The merit of these pumps is shown by the fact that the lemand for them is rapidly increasing everywhere. There is no iron in them to corrode and injure the water. They are light and convenient, so that every man can put in his own pump, the whole only costing him about one half the price of other pumps. Pumps, and wooden pipe to suit them, promptly shipped by rallroad on receipt of or-ders. Give depth from floor to bottom of well.

Designed exclusively to impart a thorough and PRACTICAL BUSINESS EDUCATION. All classes of persons require such an education. Those possessing means, need it in conducting their own business those without means need it in obtaining and creditably filling lucrative positions in the employ of others. The course of instruction and practice is arranged so as to fully meet the diversified wants of every department of DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN TRADE, s comprehended or embraced under the three general isions of industry: Agriculture, Manufacture and Co visions of industry. Agriculate, diameteria and con-merce.

Each student is instructed individually in both theory and practice of Book Keeping, according to the most ap-proved and labor saving methods, Business Penmanship, Caleniations, and all the collateral branches of a complete course of lusiness education; and upon passing a satisfac-tory examination is awarded, by authority of law, a diplo-ma, under the corporate s at of the college. Students are received at any time. And It is believed-that a practical experience of over TWENTY TRARS will be considered by the public an ample guarantee of the prac-tical character of the course and efficiency of the instruc-tion.

All further information desired can be obtained at the college, or by addressing the Principal for a circular by man.

 A liberal discount is allowed to wounded and hon orably discharged soldiers. The college is open day and javening. T H. POLLOCK, Atty-at-Law, Principal. jy12,1865

AGENTS WANTED FOR THE

Anecdotes & Incidents of the Rebellion.

Heroic, Patriotic, Romantic, Humorous and Tragical Heroic, Patricic, Romantic, Humorous and Tragical.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embedied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos, of the war.

These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bayery of men, the plack of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the needless connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 300 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of the art. Many of them are set into the body of the toxt, after the popular style of Lossing's Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution. The book's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket. spy, bivonac, siege and battle-field adventures; thrilling feats of bravery, wit, drollery, comical and ludicrons adventures; etc., etc.

Anusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary latt.
