HUNTINGDON, PA.

Wednesday morning, Feb. 6, 1867. W. Lewis, Editor and Proprietor. Hugh Lindsay, Associate Editor.

"I know of no mode in which a loyal citi zen may so well demonstrate his devotion to his country as by sustaining the Flag the Constitution and the Union, under all circum stances, and under every Administration REGARDLESS OF PARTY POLITICS, AGAINST ALI ASSAILANTS, AT HOME AND ABROAD."-STEPHEN A. POUGLAS.

We see that Hon. L. W. Hall, of Blair, is very favorably spoken of for the United States Senate to fill the place now occupied by Mr. Buckalew. Mr. Buckalew's time expires in '69. Two years honce—a good long time to plant the stakes.

Some of the prominent Republican and "Democratic" journals in the State are suggesting ways to prevent corrapt men from robbing the people and disgracing their parties and the govthat all nominating conventions, from the highest to the lowest, should reject all men seeking office.

UNEQUAL TO THE TASK .- Mr. Thaddeus Stevens' reconstruction plan. supposed at one time to be the plan, has been referred back to the Reconstruction Committee. This is considered a defeat of the measure, and leading Republicans admit that Congress is again "atsea" on the question, and the fact is a confession that task. Almost a year at work—and as knavish smile, and replied that day the attempt was made. What a excitement of last year. Almost everybody, for a year past, has been throwhorses and carriages, valuable city impeach any but a civil officer of the prises and lotteries should be rememing as it deserved. bered—the tickets are nover all sold, and the large majority of the best prizes are drawn by the tickets not sold.

By this time the resolution had "gone over," as the parliamentary phrase, from a refusal of the House to suspend the rules. Quiet had been resold. sold.

within the lines of the late "Union anybody but Stevens or Butler. party." If a "respectable Democrat," (known during the war as a "rebel sympathizer," "traitor", or "copperway of "making treason odious," about in character with the President when he pardons a leading rebel. The "respectable Democrats," or at least a large majority of them, nominated by the President are the most corrupt men in the party, and the Republican Senate have adopted a rule to confirm such appointments and reject honest Union men who would accept office under the President. Such is politics and politicians.

It is claimed that the salt mines of Nevada are the best in the country. One bed is reported to cover fifty two thousand acres yielding two million bushels annually of salt, ninety-five per cent. fine. No bottom to this salt bed has ever been discovered. As deep as any work has gone the bed is solid rock salt, and from a depth of thirty five feet the salt water comes so rap-. idly as to prevent work without efficient working arrangements. The salt water wells up to the surface and overflows the large floor from which the fine white salt is constantly gath-

About fifty years back a married couple residing in Paris adopted a male child that had been found in the streets, although having a son of their own. The two children were brought up together and received the same education; the foundling went into business and made a large fortune, while his benefactors met with reverses, and died, leaving their son, a cripple, unprovided for. The adopted son then devoted himself entirely to his companion in infancy, refusing to marry in order not to be forced to quit him, and has now just died, leaving him a fortune of nearly 1,000,000 francs.

It is understood that an agreement has been effected by which all nominations which are indersed by the representatives of the Congressional District from which they are appointed,

The Cincinnati Commercial has the following from its Washington correspondent :-

It will be remembered that about a month ago Mr. Ashloy offered a resolution in the House of Representa-tives directing the Judiciary Commit-tee to inquire if any officer of the Uni-

There was one gentleman, however, on the floor of the House of Representatives, who, as if by inspiration, saw through it the instant it was offered, and construed aright the poisonous malice it concealed under an apparently harmless coating of words. The presentation of such a resolution, whose coming had not been heralded by any previous announcement or intention, and was known to but balf-adozen members, very naturally threw ernment after they are elected to of-fice. Our cure of the evil would be lican side.

What the public already knows on the subject is only what transpired in the way of regular business, but the by-play, that did not come under that head, is the important part that shows the animus of the movement. As soon as the resolution was read, Mr. Bingham jumped from his seat and went over to Mr. Ashley, to whom he ad-dressed some very strong language, asking him what he meant by such a proposition as that, and why he didn't frame it to apply to the President only, instead of making it a drag net to inthe honorable body is unequal to the Ashley hesitated awhile, affecting a far from a reconstruction as the first guessed it was all right." Grant.

Now this is no story of the imagin ation. It is a statement of fact, given to me by one who was witness to it and substantiated by others.

A REVEREND GLUTTON. The Bishop of Verdun, France, who died recently was considered the type of gourmands So stout was ho (writes a Paris correspondent) that it was only by means of considerable manœuvring that he ever succeeded in entering a cab. The amount of food he consumed at his various meals was something fabulous. Owing to the frequent illnesses brought on by his voracity he was always attended by a servant whose sole business was to prevent him from eating more than was good for his health. Whenever the bishop was invited to dinner at a friend's house, this domestic stationed himself behind his chair, investigated the amount of cutlets, pates, perdreaux, truffs, &c., eaten by is master, and when he considered that he had as much as was good for his lordship he made a telegraphic sign to the mistress of the house, who, warned beforehard, immediately cut off the supplies!

At Ocrvile, Ohio, the Good Temhree nights in order to attend to the arge amount of business on handthere being twenty one initaitions durng the week. This is a most gratify. ng record. So great a revolution on the Temperance question, as has ta-ken place there in the last five weeks, is seldom witnessed.

The bill regulating the President's removal of office holders did not pass the House to-day as it came from the Senate. An important amendment was added which requires the Senate's consent to the removal of Cabinet Minisfers. This amendment was inserted in the House on the general under standing that the President, under the Sanata bill could remove Secretary Senate bill, could remove Secretary Stanton, and possibly might do it. The idea of the eighty-two members who voted for the amendment was evidently in favor of retaining the Secretary in office. in office.
