AGENTS WANTED FOR THE

Anecdotes & Incidents of the Rebellion. Heroic, Patriotic, Romantic, Humorous and Tragical. Heroic, Patriotic, Romantic, Humorous and Tragical.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos, of the war.

These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the barveys of men, the plack of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.

them under appropriate the second of the property of common is profusely illustrated with over 300 on gravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of the art. Many of them are set into the body of the toxt, after the popular style of Lossing's Pictorial Field Bobk of the Revolution. The book's contents include reminiscences of caup. tion. The book's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, bivonae, siege and battle-field adrentures; thrilling feats of bravery, wit, drollery, comical and ludicrous adventures, etc.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in erey page, as graphic death, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are ekilifully interwoven in this work of literary art. art.
This work sells itself. The people are tired of dry details and partisan works, and want something humorous, romantic and saurting. Our agents are making from $100 to $200 per month, clear of all expenses. Send for circulars, giving full particulars, and see our terms and proof of the above assertion.
