Attention, Discharged Soldiers I Attention, Disonarged Soldiers 1
The Act of Congress approved July 28, 1806, gives $100 additional bounty to all soldiers who enlisted for three years and were discharged by reason of expiration of service, or who were discharged for wounds received in battle and who have not received more than $100 bounty for such service. An additional bounty of $100 is also allowed to the nearest relative of soldiers who enlisted for a term of three years and who died or were killed in the service, to be paid in the following order: First, to the widow; second, to the children; third, to the father, and fourth, to the mother.

Soldiers' Widows.

By applying to W. H. Woods, of Huntingden, Huntingdon county, Pa., you can have your pensious increased two dollars a mouth for each and every child you have, and when the widow has married or died, the children are entitled to the increase.

To all who have brought home the bodies of their friends who died or were killed in the service of the United States, there is a certain amount of compensation allowed you for the exponses incurred in bringing home the bodies of your friends, which you can obtain by making application to me.

Invalid Soldiers, Attention!

Invalid Soldiers, Attention!

The act of Congress, approved June 6, 1806, gives additional pensions to the following class of persons:
Soldiers who have lost both eyes or both honds, $25 per month; who have lost both feet $29 per month; who have lost one hand or one foot, or totally disabled in the same, $15 per month.

Persons who have been deprived of their ponsions in consequence of being in the eiril service of the United States Government, can be restored to the pension roll by applying to me.

Fathers and mothers who were in whole or in part dependent upon their sons for support are centitled to a pension. Also brothers and sisters unport are civited to a pension, also brothers and sisters unport are civited to receive transportation to their places of enlistment when discharged are entitled to receive it; and also all who were held as prisoners of war, and did not repeive commutation of rations when released or discharged, are entitled to it.

Officers who were in the service on the 3d of March, 1865, and were discharged after the 9th of April, 1265, by applying to me can receive three nonths extra pay.

THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebed. Jeff. Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the remode of Rougels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of rebelacts, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to farmish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urge your fath, ers, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visit he same store. They can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing Material, Hats, Caps, Queensware and a general assurtment of Groceries; on as reasonable terms as at any House in town. Wit, Humor und Wisdom.

Popping the Question .- Mr. Smithson (an improvement on the popular name of Smith) wished to take Miss Brownly (another improvement) to a concert. He had been on terms of intimacy with the family for about five years, but "never spoke of love;" on the contrary, he had frequently declar-ed his intention of leading a bachelor's ife. One morning he put his hand to the bell handle and was admitted.
"O, James," exclaimed Miss Jane,

where have you kept yourself so long?"

This took Smithson a little aback, for he had spent the preceding evening with the family. Before he could anwer, however, Jane's brothers and sisters (eight or ten in number) had gathered about him. Summoning all is courage, he said : "I have come to ask you-"

"Not here, James—not—now—O!"
"That is," stammered Smithson, "if ou're not engaged-" "O! water—quick."
"What's that?" inquires her father,

'who says she's engaged ?"
"I didn't mean—" said Smithson, in onfusion. "Of course not," continued Mr. B., 'you've always been our favorite."

Then advancing and taking poor Smithson's hand, he said: "Take her, she's a good girl, and loves you to distraction. May you be ns happy as the day is long.

Thereupon father, mother and chillren crowded upon Smithson and wished him joy, and company coming in at the moment, the affair was told to them as a profound secret. So Smithson got a wife without popping the question, and almost before he knew it himself. But we cannot help thinking he was hurried into the bond

A newly elected and very green member of the New York Legislature was arrested in one of the villages sit-uated on the Central Railroad, one day, for committing an assault upon a fellow traveler, riding in the car with him, whom he accosted, and asked if he, too, was going to the Legislature. "No, thank Heaven !- not so bad as that!" exclaimed the man; "I am only going to the State's prison!"

He was a convict on his way to the Auburn Penitentiary. The refort was more than the "Honorable member" could bear; hence his assault and its consequences.

