Anecdotes & Incidents of the Rebellion, Heroic, Patriolic, Remantic, Humorous and Tragical.

Heroic, Patriolic, Remantic, Humorous and Tragical.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will. If preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful nurratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos, of the war.

These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the harvery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and harvelnips of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the aneodotes connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.

The values is profusely illustrative that the content of the them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 300 ongravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthly of examination as specimens of the art. Many of them are set into the body of the toxt, after the popular style of Lossing's Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution. The book's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, bivonac, siego and battle-field adventures; trilling feats of bravery, vit, drollery, comical and ludicrous adventures; etc., etc.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic dotall, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art.
