable by delay, and a condition which it would have been of doubtful wisdom to impose at any time is at last imposed when it is too late.

That which would have been well and wisely accomplished, if proposed at the proper time, has been made impracticable by delay, and a condition which it would have been of doubtful wisdom to impose at any time is at last imposed when it is too late.

THE SOUTHERN SOLDIERS.

These have produced their natural effect. The prolonged exercise of such functions can only injure it; it has already injured ourselves. We cannot afford to alter the spirit of our great national system, and by centralizing...

It is manifest that the experiences of this delay are sufficient, and whether the new conditions imposed by Congress are likely to prove a final remedy...

No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress or elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State...

The effect of each of these utterly disconnected propositions is made to depend upon the acceptance or rejection of the whole. It seems incredible that those who insisted upon this connecting them could have expected that they would be ratified.

The preamble and resolution adopted in the case of Tennessee do not commit Congress to the restoration of the Union, should their example be followed...

The preamble and resolution adopted in the case of Tennessee do not commit Congress to the restoration of the Union, should their example be followed...

The preamble and resolution adopted in the case of Tennessee do not commit Congress to the restoration of the Union, should their example be followed...

The preamble and resolution adopted in the case of Tennessee do not commit Congress to the restoration of the Union, should their example be followed...

THE SOUTHERN SOLDIERS.

These have produced their natural effect. The prolonged exercise of such functions can only injure it; it has already injured ourselves. We cannot afford to alter the spirit of our great national system...

It is manifest that the experiences of this delay are sufficient, and whether the new conditions imposed by Congress are likely to prove a final remedy...

No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress or elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State...

The effect of each of these utterly disconnected propositions is made to depend upon the acceptance or rejection of the whole. It seems incredible that those who insisted upon this connecting them could have expected that they would be ratified.

The preamble and resolution adopted in the case of Tennessee do not commit Congress to the restoration of the Union, should their example be followed...

The preamble and resolution adopted in the case of Tennessee do not commit Congress to the restoration of the Union, should their example be followed...

The preamble and resolution adopted in the case of Tennessee do not commit Congress to the restoration of the Union, should their example be followed...

The preamble and resolution adopted in the case of Tennessee do not commit Congress to the restoration of the Union, should their example be followed...