The Journal de Rouen killed a ady recentld, and the editor had a visit from the bereaved husband. "Villain!" cried the bereaved husband, "you have killed my wife!" Editor, with dignity: "Monsieur, I um an editor, not a doctor."

"That's just it!" cried the bereaved, 'You've killed her on paper, and she's alive."
"If she's not dead I congratulate you sincerely."

"Congratulate! I demand damages for the disappointment!"

ma. There is a story of a celebrated French preacher who, on delivering a sermon on the duty of wives, said: "I see opposite in this congregation a woman who has been guilty of the sin of dischadiones to her bushand, and, in order to point her out to universal condomnation, I will fling my breviary at her head." He lifted his book, and every female head instantly ducked. How great would have been the fall of heads of the whiskered persuasion if the divine had only threatened the man whose love to his wife had grown cold or lukewarm!

na A youngster came home after having a giorious time in the puddles, his face all aglow, and his rubber boots full of water. The punishment of staying in the house for the remainder of the day did not seem very hard at 1 first; but as his little heart warmed up with the recollection of the triumpus of the morning, when he had waded deeper than any of his playmates dared to, he could bear the restraint no longer, and went to his mother, saying "Please, mother, whip me and let me go out again!"

nea In Chatham churchyard is a stone inscribed: A man has buried two wives; after stating the name and age of the first were the words: "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; olessed be the name of the Lord." a few years his second wife died, and after her name and age are these words: "I called upon the name of the Lord, and he heard me and delivered me out of my troubles." The fewer examples of such faith the better.

mother to her son, who resided at a listance and expected in a short time to be married, "you are getting very thin." "Yes, mother," he replied, "I am, and when you see me next, I think you will see my rib."

ng A widow lady, sitting by a cheerful fire in a meditative mood, shortly after her husband's decease, sighed out: "Poor fellow, how he did like a good fire! - I hope he has gone where they keep good fires."

The man who "don't take the onpers," but who observed one of Peroleum V. Nasby's letters in a borrowed paper, expressed surprise that Nasby was not turned out of "orfis" for writing the way he does.

What makes you look so grum, Tom?" "Oh, I had to endure a sad trial to my feelings." "What on earth was it?" "Why, I had to tie on a pretty girl's bonnet while her ma was looking on."

Many persons look upon themselves as struggling to benefit the world, when in fact the world looks upon them as only struggling to benefit themselves.

na_Quilp, whose little hoy has a penchant for traveling on the roof and gutters of his house, nicknames the little fellow "Gutter Percher."

no. Two hard things to do: First, to talk of yourself without being vain; second, to talk of others without slander. We don't advise you to try it. If you want to get a favor out of a man, feed him. A man, like a horse, needs a bit in his mouth.

Better a dog who works, Than a lion who skirks.

I propose to check, and effectually dissipate more ache and pain, and to accomplish more perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fluids in the human system, than can be effected by any other, or all other methods of medical aid in the same space of time.

THIS POPULAR REMEDY is fast coming into use, for the fact that I cure, tree of charge, all these complaints whenever there is an opportunity to do so. As soon as it is applied it almost miraculously kills the pain. I do not ask you to buy before you are certain of its efficiency. If you have an acheor pain, it is warranted to do all it purports on the label.

I do not propose to cure every disease—only a class all it purports on the label.

I do not propose to cure energ disease—only a class named by ny directions. My liminent operates on chemical and electric principles, and is, therefore, appliable, to the cure or natural restorative of all organic derangement arising from an improper circulation of the nerve vital links. Prof. J. H. McEntyre's INDIAN COMPOUND acts d Prof. J. II. McEntyre's INDIAN COMPOUND acts directly on the absorbents, reducing glaudular and other swellings in incredible short time, seithout any possible danger from its use under any possible circumstances.

This is an internal and external medicine—composed or costs, herbs and barks, such as our forefathers used.—
There is a bountiful supply on earth to care all complaints if we only know what they were.

This has been a great study with the Medical Faculty for many years, to find out the kinds best adapted to the above complaints—how to put them together, and what proportions to use.
