SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS.

A. Pouglas.

We are anxious that all indebted to us for subscription to Globe, advertising, printing, books, stationery, etc., etc., should make payment immediately, or not later than the 20th of January next. The first of the year is a good time to square up, and we would feel extremely happy on the first day of the new year if we could then say that all indebted to us now had gave us a friendly call. We desire to keep square with the world and "at peace with mankind," but to do so we must have our own. We will expect those knowing themselves indebted to give this call their immediate attention.

All persons having claims against us will present them for settlement.

The Old Year.

The old year is rapidly passing away, and we feel thankful that the Globe, although it has passed through a rough political storm, is still in a healthy condition. During a part of the past year our political course was such as to sour the feelings of many personal "Democratic organization" or driving Union or Republican office-holders to the support of what they denounce as "Copporhead" organs and "Copporhead" principles. We shall stand by what we believe and know to be Union principles; ingrates and mere seekers after office can enjoy their rights.-There are other interests than that of office-seeking in which the people, irrespective of party, are interested. The rebellion was not crushed in a day, neither was it crushed by the patriotism of men of one party only. There can be no permanent prosperity, permanont happiness, or permanent Government, but by cultivating and adhering to liberal Union sentiments. The independent and free people of the county have our thanks for their continued patronage.

Senator Wade on Female Suffrage.

The following letter was read at the recent meeting of the American Equal Rights Association:

JEFFERSON, Ohio, Nov. 14, 1866. Susan B. Anthony Secretary American Equal Rights Association:

MADAM :-- Yours of the 9th inst., is received, and I desire to say in reply, that I am now and ever have been the advocate of equal and impartial suffrage to all citizens of the United States who have arrived at the age of twenty-one years, who are of sound mind, and who have not disqualified themselves by the commission of any offence, without any distinction on ac count of race, color or sex. Every argument that ever has been or ever can be adduced to prove that males should have the right to vote applies with equal if not greater force to prove that females should possess the same right; and were I a citizen of your State, I should labor with whatever ability I possess to engraft these principles in its constitution. Yours very Respectfully,

B. F. WADE.

Theodore Tilton on Woman's Rights.

Оню, December 4, 1866. Susan B. Anthony—My! Friend:— I cannot be at the meeting. I am like a partridge; I am wandering over the prairies. But were I at Cooper Institute, I would claim the ballot for women as for men. It is said that wo-men don't want their political rights. This may be true of some women. But the one woman whose rights I am most bound to respect is an American citizen, who wants the American citizen's ballot. While other men, therefore, may have reasons for indifference towards woman's right of suffrage, not only sound principle but gentlemanly courtesy make it my duty to break my ballot in twain, like my daily loaf, and share it equally with my wife.

I am yours truly, THEODORE TILTON,

The Express of Monday evening says :- At about cleven o'clock last night a sound resembling that produced by thunder or a wagon passing slowly over a bridge, was heard in this city. FROM WASHINGTON.

In the U.S. Senate on the 11th, Senators Anthony, Cowan, Wilson, Wade and Yates, advocates female suffrage. Mr. Wade declared that negroes would vote in every State in the Union before the 4th of March 1869. Mr. Yates contended that the people had spoken at the late election and de-clared in favor of negro suffrage.

On the 12th a vote was taken in the voted down by a vote of 37 to 9.

Thaddens Stevens said in the House on the 11th, that he did not believe Jeff. Davis could be tried for treason, nor that he had been guilty of treason. His offence was that of a belligerent, not of a traitor. Mr. Stevens' proposition that every man appointed by the President and rejected by the Senate shall be disqualified for holding any office for a year was voted down by an almost unanimous vote.

Mr. Rodgers, Democrat, of New Jersey, is strong in the faith. In concluding a speech in the House on the 12th, be used the following language: "God Almighty in eternity will write in let-Johnson as the one pure patriot of the faith of Congress is pledged to these troublous times." This was restand by it. A declaratory resolution radical side of the House.

The cable dispatch from Mr. Hale, the U.S. consul at Alexandria, Egypt, to the State Department at Washing ton, announcing the arrest of John H.
