GENTS WANTED FOR THE Anecdotes & Incidents of the Rebellion.

Heroic, Patriolic, Romantic, Humorous and Trugical. Heroic, Patriolic, Romantic, Humorous and Tragical.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better iden of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful marratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war.

These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soliders, the devotion of women, the bavery of men, the plack of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the ancelotes connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form. form.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 300 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of the art. Many of them are set into the body of the toxt, after the popular style of Losing's Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution. The book's context; include requisitences of second The book's contents include reminiscences of camp et. spy, bivounc, siege and battle-field adventures ling feats of bravery, wit, drollery, comical and indi rous adventures; etc., etc. Amusement as well as instruction may be found in ev-ry page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic istory, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

This work sells itself. The people are tired of dry details and partisan works, and want something humorous, romantic and startling. Our agents are making from $100 to $200 per month, clear of all expenses. Send for circulars, giving full particulars, and see our terms and proof of the above assertion.
