SPECIAL NOTICE.

TO THE LADIES .- Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebel Joff, Davis, was captured in Fashionable Fennic attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sen to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, becau they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of Angels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of rebelacts, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to furnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urgo your fath, crs, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visit the same store. A GENTS WANTED FOR THE

Anecdotes & Incidents of the Rebellion,

Heroic, Patriotic, Romantic, Humorous and Tragical. Hevoic, Patriotic, Romantic, Humorous and Tragical.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of avents, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos, of the war.

These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the huxery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the necotives connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.
