For they have no kind pastor,
Whose loving words have told
Of Jesus, the good Shepherd,
And called them to his fold; No Sabbath school inviting Its pleasant doors within. No teacher's voice entreating To leave the way of sin. CHORUS.--Far out, etc.

I wish that I could tell them How Jesus came to die, When he for little children Left his bright throne on high And all the sad, sad story
Of sorrow which he bore,
When for his crown of glory A crown of thorns he wore.
CHORUS.—Far out, etc.

And so each morn and evening, Whene'er I kneel in prayer,
I'll ask the gracious Saviour
To send his gospel there;
That in the glorious city
In which he dwells above, We all may sing together
Of his redeeming love.
Chorus.—Far out, etc.

Riding in the cars, I heard behind me a shrill voice exclaim:
"Would to God that the Maine Law

Look kindling up in her old eyes, she laid her bony hand upon the arm of the liquor dealer, "and see the fruit of your accursed business. I was young, and had enough of this world's goods, and my heart was full of happiness and hope. My God, sir, how they have poured desolation into this old heart ! lam often bitter: and do you wonder? Such as you robbed me of my children, and at eighty years of age I am alone. Do you hear—alone! And let me tell you, this hand never wronged the least of God's creatures. But you, sir, have wronged me. You, sir, talk about the domicile, and say it is sacred. God surely starve you, forgive me, but I remember the day. Although in drai when my house was entered by the constables and skinned of all. I rest the full crops that follow, will soon fill member when the Bible my mother it up again.

Involuntarily, as it almost seemed, the liquor-dealer handed the old lady the bottle which he held in his hand. She dashed it out of the car-window and slowly resumed her seat. . The people who had crowded around, while the train was stopping, to hear the conversation, slowly and thoughtfully dispersed to their seats, and the now cowering liquor-dealer looked the very embodiment of humiliation and shame. With a deep sigh we turned away, our own faith made stronger by the Maine-Law sermon we had listened to. Ah! how many in our land would have escaped the bitterness of life, had rum harnessed beside one that is kind and been banished in their days !-- National Temperance Advocate.

An Indian Story —A romantic young lady, whose mind was deeply imbued with reading "The Sorrows of Werter," and other novels of the exquisitely sentimental school, approached a stalwart savage, whose forest chief? Is he broading over the wrongs of his race? Does the memory of the red warrior revert to the past, when his proud ancestors roamed through the mighty forest, and enjoyed the primeval glories of Nature, now so sadly marred by the axe and plough of the sympathizing rustic?" The answer of the forest chief with the drooping engle-eye, was a little shocking to her refined sensibility:

"No! White man gib Ingun too much whiskalee. Ingun big drunk last night; Ingun sick; by and by Ingun puke ; Ingun well again-ugh !"

THE TAYLOR JUG .- In one of Doctor Tyng's travels he met with an emigrant journeying with his family to the fertile regions beyond the Missis-sippi. He had all his worldly goods packed on wagons, and on one wagon there hung a jug with the bottom knocked out. He asked him why he carried that with him. "Why," said he, "that's my Taylor jug." "And what is a Taylor jug?" asked my friend. "Why," said he, "I had a son with General Paylor's army in Mexico, and the old General always told him to carry his whiskey-jug with a hole in the bottom; and since that I have cider?" inquired a farmer of an old ac places in a tank or fosse with water

23. Inflammation of the Kidneys, Erysipelas,
23. Liver Complaint and Palpitation of the Heart.

Keep it in your Families -- Sickness comes when least expected.

I propose to check, and effectually dissipate more ache and pain, and to accomplish more perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fluids in the human system, than can be effected by any other, or all other methods of medical sid in the same space of time.

THIS POPULAR REMIED is fact coming into use, for the fact that I cure, tree of charge, all these compilates whenever three is an opportunity to do so. As soon as it is applied it almost miraculously kills the pain. I do not ask you to buy before you are certain of its efficiency. If you have on a chor or pain, it is warranted to do all it purports on the latel.

I do not propose to cure every discuss—only a class named by my directions. My liminent operates on chemical and electric principles, and is, therefore appliable, to the circulation of the correct and saids.

Frod. A. Prof. J. H. McEntyre's INDIAN COMPOUND act ali-rectly on the absorbents, reducing plandum and other awellings in incredible short time, without any possible danger from its use under any pessible circumstances. This is an internal and external medicine—composed of roots, herbs and barks, such as our forefathers used.— There is a bountful supply on earth to curreall complaints if we only know what they were. This has been a great study with the Medical Faculty for many years, to find out the kinds best adapted to the above complaints—how to put them together, and what preportions to use.

A correspondent of the Rural New Yorker would teach a horse to back in this wise: "A horse that will not, or don't know how to back, should be well broken, and hitched to a lumberwagon, loaded (not too heavy) with wood, rails, or anything at hand, or that you wish to move, and then find in the road or field, a knoll where the surface is smooth and free from stones, and the descent from one to two rods. Drive the loaded wagon to the top and after stopping a minute or so, comsombre visage indicated suffering of mand your horses to back, pulling some kind and addressed him thus: "Why droops the eagle-eye of the gon being in a position to start very easy, and being loaded, will not easily stop after it is in motion, and your horse, if the harness be good, will be very likely to back down the hill. After getting to the bottom of the hill, speak kindly to him. Bo sure to say whoa' about the time you see the wagon is going to stop. Patting him and rubbing your hand over his head and face, repeat the going up and backing down the hill until he knows what it means to back, and then commence backing the empty wagon on the level, gradually increasing the load, and you will soon be able to back all the load that would be reasonable to back, not
